Bombing Filipinos.
Another Chevrolet Sold.
Japan's Common Sense.

By ARTHUR BRISBANE

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 30.

ON THE hot sidewalk in front of the Biltmore Hotel this morning these surprising words were heard, "Yes sir, Chicago is a fine place, there is no city on earth like Chicago."

It was a Los Angeles taxicab driver talking, making himself agreeable to a newly-arrived Chicagoan.

In a month that Chicagoan will say that Chicago is wonderful, but Los Angeles is extraordinary.

A year later, probably, he will be moving his family out here.

This state will have twenty millions population before the end of the century.

RENEWED attacks on Filipino workers in this state. A bomb exploded under a Filipino lodging house in Stockton, blew dozens of Asiatic workers out of bed. Nobody killed.

FIFTEEN THOUSAND Filipinos in Stockton, largest colony in California, are distributed as farmhands in the delta region by labor contractors. They get work readily while many white men are unemployed. That explains the rioting.

It is said by farmers that Filipinos with small deft hands and fingers work the fields under intensive cultivation better than the whites. That does not comfort whites, out of work.

THE state has taken precautions to prevent the Filipinos obtaining firearms.

MR. FRED FISHER, who knows how to make automobile bodies, is here inspecting automobile conditions, absorbing sunshine.

Examining the art collection of Mr. J. V. Baldwin, biggest Chevrolet dealer in the country, Mr. Fisher talked optimistically of conditions ahead, his views based on careful observation. He said, "October's clouds have rolled away."

AT THAT moment in came William M. Packer, Chevrolet sales manager for Southern California, high powered.

Contemplating this writer as a dominic hen contemplates a worm, he said, "I sold you a Chevrolet touring car three years ago, and I would like to sell you a new one.

"Your 1927 car still has a trade-in value."

He was told, "No new car needed. The 1927 Chevrolet, accustomed to bumps and ruts of the desert road, is going better than ever. Your president, Mr. Knudsen, would rather hear that than to have you sell a new car."

IN FIVE minutes, being able to talk faster than anybody can answer, Mr. Packer had arranged to give the old Chevrolet a coat of Duco, a set of Lovejoy shock absorbers, new seat covers, and had also sold a six cylinder Chevrolet sedan to be delivered in New York.

"That," said Fred Fisher, is quite a salesman."

Mr. Grant would be interested in that transaction.

MR. PACKER is the gentleman who sold a car three years ago by advising his prospect, "Do not go from Los Angeles to San Francisco on the Southern Pacific night express train. Let me take you in a Chevrolet. I will beat the express by an hour."

The offer was declined, the car was bought.

PRODUCTION'S problems are solved. There remains the problems of distribution through good salesmanship. Hence this lengthy narrative.

MR. STIMSON, Secretary of State, speaking for this government in Europe, broadcasts the opinion that submarines are "ruthless, inhuman instruments of warfare," and should be abolished.

Secretary Stimson represents sweet kindness.

Japan's representatives talk common sense.

MR. GINN and Mr. Dunning, "undercover men" for prohibition in Seattle, arranged with bootleggers "to complete a big whisky deal," to get evidence.

THE deal completed, Ginn, standing on the running board of the bootleg automobile, snapped a handcuff on one bootlegger. He was knocked from the running board and savagely kicked as he lay on the ground.

MR. DUNNING was kidnaped in the bootleggers' automobile, and while a woman in it attempted to strangle him, the bootleggers beat him. He is in the hospital now with an eye out, terribly maltreated.

HE WHO thinks he understands the character and emotions of women deceives himself.

BULLETIN.

FRANKLIN, Jan. 30.—The Commonwealth this afternoon rested in the case of three former coal and iron policemen being tried for manslaughter here in the death of John Borkowski, Tyre coal miner. Attorney Charles B. Prichard then began to outline the defense plans.

By LEE CURRAN
Staff Correspondent.

FRANKLIN, Pa., Jan. 30.—John Higgins, who has been described as "the unspeakable falsifier" by the defense, told from the witness stand today the story of John Borkowski, the miner of Tyre, being fatally beaten in the barracks of the Pittsburgh Coal Company at Imperial.

Higgins was a boarder in the home of Borkowski's mother-in-law.

The former coal and iron policemen—Walter Lyster, Harold Watts, Frank Slapikas—who are standing trial on charges of involuntary manslaughter, listened attentively as Higgins told how Borkowski was attacked.

"Watts slapped Borkowski," Higgins testified. "Lyster beat him with a leather strap and a blackjack, even after Dr. Patterson warned him he might have a corpse on his hands."

RELUCTANT WITNESS

This was the second time the story of Borkowski's killing had been recited from a witness stand, the first time at the trial in Pittsburgh when the policemen were acquitted.

Prosecutor Roy T. Clunk encountered a second reluctant witness today in Thomas Donaldson, coal company watchman, who was in the barracks.

Donaldson surprised listeners by telling that he dressed Borkowski's broken ribs "because I didn't like the way Dr. Patterson was doing it."

The defense has contended that Dr. Patterson, state's star witness, has lost some of his competency because of advanced years.

PLEA GRANTED

Before Donaldson took the stand Judge W. M. Parker granted Clunk's plea of surprise testimony of Corp. O. J. Mechling, of the coal company police. Clunk then cross-examined his own witness, but Mechling insisted that he couldn't identify the men who had struck Borkowski, although he admitted seeing blows struck.

NIGHT SESSION OFF

The session scheduled for tonight was eliminated late today by Judge Parker, who explained that there was no necessity for it. The defense probably will rest to-

BOBBY STOREY SHORTLY BEFORE HER DEATH

MAN GIVES LIFE IN DRY ATTACK

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—James S. White, a California game warden, was shot to death in the lobby of the Mattos Hotel at Castella, Cal., October 13, 1923, during a liquor raid by John Vail, Federal prohibition officer from San Francisco.

Albert F. Ross, county attorney of Shasta County, Cal., made these statements in a report to the Washington Herald on August 12, 1929.

"White was a highly-respected and popular game warden, but not an enthusiast on prohibition, as he used liquor himself. He was a friend of Jack Mattos, who was reputed to be selling liquor.

"Vail with some local liquor officers was searching Mattos' place and was treating Mattos rough when White entered and protested the rough treatment."

Ross commenting on Vail's acquittal three years later, said:

"Public of Shasta County is still not satisfied about this case."

Former Follies Chorus Girl Asphyxiated, Gas Jet Found Open

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—(AP.)—Bobby Storey, 24, one-time London barmaid who became one of the highest-paid chorus girls on Broadway, was found dead yesterday with a nickel in her purse. Police listed her death as a suicide.

Her body, clad in pajamas, was lying across a bed in the studio apartment of Raymond F. Holland, former Pittsburgher, a landscape artist, in East Thirty-eighth street. A gas jet was open and the apartment was filled with gas.

Holland found the body when he returned to the apartment after an absence of two weeks spent in a sanitarium for treatment for a nervous disorder. He said he had turned over his apartment to Miss Storey before leaving.

Miss Storey, in private life, was Mrs. Robert E. Foster, wife of an English actor.

In 1925 she was a member of Ziegfeld's Follies, then appeared in "Yours Truly," "Rio Rita," Earl Carroll's "Vanities" and "Pleasure Bound."

SHOT AT BANDIT WOUNDS GIRL

DETROIT, Jan. 30.—(AP.)—A 5-year-old girl was wounded today as she stepped in the way of a teller in the Peoples Wayne County Bank branch at Hamilton and Glendale avenues, Highland Park, as he was shooting at a man who escaped with approximately $500.

The wounded girl, Georgia Eldridge, was shot in the left hip. Surgeons said her condition did not appear serious.

Gilbert V. Schrock, the teller, fired four shots as the man fled to the street after receiving the money from the cage of another teller to whom he had handed a note demanding money. The girl was struck by one of the bullets.

The robber fled in an automobile.

AMERICA WINS NAVAL PARLEY VICTORY

U. S. Forces Consideration Of Cruiser Problem First; Battleships Left to Last

International News Service.

LONDON, Jan. 30.—The American delegation to the five-power naval disarmament conference scored a signal victory today when private negotiations between the chief delegates resulted in adoption of the American contention that cruisers should be first considered when the parley actually gets down to work.

From the start, the Americans have held out for premier consideration for the cruiser problem, but some of the other powers, particularly France and Italy, strenuously opposed this procedure.

U. S. PLAN WINS

The private negotiations which resulted in this outstanding concession to the American principles followed a plenary session of the conference at St. James' Palace, during which the American delegates had pretty much the "right of way" from start to finish.

The delegates agreed that when actual consideration is given to the various categories of warships, cruisers will be discussed first, then submarines, destroyers and battleships in the order named.

The Americans were so insistent that cruisers should be discussed first and battleships last that they finally won over the other delegations.

It is understood that the Anglo-American discussion regarding battleships is now centering on the proposal that they reduce their battleship fleets to 15 each, instead of the 18 provided for in the Washington treaty, as well as reducing the tonnage and the calli-

Abolition of Battleships, For Subs and Planes, Should Be U. S. Policy

The things which the United States should advocate at the London disarmament conference are:

First, abandonment of battleships entirely, they are expensive to construct and easily subject to destruction by aeroplanes and submarines. They are ineffective for defense, and the United States is interested primarily in defense.

Second, retention of submarines without limitation as submarines are inexpensive to construct and operate and are effective for defensive warfare.

Third, development of aeroplane carriers without limitation as to numbers or size so that any attack upon this country may be repelled far away from our shores, thus protecting our great coast cities from destruction.

Fourth, an adequate and appropriate cruiser fleet to protect our great and growing trade and to prevent our commerce from being driven from the seas as it has been in the past, even through our position in European wars was neutral; and a commercial fleet capable of being transformed into cruisers or airplane carriers in time of war.

Finally, a distinct definition of the rights of neutrals and complete exemption of food stuffs from the list of contraband in accordance with President Hoover's inspiring and civilizing policy of relieving women and children and non-combatants from the savagery of modern warfare and the "frightfulness" of starvation.

STRIKERS AGREE TO INJUNCTION

The striking taxicab drivers today agreed that they should be enjoined from interfering with the operation of Green cabs.

Counsel for the drivers, Leonard Maser, went into Common Pleas Court with Frank Ingersoll, counsel for the cab company, and told Judge Ambrose B. Reid that the drivers were opposed to violence and agreed that an injunction was proper.

Judge Reid complimented both sides on their attitude and granted a permanent injunction immediately—an unusual procedure inasmuch as there had not been a preliminary order.

SIMILAR TO FIRST

The injunction is a duplicate of that granted the Yellow Cab Company. The strikers are prohibited from picketing within 125 yards of company property.

A calm had settled over the strike before the injunction was granted. Taxicabs were running downtown and in the suburbs, but there were no reports of violence.

Secretary of Labor James J. Davis departed for Washington, after a second attempt to settle the strike. He spent six hours last night with a committee of strikers

MERCURY RISES AFTER DROP

Slightly warmer weather set in today. The thermometer dropped to 12 degrees in the early hours of the morning, but began an early upward climb. The thermometer is expected to continue to climb slowly tomorrow.

Brentwood and Sewickley Heights both reported 12 degrees early today, and in Carnegie and East Pittsburgh the temperature was slightly higher.

C. P. ANDERSON, BISHOP, DIES

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—(INS.)—The Most Rev. Charles P. Anderson, presiding bishop of the Episcopal Church in the United States, died here today following a heart attack several days ago.

Bishop Anderson was stricken January 21 and had been confined to his bed since.

Apostle of world peace and church unity over a span of nearly a half century, Bishop Anderson was destined to stand at the head of his denomination only two months. His election to the primacy in November, 1929, crowned 43 years of church service and 25 years as bishop of the Chicago diocese.

Bishop Anderson was born in Kemptville, Canada, September 8, 1864, and was educated at Trinity School, Port Hope, Ontario, and Trinity University, Toronto, where he received his degree of doctor of divinity in 1900.

He married Miss Janet Glass, of Belleville, Ont., in 1869.

He is survived by his widow and four daughters.

Upon the death of Bishop Anderson, the Rt. Rev. William Andrew Leonard, of Cleveland, bishop of Ohio, became acting head of the church. To him falls the duty of calling a meeting of the house of bishops, to select a new primate. Bishop Leonard is the senior bishop in years of service.

Bishop Leonard sailed yesterday from New York for a West Indies cruise, and efforts were being made today to reach him by radio.

RUM CLAUSE TO CANCEL LEASES

Pittsburgh Board Enlists In Nation-Wide Movement To Enforce Prohibition

The Pittsburgh Real Estate Board will co-operate with federal prohibition officers in preventing the use of rented buildings for the sale and manufacture of intoxicating liquors. This was the announcement of James W. Cree, Jr., president of the realty board, following a meeting today.

The board has approved in principal the idea of a clause in all leases that any violation of the prohibition laws reported by the Federal government shall be sufficient reason to end the lease. The Pittsburgh board includes 500 members who manage a large volume of real estate in Allegheny County.

No definite clause for insertion in the leases has been approved, but government officials in Washington have promised to formulate such a clause and present it for approval to the National Association of Real Estate Boards. The local board will support the clause adopted by the national realty body.

The action of the board is in response to a request by Prohibition Administrator John D. Pennington, head of the local enforcement officers, and is part of a nation-wide movement to gain the co-operation of realtors in enforcing the dry laws.

CADDIES' AGE SET AT 14

HARRISBURG, Jan. 30.—Boys under 14 are prohibited from being employed as caddies at golf clubs, Deputy Attorney General Roscoe Koch held today in a formal opinion to Secretary of Labor and Industry Peter Glick. More than 200 golf clubs in Pennsylvania are affected.

Some months ago Koch, in an informal opinion, held the same view. The Pennsylvania Golf Association appealed to the Department of Labor and Industry.

Relief from the present law must come from the Legislature, Koch said in his opinion.

Court Ruling Made On Right-of-Way

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 30.—(INS.)—The oft-mooted question concerning the right of way for automobiles at street highway intersections finally has been settled by a decision of the State Superior Court.

"When two vehicles approach the intersection of two public highways at the same time, the vehicle approaching from the right shall have the right of way," the court decided in an opinion handed down late yesterday by Judge Keller.

Girl Killed Sled Riding; Eight Die in 8 Days

A 13-year-old girl was dead today and a boy was in the Allegheny General Hospital as a result of coasting accidents in the Pittsburgh district last night. Last night's fatality brought the total to eight within as many days.

The dead girl was Sally Hughes, a Negro, of 662 Elm way, Oakmont, who was killed when her sled crashed into a pole at Seventh and Delaware avenues, Oakmont, the coroner reported. Her skull was fractured.

Reed 'Called Down' for Loud Talk at Parley

LONDON, Jan. 30.—(INS.)—Ambassador Charles G. Dawes and Senators Joseph T. Robinson and David A. Reed were "called down" today by a British foreign office official at St. James' Palace during today's meeting of the arms conference for talking too loud.

During the translation of Premier Andre Tardieu's speech before the plenary session in Queen Anne's drawing room, the three American delegates remained in an adjoining chamber with newspapermen. They spoke so loudly the official was forced to ask them to lower their voices so that journalists who had work to do could hear the translation coming over a loud speaker in the room.

Dawes had gone out for a smoke, and the acrid fumes of American pipe tobacco filled the anteroom.

HOUSE COMMITTEE APPROVES TRANSFER OF DRY BUREAU

AMENDMENT WRITTEN IN BILL

Empowers Mitchell to Make Regulations for Permits On Industrial Alcohol

By GEORGE E. DURNO
International News Service.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—The administration bill transferring prohibition enforcement from the Treasury to the Department of Justice was formally presented to the House today.

In reporting the measure out, the Committee on Executive Expenditures recommended its enactment.

Under the provisions of this legislation, Attorney General W. D. Mitchell will become the dry czar of America. All of the enforcement machinery which for the last 10 years has been controlled by the Treasury, will be turned over to his department intact.

The Expenditures Committee held a final meeting on the bill today and wrote in one important amendment by which the Attorney General will be empowered to make all regulations governing the issuance of industrial alcohol permits, despite the fact that work is being left in the hands of the Secretary of the Treasury.

Originally, the measure had directed that permit regulations be drafted jointly by the Attorney General and the Secretary of the Treasury. So intent however, were the committee members on making absolutely sure that the Treasury in the future would have no hand in enforcement of the dry laws that they struck the Secretary of the Treasurw from the bill.

A Bureau of Industrial Alcohol is created in the Treasury Department to handle the administrative work incident to the issuance of approximately 160,000 permits annually.

SWEDISH QUEEN SERIOUSLY ILL

LONDON, Jan. 30.—(INS.)—Queen Victoria of Sweden is in a critical condition from lung and heart trouble, an Exchange Telegraph dispatch received from Rome stated today.

A bulletin issued at her winter home in Rome stated that her condition had become steadily worse in the last 24 hours and that King Gustave had arrived at her bedside.

The Queen, who is 68 years old, was having difficulty in breathing, the bulletin stated. She was also suffering from coughing spells, and her heart was in a very much weakened condition.

For many years the health of the Queen has been such that she has been forced to seek climes warmer than her native Sweden. Recently, however, her bronchial trouble has been unalleviated by the usually beneficial air of Southern Europe.

CHARGE DOCTOR REFUSED CALL

Woods Run police today sent a written complaint to Inspector Charles Faulkner, of the North Side district, that City Physician Wendell B. Gordon, 3727 Brighton road, had refused to attend the victim of a holdup and robbery, who was seriously injured by footpads, early today.

Dr. Gordon when informed of the complaint said he was suffering from a sore throat, and for that reason did not get out of bed to attend the victim. He said he recommended that the man be taken to the hospital.

Faulkner said he would transmit the complaint, which bore the signatures of Sergt. M. V. Dougherty and Lieut. R. J. McIntosh, of the Woods Run station, to Police Supt. Peter P. Walsh.

Sergt. Dougherty stated that he called Dr. Gordon at 12:07 a. m. today to attend Ralph Johnston, 1106 West North avenue, who was held up in front of his home, beaten and robbed of $80, by thugs who escaped.

"Dr. Gordon stated that he was in bed and that he would not get dressed nor would he answer any call until morning," the complaint sets forth.

Half an hour later the Woods Run patrol took Johnston to St. John's Hospital, where it was said he was suffering from a bruise on the left side of his head and a possible fracture of the skull. His condition was said to be serious.

Residents Protest Against New Mill

MARTINSBURG, W. Va., Jan. 30.—Twenty-five residents of Boyd avenue petitioned the city council to refuse a permit of a woolen company to erect a building on that thoroughfare because the mill people might install machinery creating considerable noise and annoyance. Councilmen said they were informed the building was to be a storage house, and said were it used for any other purpose action would be taken.

CHICAGO DEBT PLIGHT GRAVE

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—(INS.)—Driven to desperation by ever-mounting financial troubles and the rapid approach of threatened bankruptcy, Chicago and Cook County today turned to Gov. Louis Emmerson's move to save the situation.

Some time today, at the invitation of the Governor, members of the State Tax Commission, the Cook County Board of Assessors and the Board of Review will meet with the chief executive here to speed up the reassessment which has delayed collection of taxes for more than 20 months.

Added to the troubles evidenced by $280,000,000 of floating debts and $11,275,500 in unpaid salaries to employes, four other incidents appeared on the clouded horizon today.

First, the county forest preserve sold $500,000 worth of bonds at a record low price of 90 cents on the dollar; landlords started a move to eject families of city and county employes for nonpayment of rent; for the second time the Firemen's Pension Board failed to raise $97,000 to meet obligations to dependents on February 6,

IRENE, PAL FACE KIN OF SLAIN CORPORAL

Dague Makes Denial, Blonde Remains Silent When Asked 'Did You Kill My Brother?'

By AL GOUGH,
Staff Correspondent.

NEW CASTLE, Pa., Jan. 30.—Facing a brother and three uncles of Corp. Brady Paul, Irene Schroeder, trigger woman suspect and her alleged gun-toting sweetheart, Walter Glenn Dague, charged with the murder of the highway patrolman, still maintain their innocence.

Vincent Paul, brother, James McGugin, of Hickory, and C. W. Paul and Louis M. Paul, uncles, of Washington, visited Dague and Irene in the Lawrence County jail with their attorney, Robert Ruff, of Jeannette, last night. They looked over the two suspects now faced with two murder accusations since the death of Deputy Sheriff Lee Wright in Arizona yesterday.

"Did you kill my brother?" the brother of the slain patrolman asked Dague.

"No, I did not," the prisoner replied, declining to answer further questions.

Irene had nothing to say.

VOICE NO ILL WILL

Neither young Paul nor his uncles voiced any ill feeling towards either of the suspects.

"So long, I hope I'll be seeing you again," were the parting words of Dague to John Seever, his cellmate, as the latter left this afternoon to serve a life sentence in the penitentiary. Seevers, who killed his wife and another woman in an automobile on the New Castle-Cleveland road, had just been sentenced by Judge J. A. Chambers. Dague also bade goodbye to Steve Dallich, a fellow prisoner, who drew from seven to 14 years for robbery.

Preliminary hearing of the Paul murder case probably will be held late today or tomorrow.

It is believed separate trials will be asked by defense counsel, in which event Irene's case probably will be called first. Eye witnesses to the shooting of Brady Paul testified at the coroner's inquest that Irene stood over Paul firing into his prostrate form while Dague in a voluntary statement Maricopa County jail admitted firing at least one shot at the officer. The post-mortem examination, it is claimed could not distinguish between the shots which killed Paul, the Commonwealth holding that both defendants are responsible for the officer's death.

AWAIT TRIAL HERE

PHOENIX, Ariz., Jan. 30.—Return of Irene Schroeder and W. Glenn Dague from Pennsylvania to Phoenix for trial on murder charges will be sought by Arizona authorities should they escape the death penalty in Pennsylvania, it was said here today. First-degree murder charges were filed against the pair and Joseph F. Wells, following the death of Deputy Sheriff Lee Wright from wounds received in a gun battle with the trio January 3.

County Attorney George Wilson said Wells would be brought to trial within a few weeks and that copies of the charges would be forwarded to New Castle, Pa., where Dague and the Schroeder woman are held pending trial for the murder of Brady Paul, highway patrolman.

GUNMAN PERILS SPORTSMEN'S PRESIDENT

Homestead Realtor Fired On In Garage; Prowler Flees As Neighbors Join Search

After his return at a late hour from a social event, Hobson was putting his car into the garage at his West Run road country home when a bullet, fired, he judges, from a distance of not more than 15 feet, whizzed by his head.

The would-be assassin apparently had lain in wait behind a clump of bushes across the road from the garage.

Hobson threw himself back of cover, but no more bullets came.

A party of neighbors whose car had skidded off the road a short distance away heard the shot and came to investigate. On their arrival Hobson came from cover and the party scoured the neighborhood, but without finding any trace of the marauder. The Munhall police were notified.

EXTRA POLICE COST AVOIDED

Citizens of Pittsburgh who have been speculating on the cost of maintaining the extra squads of policemen at many points in the downtown district to prevent taxicab strike riots need not fear that next year's tax rate might be raised to foot the bill.

Police Supt. Peter P. Walsh has announced that instead of paying overtime to the policemen on strike duty, extra days off will be granted them when conditions are normal. Thus, except for a lessening of police protection in quiet and outlying districts when patrolmen take time off in repayment for the extra duty, the city will not suffer. The Parmelee Company itself is paying the wages of eight sub-patrolmen employed in the vicinity of its private property during the emergency.

Weather Conditions.

High barometer is centered over the far Northeast, and a long narrow ridge of high pressure extends from this center southwestward over the Ohio Valley states to the lower Mississippi valley, separating a low pressure area over the South Atlantic coast from another low over the central plains. Another high covers the Rocky Mountain states. The South Atlantic low is causing cloudy weather over all the Atlantic Coast states and snow from Maryland to South Carolina. At Washington, D. C., the snowfall during the last 24 hours was five inches. Over the remainder of the country the skies are clear except for some small cloud areas over the Plains states. There was a drop in temperature over the southern states, freezing weather now extends as far south as Idaho. Over the central valleys and the Plains states the temperatures are rising.

River Conditions.

The Monongahela River is rising slightly, elsewhere the rivers are about stationary. Stage at Franklin is 2.0 feet; Lock No. 7, 12.2; Pittsburgh, 11.4; Dam No. 4, 8.0; Dam No. 6, 7.8; Dam No. 8, 8.6, and Dam No. 11, 1.6. Except at Wheeling, the dams are up.

and counsel for the employers. What he accomplished was not made known, but the drivers seemed happier after the conference.

DRIVER RECOVERING

The spasms of violence which have attended the strike of the 1,400 drivers who want more pay and recognition of their union seemed to have abated for today at least.

R. A. Newman, 41, of 600 Arch street, an imported driver, victim of an attack on a cab at Baum boulevard and Melwood street late yesterday, was reported as recovering today. Newman's was one of three cabs that were showered with bricks by gangs of strike sympathizers who trailed them. Louis Briskey, 22, of 1091 Crawford street, arrested in connection with the attack, was held without bail by Magistrate James O'Connor pending the outcome of Newman's injuries.

"We have discussed the situation in a friendly, reasonable manner. I have pledged every resource of my department to assist in any way possible," was his only comment.

The meeting was attended by the striking drivers' committee of 15, headed by Paul Toole, chairman; Attorney C. K. Robinson, representing the Parmelee Company, operating the Yellow and Green Taxicab companies; Henry G. Burger, representative of the International Brotherhood of Chauffeurs, Teamsters, Stablemen and Helpers of America, and Thomas G. Finn, conciliator for the Federal Department of Labor.

Airport Assured To State Capital

HARRISBURG, Jan. 30.—(AP.)—Pennsylvania's capital was assured an airport with over-subscription of more than $6,000 of $250,000 in stock in the enterprise.

The land for the port was procured some time ago and the additional stock was needed to finance the building of hangars. The field will be managed by the Pittsburgh Aviation Company.

3 MURDERED, 8 INJURED BY BOMB

Chicago Gangsters Run Riot With Night Club and Taxi Killings, $100,000 Blast

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—(AP.)—A night of violence that began with a $100,000 bombing and carried on with a gangster ambush, came to a tragic end early today with a double murder.

The bomb explosion—the most terrific in the memory of police—wrecked a large one-story brick building housing a wholesale grocery company on the northwest side. Eight persons were injured and buildings for blocks around were damaged.

GANGSTER SLAIN

Shortly afterward Johnny Genaro, pal of gang lords and with a reputation of his own, stepped from a club on the edge of Chicago's Chinatown into a two-man ambush and was shot probably fatally. The men stood within three or four feet of him, took careful aim and emptied their revolvers. They drove away in a small car as Genaro lay unconscious in the street.

Near death, Genaro broke gangland's law against "squawking" and named Louis de Luccha and Angelo Lucci as the gunmen who shot him.

Genaro also accused James Belcastro as the man who "put him on the spot." Belcastro was arrested, but denied any connection with the shooting. Police started a search for the two accused gunmen.

2 DEAD IN TAXI

The Rogers Park residential section became the scene of the night's most appalling crime. Barney Mitchell, treasurer of the Checker Taxicab Company, and George Jackson, a cab driver for the company, were found shot dead in Jackson's cab.

Several bullets had been fired into Mitchell's body, which lay sprawled grotesquely upon the rear seat. Jackson was shot as he sat at the wheel, a bullet entering his head behind the right ear.

ber of guns of eventual replacements.

Meanwhile, the old controversy between France and Great Britain as to whether naval limitation should be effected on the thesis of global tonnage or by categories was thrown before the conference.

Global tonnage means a blanket allotment under which nations may build any type of vessels they chose provided they keep within the total allotment. Categorical tonnage means a definite allotment for each individual class of warship.

The controversy was discussed by the spokesmen of all five powers at the conference save Japan. Then on the motion of Secretary of State Stimson it was referred to a steering committee, which will consider the question.

TWO DELEGATES

The committee probably will consist of two delegates from each power.

Secretary of the Navy Adams and Ambassador Hugh Gibson were designated as the American members of the committee to consider the question how to measure naval power.

Premier Ramsay MacDonald, with ultra optimism, expressed his views of the progress made to correspondents as follows:

"I think we are now within measurable distance of solving the problem which up to now has not been solvable. Mind, I do not say that we are agreed as yet, but I think this committee will report agreement.

"The differences between us are so small that were you to put a candle to them, you could see through the wall of controversy."

Princess Ileana Announces Betrothal to Count

BUCHAREST, Jan. 30.—(INS.)—The engagement of Princess Ileana of Rumania to Count Alexander von Hochberg, second son of the Prince of Pless, was officially celebrated at the Cotroceni palace today.

In the presence of members of all Rumanian royal family and the diplomatic corps, Count Alexander presented his bride-to-be with a magnificent 10-karat diamond engagement ring.

The news of the engagement, which has been rumored for some weeks, was officially announced at 11 o'clock from the palace. Members of the Rumanian royal family, including the boy King Michael and the dowager Queen Marie, immediately offered their congratulations to the couple.

The regency council, which is ruling during the minority of King Michael, also sent its felicitations, while various public societies gave evidence of the population's pleasure over the engagement.

Princess Ileana revealed her engagement to a group of students at a school near Bucharest last night, when she told them it was "the happiest love match," and added smilingly that "the attachment was the result of a mishap of fate."

Date of the wedding has not been made known, but it is expected to take place in a short time. Queen Marie is especially pleased over her daughter's choice, as the count's mother, like herself, is an English woman by birth. The Princess of Pless was formerly Mary Cornwallis-West, one of the most famous beauties of the late Nineteenth Century.

McGovern Asks Court End Guardianship of Twins

County Commissioner C. C. McGovern today asked Orphans Court to relieve him of the guardianship of Betty and Joanna Parkes, 16-year-old twin sisters, whose adventures recently landed them in Morals Court.

"I looked after them the best I could, but they need a mother," Commissioner McGovern told Judge Edward C. Chalfant as he appeared with the two girls in court.

"They were arrested, taken to a police court and exploited because I was their guardian," McGovern declared. "They have been crucified for political purposes. Boarding schools won't take them now because of the notoriety."

McGovern told the court that his guardianship was adverse to the twins' best interests. Their only blood relative, he said, is their grandmother in Cleveland, but she is too feeble to care for them.

Judge Chalfant took the plea under advisement.

The twins disappeared a month ago from their rooming house, 1671 Jancey street. Two weeks later they were found in an apartment in South Neville street, where they had been taken by Pat O'Brien, Oakland auto salesman, they told police. He had pitied their plight when he met them on the street, they said. They were turned over to their attorney in Morals Court. O'Brien was fined $25.

DIVER, TRAPPED 3 DAYS UNDER WATER, BROUGHT UP DEAD

2 RISK LIVES IN RESCUE EFFORT

Rushed by Plane, Pair Defy Warnings but Reach Trans Too Late to Save Him

MONTREAL, Jan. 30.—(AP.) — Three fathoms deep under the icy waters of the Outardes River died Peter Trans, deep sea diver, and with him his dreams of a new home in the new land he was helping to build for the wife and two small sons he had left behind in Denmark.

From Monday morning at 10:30 until today at dawn he had lain alone in the icy grip of the little river, 200 miles from civilization and help, pinned fast against the cofferdam by the strong current and spikes which fouled his lines.

On Monday morning Trans placed his ladder against the cofferdam and descended as he had done on each working day of the two weeks preceding. After a few moments he returned to the surface and asked that his ladder be shifted and went down again. He apparently slipped from the ladder and was carried by the current under the cofferdam, and held there by the spikes which caught his suit.

When word of his plight reached the offices of the Ontario Paper Company here they ordered Quesnel Morency and Lewis Begin to fly to his aid. Attired in their suits they started Tuesday for the scene, but were forced down at Rimouski by a severe snowstorm.

Last night at dusk Morency and Begin arrived at the little settlement by air from Rimouski and immediately, despite threatening conditions, descended to where Trans lay.

Through the night they worked and today shortly after dawn freed the body and brought it to the surface.

LINDY SEES WIFE PILOT GLIDER

Takeoff From Flat Mountain Top and Landing in Field Made Like Veteran Pilot

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Jan. 30.—(AP.)—As easily as though she had done it numerous times before, Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh yesterday made her first glider flight here, staying aloft a fraction over six minutes and winning a first-class pilot's license for gliders.

The flight took place at Soledad Mountain in a sail plane owned by Hawley Bowlus. While the glider was aloft, Col. Lindbergh stood with William Van Dusen and J. L. Hicklin, official timers for the National Glider Association, watching the flight.

Mrs. Lindbergh's take-off was as good as though it had been done by the Colonel himself. From the flat mountain top she sailed directly west toward the ocean, the glider resembling a great bird in flight. After flying about three minutes directly west, she manipuated a 90 degree right angle bank and headed north, only to make another 90 degree bank to the left and then turn southward.

Where Col. Lindbergh was standing, he could see that after the second turn his wife was rapidly losing altitude.

Within a few seconds she made a perfect landing in a field beside the highway, jumped from the cockpit and started running towards the road.

Col. Lindbergh, who was about four miles away when his wife landed, in company with Mrs. Jack Maddux and Bowlus, entered an automobile and rushed to her.

GORGES SPREAD FLOOD TERROR

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Jan. 30.—(INS.)—With only the roofs of farmhouses showing above the flood waters in many sections of Posey County, relief forces today attempted to battle the advance of the most alarming flood of Indiana's history.

Ice gorges in the Wabash River are causing the flood waters to spread with unprecedented rapidity across the lowlands south of New Harmony, Ind.

Ice-laden waters have already covered a section 15 miles wide.

Near New Harmony 18 families are marooned without food and with little shelter. Ten persons are isolated in a house on Ribeyre Island in the Wabash. These, together with a score of sufferers on cut-off islands, were given food yesterday by aviators, who dropped the supplies in small parachutes.

15 in Workhouse 'Alimony Club' Here Freed

Fifteen men who have served six months or more in the workhouse because they would not pay their wives the allowances awarded them, were released by Judge Richard H. Kennedy today after they had promised to pay in the future.

While in the workhouse they each earned $3.90 a week which was turned over to their wives.

Joseph Schildkraut, Actor, and Wife Part

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 30.—(INS.)—That Joseph Schildkraut, film star, and his wife, Elsie Bartlett, stage actress, have separated, was admitted here today by the former's attorney, who announced that a property settlement was being arranged. It is expected that the wife will subsequently file a divorce suit, probably on the ground of mental cruelty.

GRUNDY SILENT SENATOR

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—(INS.)—Senator Joseph R. Grundy, of Pennsylvania, who told the Senate Lobby Investigating Committee before Christmas that Senators from certain "backward states" should talk small, is doing just that himself since Gov. Fisher awarded him the senatorial toga. During his brief time in office Grundy has become one of the most bashful and silent members of Congress.

The new congressional directory, issued today, placed Grundy in this category. The brevity of his autobiography has surprised his colleagues. It merely gives his name, residence, date of appointment and term of service.

Grundy has already applied modern American business methods in his office. Assigned, as new Senators generally are, to a comparatively small office, he has had constructed a partition making two sections of the outer office. In front of the partition, that is, the entrance, a corps of stenographers and office assistants are kept busy, and in back of this, in a separate office, is Grundy's secretary, Leighton C. Taylor.

However, it is not difficult to reach the new Pennsylvania Senator. The hard job is to get him to talk.

The talkative, self-possessed former tariff lobbyist who appeared before the lobby committee, is no more. In his place is a suave, close-mouthed man who apparently keeps his own counsel and answers questions cheerfully or not at all—mostly not at all.

morrow and the jury should have the case before Saturday.

Dr. J. M. Patterson's identification of the three defendants yesterday was the "best-yet" promised by Prosecutor Clunk. Dr. Patterson described in detail the beating of Borkowski by Lyster, but was not asked by Clunk to identify the defendants.

On cross-examination Attorney Edward G. Coll did ask. And the witness supplied the identification he had failed to give at the first trial.

"The defendants have been out of prison some time and now they look more like themselves," the doctor explained.

Lyster's Wife Awaits His Fate in Killing Trial

FRANKLIN, Pa., Jan. 30.—In a modest home on the outskirts of Philadelphia, a wife with a 3-months-old baby anxiously awaits news from this town of the trial of the three former coal and iron police.

She is the wife of Walter J. Lyster, a defendant. Just before her baby was born she was taken to an Allegheny County courtroom to testify for her husband, then on trial for murder, but her husband refused to allow her to attend this trial.

"I'll not drag my wife into this," Lyster said today. "I'll fight it out alone."

Lyster, who has been in the courts three times on charges involving violent deaths, is through with policing and is preparing to enter business.

Snow So Heavy President Rides Block to Work

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—(INS.)—Due to the heaviest snowstorm that has descended over the capital for years, President Hoover held his 7 a. m. session with his "medicine ball cabinet" indoors. They played in an improvised court in one of the White House corridors.

The President established two records today—he was the first Washington worker to reach his office without a flake of snow on his hat or coat, and he was probably the only man to ride one block in an automobile to get to work.

By 2 o'clock this afternoon the snow had reached a depth of 11 inches and was still falling. Government departments were closing early to enable workers to reach their homes as best they might in view of the handicap upon transportation facilities.

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 30.—(AP.)—A third reprieve was granted to Fred W. Edel, of New York City, who had been scheduled to be executed at Sing Sing prison tomorrow night for the murder of Emmaline Harrington, former actress.

Gov. Roosevelt granted the new reprieve to permit introduction of reported new evidence in Edel's application for a new trial. Edel's respite is until February 17. General Sessions Judge Charles C. Nott, Jr., has set February 10 as the date for the next move in the application for a new trial.

Convicted Squire Free Through Error

Sentenced to 105 days in jail on August 15, Justice of the Peace Arthur F. Reed, of Greentree, has not yet served his term, it was revealed today.

The fact that Reed did not serve his sentence was called to the attention of Judge Harry H. Rowand by the district attorney's office, which reported a clerical error in the court records as responsible.

Judge Rowand remanded Reed to jail to begin the term. Reed and H. G. Heiser, a detective, were found guilty of extortion and malfeasance, and after failing to obtain a new trial were sentenced on August 15. Heiser, who had not been able to secure bail and who had already spent 105 days in jail, was released on parole. Reed was sentenced, but an error in the record, according to Gardner, left him out of jail.

Gardner explained to the court that he discovered the error while checking over the records during the Christmas holidays, but because of the season, he waited until the present to call the court's attention to the case.

Dixie States Unite To Fight Mosquito

RICHMOND, Va.—(AP.)—The screech-wail of the mosquito, big brother of the malarial insect, has but one big item of trouble.

He carries no disease, but his size and numbers make him such a pest that a score of states from the Gulf and South Atlantic Atlantic coasts, 200 counties will attack him in a correlated campaign all along the South Atlantic and Gulf coasts.

Airplanes and land machines will be used to spread larval poisons over the marshes.

Electric Meters Show Bedtime Hour

DRAW DRY LINES ON BORDERS

By HAROLD J. T. HORAN

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—Plans for establishment of the proposed prohibition cordon along the Mexican and Canadian borders are going rapidly ahead.

Identical treaties are being submitted to both Canada and Mexico designed to suppress rum running across the boundaries.

While the negotiations between the state department and Canada are being temporarily held up until the inauguration of the Canadian parliament early in March, the negotiations with the Mexican government are proceeding.

Mexico is contemplating a national law for the curtailment of alcohol and the control of saloons. During his visit to Washington recently, President-elect Pascual Ortiz Rubio informally discussed some phases of the prohibition question with responsible American officials.

Mexico is said to have its own problem with liquor smuggling. Huge quantities of American bootleg liquor are smuggled into Mexico through Ensenada, lower California, thus escaping the high Mexican tax of $12 per gallon.

The prohibition cordon between the United States and Canada would embody most of the enforcement features now before Congress. The basic feature of the treaty between the two countries would be the increase and strict limitation of ports of entry. So many loopholes for the violation of the dry law now exists in the vast unguarded and uncontrolled Canadian - American boundary, that the only hope for adequate enforcement lies in increasing the number of ports of entry and banning border crossings except through such ports.

PENNSY FIGHTS NEW RAIL LINE

The Pennsylvania Railroad today has on file with the Interstate Commerce Commission a protest against granting permission to the Pittsburgh and West Virginia Railroad to construct a six-mile branch on the Connellsville extension to the steel districts of Monessen and Donora. Attorneys for the Pennsylvania system appeared before the commission yesterday and opposed the application.

The branch would extend down the Pigeon Creek Valley to connect with the Donora Southern Railroad near the Monongahela Railroad at a station to be known as Baird, Pa. The Pittsburgh and West Virginia Railroad is now building the Connellsville extension at a cost of $38,000,000. The hearing yesterday before the commission was on the proposed report of Assistant Finance Director C. V. Burnside recommending the granting of the application.

The opposition brought up yesterday was a surprise to many in view of the fact that recent reports stated the Pennroad Corporation, a holding company ally of the Pennsylvania, had acquired control of the Pittsburgh and West Virginia from F. E. Taplin, of Cleveland, and his associates. The proposed extension, however, would permit the Pittsburgh and West Virginia to compete directly with a Pennsylvania main line in the Monessen steel district.

Libraries Report Circulation Growth

LEAGUE'S DRUG 'WAR FARCE'

By JAMES T. WILLIAMS, JR.
Universal Service Special Cable

GENEVA, Switzerland, Jan. 30.—Although the thirteenth session of the advisory committee on opium and other dangerous drugs of the League of Nations began two weeks ago, the members are pecking away at half measures instead of laying foundations for effective world-wide warfare against the terrible narcotic traffic.

Nor is there any prospect that they will come to grips with the main aspects of the problem during the remainder of the session. The committee is solely occupying itself with the question of limitation of manufacture, and if the Council of the League approves the agenda of the committee, the League will call an international conference to discuss the question of manufacture limitation.

From the American point of view, this is begging the whole question. The American government long ago took the position, and has maintained it ever since, that if the purpose of The Hague convention is to be achieved, the signatory powers must recognize that the use of opium for other than scientific and medical purposes is an abuse and is illegitimate.

International warfare on drugs must strike at the root of the evil by setting up machinery for the control of production of opium, and such production must be made in such a manner as to prevent any surplus, experts declare.

Led by the British and other opium-producing nations, the League is using its machinery to preclude the conference pledged to prevent narcotic over-production. That is why the League is now ready to hand to the impatient world a new "hush darling" in the form of invitations to attend an international conference which will ignore the control of production, confining its discussion to the control of drug manufacturers.

3 IN EXTORTION PLOT CAUGHT

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—(INS.)—Captured while trying to extort $5,000 from Robert Barr, La Salle street broker, three men with long criminal records today were under arrest here.

A police squad, summoned when a stenographer slipped out to a telephone, arrived in time to seize one of the bandits who was holding 10 girl employes at bay with his revolver.

Another held a revolver against Barr's head while the broker wrote a check for $5,000.

The men had threatened Barr three weeks ago, and a police guard was posted and later withdrawn. They were identified as Joseph Fiore, Robert Ryan and Robert Mathisen.

RUM PLOT TRIAL OPENS MONDAY

Attorney John P. Coldiron, of Washington, a special assistant to the United States Attorney General, is in Pittsburgh completing preparations for the prosecution of former Judge John A. Berkey, of Somerset County, and 15 others scheduled to go on trial in Federal Court Monday on an indictment charging them with conspiring to violate the national prohibition law.

The Washington attorney will be assisted at the counsel table by William J. Aiken, an assistant attorney under United States Attorney Louis E. Graham, and possibly by L. E. Salter, a special assistant to the Attorney General, who conducted the Federal grand jury investigation, which resulted in a true bill being returned November 20, 1929. The appearance of the latter in the case depends on his completion of another government prosecution he is handling in another court.

Among the defendants is "Ed." Darr, chief of Somerset County detectives.

It is the first case listed in the special session of court which convenes Monday. No announcement has been made as to which of the three district judges will preside. Judge Berkey retired from the bench in the Somerset County Common Pleas Court on January 6, not having been a candidate for another term at last year's election.

Hungary to Make Records of Evidence

BUDAPEST.—(AP.)—As one result of a visit to the United States by a superior officer of the metropolitan police, declarations by prisoners are hereafter to be taken on wax disks or rolls. The records will then be introduced in court as evidence.

COMPARE!

You can see the world's leading pianos within a radius of a few blocks—look at them—and judge for yourself the value of these AEOLIAN-BUILT pianos at $435, and the advantages of this cooperative plan.

There is no thrill to equal that of owning your own Grand Piano

Through this cooperative plan we are offering 300 persons a Grand piano at $435—of the same or better quality as pianos ordinarily selling at $645 and even more

$25 is all that is required as a first payment — $12.50 plus a small carrying charge per month pays the balance

COMPARE . . . . . these pianos built by the Aeolian Company with those of unknown manufacturers. The Aeolian Company is known internationally as makers of high-grade pianos only. They have never before manufactured a Grand piano to retail at less than $645.

COMPARE . . . . . them in quality with pianos selling at the same or even higher prices. If you are a judge of tone—of construction—of design—you will know that equal piano value has never before been offered at this price.

COMPARE . . . . . them in price—You will find pianos of this grade selling for as much as $150 more than this Aeolian-built piano—and some higher still.

COMPARE . . . . . the terms on which these pianos are being sold with ordinary terms. To have a piano of this grade delivered to your home for $25 is as sensational as if the down payment on a high-grade motor car were reduced to one-half or one-quarter of the usual amount.

All these comparisons are made possible by vast Aeolian resources. And then it does make a difference where you buy your piano. We stand firmly behind your purchase. Our guarantee, as well as the Aeolian Company's, is your assurance of lasting value.

This cooperative plan will save you $90 a year

Should you buy a piano in the usual way, paying $20 a month for it—and an additional $10 a month, at least, for piano lessons—you would have to invest $30 a month in music for from two and one-half to three years. But buy your piano on this cooperative plan and it will cost but $12.50 a month. Now if you add the $10 for piano lessons, you have only $22.50 invested in music. You are buying a piano—paying for musical instruction—and yet you have $90 a year to spend in some other way, plus what you have already saved on the low price of $435.

THOSE WHO SHOULD TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THIS PLAN

1 . . Clubs, Sunday Schools, Lodges, Societies or Associations. Five or ten cents a week from each member will meet the installments.

2 . . Music Teachers and piano students will find this not only an exceptionally fine piano, but of greater exchange value in proportion to what it cost than any other piano in which they could invest.

3 . . Young people who are obliged to buy and pay for their own pianos.

5 . . Anyone and everyone who is now renting a piano.

FREE PRISONER, INFORMER

County detectives today were to be sent to Sharpsburg to arrest an alleged slot machine operator whose name was revealed by a prisoner who won a reduction in his sentence by giving the information.

The prisoner, Fred Kirshman, 604 Main street, Sharpsburg, who had served eight days of a 30-day jail sentence, was freed today by Judge Harry H. Rowand at the request of Assistant District Attorney Andrew T. Park.

Park told Judge Rowand that Kirshman had sent word to him by a minister that he was willing to name and identify the man who had placed two slot machines in his place of business.

The District Attorney's office refused to reveal the identity of the man named by Kirshman, but declared he is reported to be a large slot machine operator in the Sharpsburg district.

Kirshman was sentenced $50 fine and 30 days in jail for maintaining gambling devices by Judge Rowand on January 22.

They said Moya beat Zemp with a shoe last, fracturing his skull, and afterward hid the body in an outhouse.

"I robbed the old man when he went away 10 days ago," Moya related, according to the police. "When he came back, he found I had opened his strong box and we quarreled. I killed him and took $5 from his pockets."

Driver Held for Trial In Fatal Auto Crash

Has Man to Hang But Is Shy Rope; Borrows It

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 30.—(INS.)—Sheriff Clay Grooms, of Cooper County, Mo., is in search of a rope suitable for hanging a man.

The sheriff telephoned the sheriff's here and asked to borrow a rope to execute Lawrence Mabry, 19-year-old Sedalia, Mo., slayer Friday. He said he had been unable to find the right kind.

A gallows rope was prepared here recently for the hanging of a Negro and Nordberg agreed to loan it providing it is returned in good condition.

CZECHS HONOR U. S. ENVOY

PRAGUE, Czecho-Slovakia, Jan. 30.—(AP.)—Lewis Einstein, retiring American Minister to Czecho-Slovakia, and Mrs. Einstein were honored yesterday at a farewell reception given by Dr. Eduard Benes, foreign minister.

Dr. Benes decorated Mr. Einstein with the grand cross of the Order of the Lion in the presence of the entire diplomatic corps and high officials of the country.

A.T.&T. ACCEPTS COUZENS BILL

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—(AP.)—Expressing no objection to the pending Couzens communications bill, Walter S. Gifford, president of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, said before the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee today that passage of the measure by Congress probably would mark the end of state regulation of utilities.

Gifford added that what had happened with the railroads under regulation of the Interstate Commerce Commission, where federal control had become supreme, was bound to happen also in the field of communications.

The Couzens bill would group radio, telephones, telegraph and cables under control of a new communications commission and the committee is making an extensive investigation of the whole subject.

Indict 3 Escaped Convicts in Slaying

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Jan. 30.—(INS.)—Three long-term escaped convicts from Connecticut were under indictment here today on charges of first degree murder growing out of the slaying of Detective W. D. The trio, Watson Maulthrope, Roland Lalone and Leo Landry, were recaptured last week.

Foreign Actors as Talkie Solution Seen by Lasky

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Jan. 30.—(AP)—Jesse L. Lasky, film producer, announced today upon his return from a trip through Mexico that his company would bring several Mexican actors and actresses here to make talking pictures for Latin-American markets.

"I made a number of screen and voice tests of actors and actresses playing in stock companies in Mexico City," Lasky declared, "and I expect to bring a number of them to Hollywood."

"Foreign stock companies will solve the problem of talking pictures and I predict that within a year we shall witness another influx of foreign actors and actresses into Hollywood."

TWO KINGS BALK AT PARLEYS

BAGDAD, Irak, Jan. 30.—(AP)—Considerations of national pride have brought about a hitch in the meeting between King Feisal of Irak and Ibn Saud, King of the Hedjaz.

It had been announced that the peace talk would be held in the neutral zone near Al Saffar. The latest proposal is to hold the conference on a British warship.

Meanwhile the attitude of Ibn Saud, who is encamped near Al Saffar, was reported to be: "here I am, come and see me if you like."

The purpose of the meeting was to pave a way for permanent peace in Arabia.

Diets Failing, Stout Girl Ends Life

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—(INS)—Ashamed of her obesity and despondent over her inability to reduce, Maria Busacca, 19-year-old New York University freshman, took her life in the gas-filled kitchen of her Brooklyn home here today.

Maria, according to her mother, had worried greatly over the fact that she weighed 235 pounds and was unable to lose weight by dieting or exercise.

The girl was an exceptional student. She graduated from the Englewood, N. J., High School last June with honors.

22 TEXANS HELD IN HEAVY BAIL

GALVESTON, Tex., Jan. 30.—(AP)—Bond of $25,000 was set in Federal District Court today for George Musey, principal in the government's conspiracy case against 22 Galveston men, including a former Coast Guardsman and two policemen.

Other bonds ranged down to $1,000 each, $10,000 being set in the case of Harry Giddy, and $5,000 each for T. R. Davis, Theodore Owens and George Etie. W. R. Schultz, former Coast Guard warrant officer, was placed under $2,500 bond.

The two Galveston policemen, A. Gleich, Jr., and Joe Marrero, were held under bonds of $1,000.

Irish Here Before Columbus, Says Stefansson

IOWA CITY, Ia., Jan. 30.—(INS)—The Irish discovered America in 1000 A. D.

While they didn't quite get to the mainland, their arrival at Greenland was as important a step as Columbus' landing at San Salvador, Vilhjalmur Stefansson, "dean of Arctic explorers," told an audience at the University of Iowa here last night.

The chain of islands connecting Greenland to the mainland, Stefansson contended, was as much a part of America as the island the Italian explorer claimed for Spain 400 years later.

Norsemen did not pioneer in the exploration of Iceland and Greenland, Stefansson said, but "the arrogant swaggerers" took credit for the exploits after their conquest of Ireland in the ninth century.

BOARDS FAVOR HOME LABOR

A resolution requesting the county commissioners specify that local labor be used when they let contracts in the future, has been adopted by members of the Allied Boards of Trade. This resolution also asks the commissioners to use their offices with contractors to provide employment for citizens of Allegheny County.

The resolution was adopted at the monthly meeting of the organization held in the Congress of Women's Clubs last night. President Harry Bastow presided. Seventeen representatives of the constituted bodies were present. A meeting of the board of directors preceded the session.

The resolution asked that the county commissioners, in the future, insert a clause in all contracts that citizens of Allegheny County be employed on the construction.

PAROLED YOUTH AGAIN ACCUSED

A bench warrant was issued in Federal Court for the arrest of Patsy Dotellus, 24, of Sewickley, for alleged violation of a two-year parole granted him by Judge Nelson McVicar, October 7, 1929, when he pleaded guilty to transporting a stolen automobile in interstate commerce.

He is now said to be under arrest in Philippi, W. Va., for alleged theft.

Conditions of the Federal parole were that he should not leave the jurisdiction of the district court and should report at regular intervals to Probation Officer George O'Brien.

He will be brought into court to explain his departure and his recent arrest.

WIFE BEATEN, MAN HELD

James Rowan, 43, of 2422 Hepner street, a baggage porter at the William Penn Hotel, was held without bail by Magistrate Thomas D. Jones in Morals Court today, to await the outcome of injuries received by his wife last night.

According to detectives of the homicide squad, Mrs. Rowan, a patient in St. John's Hospital, told them her husband beat her in their home after an argument over the question when their 10-year-old son should go to bed. The detectives said Mrs. Rowan has a fractured skull and fractures of two ribs.

At the hearing before Magistrate Jones, Rowan denied he struck his wife. He said she was drunk and received her injuries by falling downstairs. Policeman Thomas Shanahan testified he was called to the Rowan home by a son of the couple, who said his father was beating his mother. The officer said that when he entered the house Mrs. Rowan, apparently bewildered, attempted to strike him with a chair. Shanahan said Rowan had been arrested twice since Christmas for wife-beating.

The Rowans have four children.

BOARD SPEEDS FARM PLANS

DES MOINES, Iowa, Jan. 30.—(AP)—Samuel R. McKelvie, member of the Federal Farm Board, told the Iowa Farmers Grain Dealers' Association last night that the board will "step out and let the farmers continue with their own business," after it has organized co-operative marketing. The sole function of the board, Mr. McKelvie said, was to help with the organization of agriculture.

"I look forward to the day," he said, "when we can step out and let the farmers continue with the conduct of their own business. The way things look now there is every reason to expect that this will take place in the not too distant future."

DRIVE PLANNED TO AID CENSUS

Plans for an educational campaign over the radio, in the school room and the foreign language newspapers to acquaint residents of Allegheny county with the purpose of the forthcoming 1930 census were made yesterday in the Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce at a meeting of the research and statistics committee of the chamber and the supervisors of the fifteenth census in the county.

Dr. Francis Tyson, of the University of Pittsburgh, chairman of the committee announced that he would ask the co-operation of Dr. William Davidson, superintendent of schools, and Dr. Charles E. Dickey, county school superintendent.

The sub-committee with C. A. Doyle, of the Bell Telephone Company, as chairman, which will start at once on the educational campaign, is made up of Dr. David Craig of the retail research bureau, University of Pittsburgh; L. G. Fishack of the Philadelphia Company and John Inder of the Pittsburgh Housing Association. Harry W. Correll, statistician, is secretary of the general committee of the chamber.

SEEK TO PROVE SLAYER INSANE

AUSTIN, Tex., Jan. 30.—(AP.)—Further testimony tending to prove John W. Brady, former Texas judge was insane when he stabbed to death Miss Lehlia Highsmith last November was planned in the attorney's trial here today.

More than a dozen witnesses have testified in Brady's behalf and all have agreed the defendant did not know right from wrong when under the influence of liquor—a condition in which the defense contended he was on the night Miss Highsmith was slain.

At least four more witnesses, including a physician, were to testify for Brady, and court attaches saw a possibility of the defense resting its case today. Its three star witnesses, the defendant's wife and Drs. Goodall and Joe Wooten, brothers, have testified.

SEEK 5 BODIES IN OIL BLAST

FRESNO, Cal., Jan. 30.—(AP.)—An explosion today wrecked the new $500,000 absorption plant of the Petroleum Securities Company in Kettleman Hills oil field, killing one man and apparently trapping four others in the flaming ruins. Two others were injured.

An explosison in a tank started the fire. The flames spread as burning oil from the tank splattered through the plant.

Rescuers started into the ruins after the first blast but the explosion of a second tank drove them back, preventing them from recovering the body of Charles L. Phillips, foreman, who was killed outright. Fire fighters said bodies of the four missing men apparently were in the ruins.

Three other tanks in the plant were abandoned to the flames because it was impossible to approach the burning plant.

6 FLEE FIRE AS HOME BURNS

One man leaped to safety through a window, and five other persons were routed from their home in night attire when fire destroyed the double frame dwelling of William Blair in Highland avenue, Duquesne Annex, early today. Blair estimated his loss at $4,500.

Blair was sleeping alone in the first floor of the house, only one side of which was tenanted, when awakened by smoke at 4:30 a. m. Donning a bathrobe, he leaped through a window. The Duquesne fire department was summoned, but the flames already had gained too great headway to save the dwelling.

Ivor G. Richards and his wife, Mrs. Phoebe Richards, together with three children, Glenn, 15; Melba, 14, and Mary Margaret, 4 months, who resided next door, were forced to make hasty exits when the flames threatened their home.

Crawfish Parade Along Ocean Bed

WASHINGTON.—Shellfish have their peculiarities, from the crawfish that hold a goosestep march at sundown to the crab that decorates himself with all sorts of undersea life. Looking down into clear depths at sunset, where the crawfish are abundant, one may be lucky enough to see the crawfish parade in their ridiculous, solemn fashion, their goggly eyes peering about and their long, stilted legs going up and down.

The procession is single file, the nose of one crawfish close to the tail of the one ahead. Whether it is a concerted walk for the evening meal, for exercise, or simply a sort of crawfish evening ritual, it is impossible to tell.

Foreign Students Aided in Germany

BERLIN.—(AP.)—The German Academic Exchange Service reports that it placed 78 foreign students in German schools last year and sent 73 Germans abroad. Of the foreigners, 56 came from America and an equal number of Germans went to the United States.

Woman Educator Honored by Dutch

AMSTERDAM.—(AP.)—The first woman professor in Holland has been installed at Leyden University. The new professor, Dr. Sophie Antoniades, delivered her inaugural lecture on the importance of modern Greek, before a distinguished audience which included Princess Juliana and the Greek minister.

World's Oldest Picture in Egypt

LONDON—The oldest picture in the world is probably a picture of a flock of geese on exhibition in the public museum at Cairo, Egypt. It was found in the tomb of Ne fer Maat at Medum and was drawn, it is believed, in the time of the first Egyptian dynasty, about 4,400 years B. C.

Island of Yap Now Japan Possession

WASHINGTON—The island of Yap does not belong to the United States. It was awarded to Japan at the peace conference May 7, 1919. There is no town of importance on the island. One of the largest trading settlements is at Dulukan. It has no separate governor, being a part of the Caroline Islands.

STYLES PUZZLE PARIS BUYERS

PARIS, Jan. 30.—(AP.)—The international style scrap is on, with American buyers suffering now what American shoppers will be suffering a few weeks hence.

The buyers, wracking their brains over corsets, colors, jacket lengths and Grecian lines at the spring openings of Parisian couturiers, generally confess they are clear on only two points. First, evening skirts are of ankle length, for there isn't an iota of Parisian authority left to short or semi-short evening dresses. Second, skirt-like trousers will be worn on every possible occasion. As far as the rest is concerned they are up in the air.

To date the score of the scrap is one all. France took the point on hemlines, but America won on corsets.

French ranks are split on the question of whalebones. The steel construction of riveted corsets still belongs to the dark ages, but some of the couturiers favor lacing and light boning. Even these are opposed by some dressmakers, and those who revolt are adopting the Greek style of flowing robes for evening.

The Grecian styles are not so bad as they sound, according to report, for Grecian gowns are trim and tidy creations of satin or heavy crepe, which chime in with American club women's ideas of dignified apparel and freedom of movement at the same time.

The exhausted buyers, who are wondering which way to jump, put in a 14-hour day yesterday, dashing from one dressmaking salon to another. They worked until long past midnight in airless, electrically lighted showrooms, so jammed that the slender mannikins could scarcely make way through the packed ranks.

RICH MAN AIDS 'OTHER WOMAN'

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 30.—(INS.)—When Samuel S. Hutchinson, wealthy Chicago film distributor, takes the witness stand today, he indicated he would give testimany that would aid "the other woman," Mrs. Edith P. Taylor, who is being sued by Mrs. Mattie Dean Hutchinson for $300,000 heart balm.

Hutchinson, it was revealed, will claim that it was his wife's social ambitions that caused him to leave her years ago, and that it was not Mrs. Taylor who won him away.

After testifying that her husband had always been loving and considerate, Mrs. Hutchinson, when recalled to the witness stand, withdrew the statement when confronted with a deposition taken September 4, 1928. According to the deposition, Mrs. Hutchinson claimed that her husband "had done everything to antagonize me—to hurt me."

Dr. Relyea to Speak At Mission Service

Dr. Relyea

The Rev. Dr. H. A. Relyea, of Ocean Grove, N. J., will speak tomorrow evening at a young peoples' meeting held in connection with the Preaching Mission services being conducted in the North Ave. Methodist Episcopal Church North Side. Dr. Relyea has for several years been a member of the faculty of the summer institute which is conducted at Mountain Lake Park, Md.

Early Egyptians First to Use Ink

LONDON.—Some one has said that the art of writing "consists in putting black marks on white paper." The history of this modest essential, both of writing and printing, has recently been traced back 3,000 years. The Egyptians are credited with using ink as early as 1200 B. C. Later, the Greeks imported both papyrus and ink from their neighbors on the banks of the Nile. It is difficult to imagine how learning could have progressed or the records of the past been handed down without ink. It has been a faithful soldier in the procession which we call civilization.

Foch Solved His Problems in Bed

PARIS—Psychologists claim the late Marshal Foch as one of their own because he did not take his problems to bed with him. He dismissed them from his mind and devoted bedtime hours to sleeping. In the mornings, refreshed, he had the solutions, which apparently had worked themselves out in his sleep. Foch, however, put a different construction on the apparent miracle. He said:

"It seems to me that the mirror before which I shave myself gives me the answers."

SCORES G. O. P. INSURGENTS

TOPEKA, Kan., Jan. 30.—(AP.)—Expulsion from the Republican ranks was the penalty recommended here last night by Hanford MacNider, former Assistant Secretary of War and past national commander of the American Legion, for "chronic antagonists of the party's principles."

Scoring the men "whose interest in the party dies and who brazenly set out to wreck its program the moment the election is over," the Mason City, Ia., banker told Republicans assembled to celebrate the sixty-ninth anniversary of Kansas' admittance into the union that something would have to be done to hold future generations to the party.

"My answer," he said, "would be to throw out of the party these chronic antagonists of the platform the party stood on, take defeat as it comes, but save our integrity as Republicans."

MacNider, without mentioning their names, scored several Senators, including one from his home state.

"One of the noisiest members comes from my own state. He campaigned violently for the ticket and repudiated it the moment it was elected. He is now being rewarded with all the state's patronage for his labors."

MacNider said the senior Senator from Iowa is a Democrat, "but at that he's a lot better Republican than his junior colleague. Occasionally, at least, he lets a day go by without publicly panning the President and the whole Republican administration."

Observatory Post To Play Cards

The Woman's Auxiliary of Observatory Post No. 81, American Legion, will hold a card party tomorrow night in the post home, Perrysville avenue. Mrs. Leon Kidd is chairman of arrangements. Mrs. Andrew Frazier is president.

SAFETY ON AIR LINES PLEDGED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—(AP.)—Support of a standard of minimum requirements to promote safety on air passenger lines was pledged by representatives of a majority of air transport operators to Clarence M. Young, assistant secretary of Commerce for aeronautics.

Details of the general plan will be worked out Friday at another conference. The proposed minimum requirements then will be submitted to all operators and regulations will be made effective on a sliding scale, some becoming immediately operative while others will be worked in as time and facilities make them available.

The new regulations will require a full utilization of air navigation facilities, including two-way radio communication between aircraft in flight and ground stations, adequate night flying facilities and reception of weather reports.

Transport organizations under the regulations to be established will be required immediately to have the prescribed facilities available before they will be permitted to undertake operations.

Details will be worked out for definite requirements governing the regular and periodic overhaul and maintenance of planes and engines in passenger transport operation.

Sentence Woman To Go Barefoot To Guillotine

ORLEANS, France, Jan. 30.—(AP.)—A 27-year-old woman was sentenced to walk barefooted to the guillotine, in accordance with the old Napoleonic code which still governs punishment of those who kill their parents in France.

Augustine Agogue was convicted of murdering her mother to obtain possession of a farm. When sentence was pronounced she shouted "Bandits! Assassins!" at the judges.

Brackenridge Pair Arrested in Raid

AVOID THE THREAT of the weight of age

AVOID THAT FUTURE SHADOW*

By refraining from over-indulgence

You men who would keep trim and fit ...you women who covet the tantalizing curves of the truly modern figure—when tempted to do yourself too well, light a Lucky instead. Be moderate—be moderate in all things, even in smoking. Eat healthfully but not immoderately. When your eyes are bigger than your stomach, light a Lucky instead. Coming events cast their shadows before. Avoid that future shadow by avoiding over-indulgence if you would maintain that lithe, youthful figure.

"Coming events cast their shadows before"

Lucky Strike, the finest Cigarette you ever smoked, made of the finest tobacco—The Cream of the Crop—"IT'S TOASTED." Everyone knows that heat purifies and so "TOASTING" not only removes impurities but adds to the flavor and improves the taste.

"It's toasted"

*Be Moderate! ... Don't jeopardize the modern form by drastic diets, harmful reducing girdles, fake reducing tablets or other quack "anti-fat" remedies condemned by the Medical profession! Millions of dollars each year are wasted on these ridiculous and dangerous nostrums. Be Sensible! Be Moderate! We do not represent that smoking Lucky Strike Cigarettes will bring modern figures or cause the reduction of flesh. We do declare that when tempted to do yourself too well, if you will "Reach for a Lucky" instead, you will thus avoid over-indulgence in things that cause excess weight and, by avoiding over-indulgence, maintain a modern, graceful form.

DUFF ASKS AID FOR DISABLED

BALTIMORE, Jan. 30.—(AP.)—Hezekiah N. Duff, of Lansing, Mich., national commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, speaking in the War Memorial here last night, urged the assumption of responsibility by the people of the country for the care of veterans who have suffered impairment of their faculties and are unable to care for themselves.

"We do not hold that the country owes a living to every soldier who served her in the fighting ranks," he said, "but we do maintain that when in the protection of this country and her people a soldier suffers and is partially or totally incapacitated, then those people for whom he suffered owe him at least a living."

Dr. Duff told of the beginning of preparations for the annual meeting of the organization, to be held in Baltimore September 7.

MEXICO LOOKS FOR HOOVER

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 30.—(AP.)—President-elect Pascual Ortiz Rubio expects President Herbert Hoover to visit Mexico and return the call he made at Washington, but he does not know what date the President will find convenient for the trip. He made this known today in an interview.

In answer to other questions, the President-elect said his administration would pay cash for lands taken over for distribution to the peasants under the Agrarian laws, abandoning the system of payment in Agrarian bonds. Bonds already issued will be redeemed gradually as the finances of the nation permit.

He also said his government would continue the anti-alcohol movement begun by President Portes Gil. Ortiz Rubio takes office February 5.

FIND MAN DIED FROM FALL

WASHINGTON, Pa., Jan. 30.—Nick Novak of Muse and his brother, August, of Cleveland, have cleared for police the mystery surrounding the finding of an unidentified man unconscious at Eighty-Four last Sunday noon. The man died Tuesday in the Washington Hospital.

The brothers said the victim was Anthony Novak, 22, their brother, who last week was residing at Hendersonville. Through identification, police checked the victim's movements and learned that he had fallen off a truck while riding through Eighty-Four. The driver of the machine did not know the man and when he discovered he was not on the truck, believed that he had jumped off.

Urges $30,000,000 For Forest Roads

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—(AP.)—Appropriation of $30,000,000 for construction of forest roads and trails in the three fiscal years ending in 1933 would be authorized under a bill introduced by Representative Colton, Republican, Utah. Design 1774 may be obtained only in sizes 16, 18, 20, 34, 36, 38 and 40. Size 16 requires 3 yards of 35-inch fabric and ½ yard trimming.

No dressmaking experience is necessary to make this model. The pattern has ample and exact instructions. Yardage is given for every size. A perfect fit is guaranteed.

HUSBAND SLAIN, WIFE HELD

BENTON, Ark., Jan. 30.—(AP.)—F. W. Dwyer, 50, prominent contractor, was shot and killed at his home here late yesterday. His wife, Mrs. Violet Dwyer, 41, and her friend, Mrs. J. W. Martin, of Little Rock, were arrested in connection with the slaying. Police say Mrs. Dwyer took poison after the shooting, but had fully recovered from its effects an hour later.

No charges were immediately placed against either woman, but Sheriff Joe Blakely said he was conducting an investigation.

Sheriff Blakely said he learned Mrs. Dwyer and Mrs. Martin had arranged for a party, but that they notified those invited it had been called off when they returned home to find Dwyer there. He said he believed this led to an argument which ended with Dwyer's slaying.

MINISTER FIRES ON PAIR, SELF

MENDOTA, Ill., Jan. 30.—(AP.)—The Rev. J. A. Wilson shot Mr. and Mrs. Amos Elliott, members of his congregation, last night, then returned to his own home and fired five shots at himself. All three will recover, it was said at a hospital to which they were taken.

Police said the Rev. Mr. Wilson, accompanied by his wife, called on Elliott in an effort to get possession of a letter, said to be innocent in itself, but which Wilson thought Elliott was using in an effort to defame his standing in the church. Elliott is a janitor in the church.

Elliott, Mrs. Wilson told authorities, surrendered the letter, but grabbed for it again as the minister was putting it in his pocket. At this, the minister, police said they learned, pulled a pistol from his pocket and began firing.

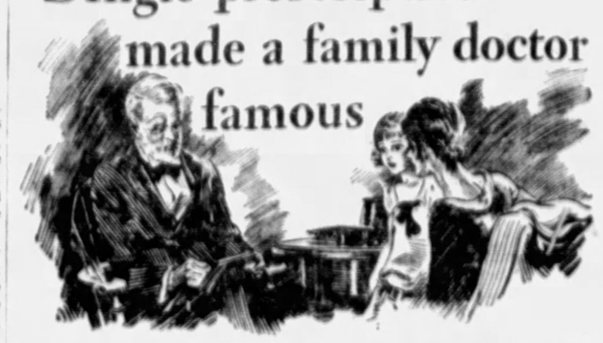
Single prescription made a family doctor famous



SELDOM has any single act been of greater benefit to mankind than the one which Dr. Caldwell performed back in 1885 when he wrote the prescription which has carried his fame to the four corners of the earth.

Over and over, Dr. Caldwell wrote this prescription as he found men, women, and children suffering from those common symptoms of constipation, such as coated tongue, bad breath, headaches, gas, nausea, biliousness, poor appetite, or lack of energy, etc. And it invariably relieved these symptoms so much more pleasantly, so much quicker than other things, that his patients simply had to tell other people about it.

The demand for this prescription grew so fast that by 1888 Dr. Caldwell was forced to have it put up ready for use and supply drug stores with it. Today you can get the generous bottles of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, as it is called, at all drug stores.

When you or your children suffer from any of the symptoms of constipation, it will pay you to remember this safe, pleasant-tasting, effective laxative; made only from herbs and other pure ingredients; a real corrective for constipation. A doctor's 47-year experience behind this formula!

"Keep the ROMANCE in MARRIAGE"

BEATRICE FAIRFAX
PITTSBURGH

HOW to hold a man's love? That question is asked me oftener than any other except how to gain a man's love.

The answer to both is the same—make him feel how feminine you are!

Many women know that clothes can play a tremendous part in registering feminine charm.

Wearing pretty, feminine things has an enormous effect on your own personality. You feel more feminine, more charming, and therefore you are charming.

The clothes that don't show are just as important as the ones that do. Exquisitely tinted lingerie makes you feel almost fifty times as dainty and feminine as when you have on plain or faded underthings.

Now, that psychological difference is highly contagious—men and women both sense it, and very quickly.

A Sure Way

So quickly, so surely, that women who are wise in the ways of attraction are careful to invest money in the silky, lacy things that make them feel, and therefore register, as more intensely feminine.

They know that they can take such simple, economical care of these engaging garments with Lux that the psychological advantage of lovely lingerie is within the means of everyone.

The most fragile silks and laces will last and last, the most delicate and enchanting colors stay fresh and thrilling if you always wash them with Lux.

Keep Your Home Charming, Too

It is important, too, that your home should always seem dainty and charming to your husband. Keep the glamour of lovely fresh color, not only in your house frocks, blouses, scarfs, handkerchiefs, but in everything about the house, for men love cheerful color. Curtains, linens, spreads, cushion covers, all retain color charm with Lux.

(Above) Washed 12 times in Lux, silk and lace fibres intact, color lovely as new. You feel and are charming when your lingerie is so exquisite.

(Above) Washed 12 times in ordinary soap, delicate fibres pulled, lace damaged, color lifeless. Dainty lingerie has lost the charm of new.

If it's Safe in Water . . . It's Safe in LUX!

$50,000 ASKED IN CRASH

Damages of 50,000 were asked by Mrs. Ethel S. Howard, of Wellesley avenue, from Sam Schreiber, North Side pharmacist, for injuries suffered in an automobile collision, in a suit filed in Common Pleas Court, joined in by her husband, John G. Howard. The collision occurred at Morewood avenue and Baum boulevard October 1 last between the Howard and Schreiber automobiles. Mrs. Howard alleged she suffered serious injuries, including a laceration on her shoulder which left a four-inch scar which will prevent her from wearing an evening gown. Attorney Kivie Wolfe filed the suit.

TRAFFIC NEEDS POINTED OUT

The need for uniformity of traffic regulation and approval of the proposed codified traffic ordinance for Pittsburgh that the Better Traffic Committee has placed before Council for enactment was expressed today by F. R. Phillips, senior vice president of the Philadelphia Company.

In a letter to William H. Stevenson, acting chairman of the Better Traffic Committee, Mr. Phillips said that uniformity of traffic rules, if adopted by the principal cities of the country, would tend to expedite traffic movement. Phillips also thought that the proposed traffic ordinance would alleviate the present traffic problem.

SQUIRE WINS NEW TRIAL

Justice of the Peace Charles E. Reinhard of Versailles Township, one of nine convicted in the McKeesport liquor conspiracy case, was granted a new trial by Judge R. M. Gibson in Federal Court today.

The court held that the testimony failed to show that Reinhard had conspired with police and bootleggers to violate the dry laws, although government evidence tended to show he had accepted bribes.

Reinhard will be placed on trial a second time February 10 along with Lieut. James H. Gray and seven other former McKeesport police officers on whom the jury disagreed in its verdict December 18.

FIRE DESTROYS RIVER BOAT

POINT PLEASANT, W. Va., Jan. 30.—(AP)—The river steamer Clyde, operated between Pittsburgh and Memphis, was destroyed by fire in the Ohio River here last night.

The blaze of undetermined origin started while the Clyde was tied up at the Marietta boat-building plant here waiting for ice in the Ohio to break up. Tie-ropes broke and the burning steamer drifted down-stream for about a mile before it broke in two and sank. There was no one aboard. Rivermen said the vessel cost approximately $80,000 when new.

The Clyde was owned by Capt. Rhodes H. Burnside, of Point Pleasant, and towed steel barges between Pittsburgh and Memphis. At the time the fire started it was tied alongside the Walter Windsor, a new vessel under construction for Capt. Burnside.

INDIA GUARDS AGAINST RIOTS

LAHORE, India, Jan. 30.—(AP)—The finance committee of the Punjab council accepted the government's proposal that a special police force recruited before the meeting of the All-Indian National Congress should be continued until July 30, owing to fear that breaches of the peace may result from the congress' resolution in favor of civil disobedience.

The Punjab government ordered confiscation of all copies of a manifesto of the Hindustan Socialist Republican Association, entitled "The Philosophy of the Bomb," which had been freely distributed last Sunday, Independence Day.

SUSPECT LEAPS OFF TRAIN, DIES

HARRISBURG, Jan. 30.—(AP)—While being returned to Philadelphia in custody of a detective, Harry Sobel, 45, late yesterday leaped from a Pennsylvania Railroad passenger train and was killed.

Sobel, a paperhanger, was arrested in Pittsburgh at the request of Philadelphia authorities who wanted him on non-support charges made by his wife and also for bail jumping. Detective F. V. Costello, of Philadelphia, went to Pittsburgh to bring back Sobel.

As the train was speeding past Port Royal, 46 miles west of Harrisburg, Costello said that Sobel went to a rest room and leaped from the window. He was drawn under the wheels of the train. His body was found later by the crew of a westbound train.

Costello reported that Sobel had lived at 39 Overhill street, Pittsburgh, under the name of Samuel Abell.

HOT TEA BREAKS A COLD—TRY THIS
Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of this Hamburg tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacupful at any time. It is the most effective way to break a cold and relieve grip, as it opens the pores, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking a cold at once.
It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore harmless.

Are You Happy At Your Work?

Work is play if you like your job. If you don't, it is decidedly the opposite. Life is a "tough" proposition at best and if you don't derive any pleasure from your present work, find a new position.
If you wish to make a change—find a new, better or more satisfactory position — now is the time to do it. Employers are making their changes of personnel, plans and budgets for the coming year. Openings are being made and they must be filled.
A most important billboard of employment opportunities is the Classified Section of the Sun-Telegraph. A regular reading of the "Help Wanted" ads listed there will point the way to that position you would like to be filling.

GOVERNOR HIT IN ROAD PROBE

FRANKFORT, Ky., Jan. 30.—(AP.)—While the Kentucky Senate was voting to strip from Gov. Sampson power to appoint members of the State Highway Commission, the House authorized investigation of the highway department and heard one of its members declare that if charges he had uncovered regarding $11,000,000 bridge bonds were true that the "governor of this commonwealth must be impeached."

Representative Andrew W. Nichols (Dem.), of Nelson County, read to the House during consideration of the highway investigation resolution a series of letters and telegrams, one of which purported to be a statement from L. Ross, of Furland and Company, New York, to Gov. Sampson, advising him that Ross' hands were tied in financing the bonds due to demands from E. C. O'Rear, Frankfort, an attorney for the governor, that Ross must finance a cement company and a railroad in which O'Rear's son and other relatives were interested.

Nichols also read a letter from O'Rear to Ross making a sweeping denial of his charges. Nichols made it plain he was making no charges himself, but simply submitting the data which he said he had discovered himself.

$50'000 JEWEL THEFT BARED

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—(AP.)—Reports here say that while Mr. and Mrs. Michael Ulam, wealthy Parisians, who are hosts in this country to Prince Frederick Leopold, of Prussia, were staying with their titled guest at a hotel here last month, Mrs. Ulam was robbed of a diamond necklace valued at $50,000.

Mrs. Ulam discovered her loss when she took her jewel box from the hotel safe to wear the necklace to a dinner party she was giving in honor of the prince. She said she was positive she had replaced the necklace the night before, after wearing it to a party.

The hotel and an insurance firm which insured the jewels have employed detectives in an attempt to apprehend the thieves and recover the necklace.

FINDS LETTER OF WASHINGTON

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., Jan. 30.—(AP.)—E. A. Connoughton, rare book and document expert, today announced he had discovered in a library here the letter George Washington wrote to Congress announcing his election as the first President of the United States.

The letter was dated Mount Vernon, April 14, 1789, and was addressed to John Langdon, an officer of the Continental Congress.

Washington was President pro tem when the votes of the first electors were counted on April 6, 1789, by the United States Congress in New York. Charles Thompson, secretary of the Continental Congress, was dispatched from New York where Congress was meeting to inform Washington of his election. He arrived at Mount Vernon shortly after noon, April 14.

The letter follows:

"Mount Vernon, April 14, 1789.

"Sir: I had the honor to receive your official communication by the hand of Mr. Secretary Thomson, about 1 o'clock this day. Having concluded to obey the important and flattering call of my country, and having been impressed with an idea of the expediency of my being with Congress at as early a period as possible, I propose to commence my journey on Thursday morning, which will be the day after tomorrow.

"I have the honor to be with sentiments of esteem,

"Sir,

"Your most obedient servant,

"G. WASHINGTON.

"The Hon. Jno. Langdon, Esq."

VIRGINIA FAIRE BRIDE--MAYBE

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Jan. 30.—(AP.)—Hollywood's film circles speculated excitedly today on whether two of their leading members, Virginia Browne Faire, actress, and Howard B. Worne, Jr., director, were man and wife.

The couple obtained a marriage license Tuesday in San Bernardino, Cal., saying they were going to the snow-bound fastness of Big Bear Lake, where their romance started, to be married.

But film friends had no way of learning the sequel. Heavy snows which two weeks ago swept down all telephone wires into the San Bernardino Mountain resort district, hemmed in the secrets of the couple. All the evidence was that their honeymoon, like their supposed marriage, would remain temporarily secret.

TEACHER HELD IN BANK THEFT

ROGERSVILLE, Mo., Jan. 30.—(AP.)—Leroy Burdick, former New Castle (Pa.) school teacher, was held today on a charge of robbing the bank of Rogersville on January 10. Burdick was held for the Webster County Circuit Court at a preliminary hearing yesterday.

Prosecuting Attorney H. E. W. Mills indicated he would recommend a life sentence for the man if he would plead guilty and would seek the death penalty if Burdick chose to stand trial. Burdick's counsel attempted to show he was an unwilling accomplice in the holdup. R. R. Davis, Burdick's companion, was shot to death by a posse that captured Burdick. The bandits obtained $980 in the robbery, but all but $70 was recovered.

J., asking the department investigate alleged conditions of bootlegging, narcotic peddling and white-slave operations reported to exist at the resort in articles published by a New York newspaper.

Officials announced the Treasury Department will investigate the charges concerning violations of the liquor and drug laws, while the Justice Department will inquire into the alleged traffic in white-slavery.

Church Bells Hushed As Moscow Nuisance

MOSCOW, Jan. 30.—(AP.)—Moscow's "forty times forty" churches, which for a thousand years have pealed their bells no longer will be heard, the government today ordered them silenced forever.

An official statement explained the action as taken in response to "the mass demands" from workers that the bells be hushed because they disturbed their peace and sleep and created other nuisances.

REID SPEEDING EIELSON HUNT

NOME, Alaska, Jan. 30.—(INS.)—Natives directed by Eskimo under Capt. T. M. (Pat) Reid renewed their search in the snow today for the bodies of Lieut. Carl Ben Eielson and Earl Borland, Arctic fliers who are believed to have died when their plane crashed on the coast of Siberia.

Deep snow drifts covered by a hard crust have slowed up the work of searching the territory for the bodies. The men are digging with picks and shovels in a wide area about the plane and the digging is to continue until the bodies are found.

Eielson and Borland have been lost since November 9 when they were last seen ferrying the cargo from the ice-bound schooner Nanuk. Pilots Joe Crosson and Harold Gillam located their wrecked cabin plane last Saturday 10 miles inland from the coast of Siberia.

SEATTLE, Wash., Jan. 30.—(INS.)—Ole Eielson, father of Carl Ben Eielson, was expected to arrive here today on his journey to Fairbanks, Alaska, where he will await the result of a search for his son's body and that of Earl Borland.

Amazed! Way Tanlac Relieves Stomach Troubles

One user says, "I suffered beyond description from muscular rheumatism, but after taking Tanlac for a couple of weeks I was over the rheumatism, my kidneys acting fine, my digestion is splendid." FOX TRUSTEES BLAMED IN SUIT

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—(AP.)—The charge that John E. Otterson, of the Electrical Products Corporation, and H. I. Stuart, of Halsey Stuart & Co., trustees of Fox Film Corporation, were behind the movement to depose William Fox as head of the Fox interests, were made in an affidavit filed by Fox with Federal Judge Coleman.

The affidavit was entered in answer to a suit brought by Mrs. Susie Dryden Kuser, class B stockholder, for a receivership of the Fox Film Corporation. The affidavit was drawn up by Samuel Untermyer, counsel for the film magnate.

It charged that Mrs. Kuser, widow of Col. Anthony R. Kuser, philanthropist who died last year, entered her suit over the objections of other members of her family, which altogether owns about 40,000 shares in Fox Film Corporation.

With the affidavit Fox filed a letter signed by 10 members of the Kuser family expressing confidence in him and in his directorship of his corporations, and saying they favored Untermyer's recently described financing plan, offered as a solution of the Fox difficulties as opposed to a receivership plan.

GALES IN SOUTH KILL FOUR

ATLANTA, Jan. 30.—(AP.)—Chilling winds which sifted snow and churned up gales along the Atlantic and Gulf coasts brought winter to the South again today.

Buildings were unroofed in Mississippi and as the cold wave swept Eastward, snow reached a depth of nearly nine inches at Bristol, Va. A tornado dipped down into two Central Florida counties, killed a Negro woman before passing out into the Atlantic.

Three Negro fishermen were believed to have drowned when their schooner capsized off the Mississippi coast. The boat was located but no trace of the crew was found.

A one-day fall of three and a half inches of snow in Atlanta broke a record of 13 years' standing. The white flakes fell in Vicksburg, Miss., covered the ground at Birmingham, Ala., and blanketed Johnson City, Tenn., with eight inches.

The Florida twister, which struck Marion and Flagler counties in the central part of the state, damaged a dozen buildings near Summerfield and wrecked a turpentine settlement near Bunnell.

Why she isn't Popular

This Kansas City girl has good looks and personality—but men and women alike have avoided her for years. She never gets invited anywhere. She has a lonely time of it wherever she goes—and she cannot understand the reason for it. Somebody ought to tell her why—but nobody has the courage to do so.

Don't fool yourself

Halitosis (unpleasant breath) is a barrier to friendship, affection and business progress.

So many every day conditions cause it that no one is entirely free of it. And since you cannot tell when you have it—and your friends won't tell—the one way of putting yourself on the safe side is to use Listerine as a mouth wash 3 times a day. Keep a bottle handy at home and office.

Kills germs—destroys odors

Rich Women

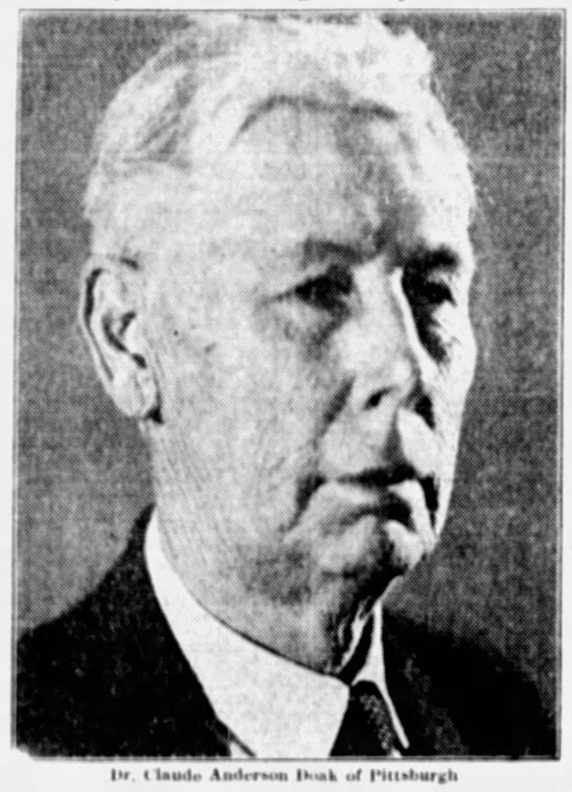
Eat With Healthy Appetite Sleep Without Drugs

Says Pittsburgh Physician



Dr. Claude Anderson Doak of Pittsburgh

"Flaxolyn Whips Vital Organs to Normal Action, Constipation Condition Relieved Naturally," Says Dr. Claude Anderson Doak

Thousands of men and women here who formerly suffered nights of sleeplessness and days of agonizing stomach distress, now feel fit and get a keen pleasure out of life, since receiving the benefits of Dr. Lantz's Herbal Flaxolyn.

"I have used Flaxolyn for some time and am recommending it all the time to my patients and friends," writes Dr. Claude Anderson Doak, physician of Pittsburgh. "When taking Flaxolyn, after the first few spoonfuls, the user begins to feel better at once.

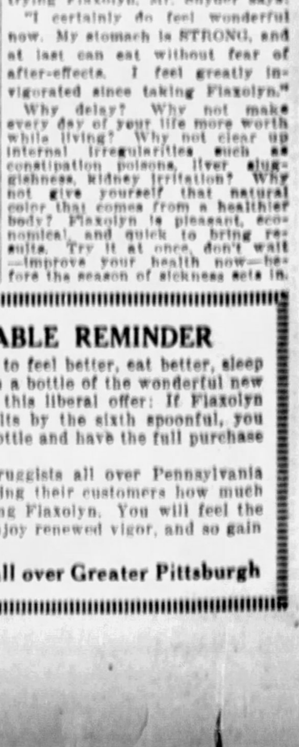
"You note a condition of physical content as the formula whips the vital organs to more normal action. Flaxolyn acts upon the liver and intestines in such a way that the body is immediately benefited. The new vitaminized Flaxolyn is certainly a wonderful tonic."

Stomach Sufferers Acclaim Herbal Flaxolyn Discovery

L. A. Minister Tells How Flaxolyn Saved His Stomach and Health.

Flaxolyn is today being widely acclaimed by stomach sufferers, but no case is as striking as that of Dr. Middlekauff, of Los Angeles, who writes as follows:

"Some years ago when I was in personal need of gastro-intestinal help, I used Flaxolyn with excellent results. I am a retired minister. I broke down in health completely 15 years ago. But with the help of Flaxolyn I am slowly getting back my health. I am enclosing $10 for a quantity of Flaxolyn to help my patients, as I am now a Naturopathic Physician. I am sure of helping many people with Flaxolyn because it pays proper attention to stomach needs which ordinary laxatives do not."



Dr. Middlekauff, of Los Angeles

Mr. Merle Snyder, of 22 Isabella St.

Over at 22 Isabella Street there is a man who can testify to the remarkable benefits of Flaxolyn. His name is Merle Snyder, and he can tell you that for months he was suffering miserably from constipation, gas and weak stomach. He was always tired out and lacking in real pep. Shortly after trying Flaxolyn, Mr. Snyder says: "I certainly do feel wonderful now. My stomach is STRONG, and at last can eat without fear of after-effects. I feel greatly invigorated since taking Flaxolyn."

Why delay? Why not make every day of your life more worth while living? Why not clear up internal irregularities such as constipation poisons, liver sluggishness, kidney irritation? Why not give yourself that natural color that comes from a healthier body? Flaxolyn is pleasant, economical, and quick to bring results. Try it at once, don't wait—improve your health now—before the season of sickness sets in.

CLIP THIS VALUABLE REMINDER

Every reader who would like to feel better, eat better, sleep better and look better, can obtain a bottle of the wonderful new vitaminized Herbal Flaxolyn on this liberal offer: If Flaxolyn does not bring satisfactory results by the sixth spoonful, you may bring back the partly used bottle and have the full purchase price refunded!

Don't wait. Thousands of druggists all over Pennsylvania are selling Flaxolyn and are telling their customers how much real good it is doing. Start taking Flaxolyn. You will feel the tonic change at once. You will enjoy renewed vigor, and so gain a new and better grip on life.

LONE MAN SAFE IN SHIP WRECK

TAMPICO, Mexico, Jan. 30.—(AP.)—How two shipwrecked sailors fought to death over possession of a life preserver in the storm-whipped waters of the Gulf of Mexico, became known with the arrival of Maximo Benitez, lone survivor of the fishing schooner Conde Sigfrido's crew of 10.

The Conde Sigfrido capsized in a hurricane January 22, while trying to enter the Panuco River, and until Benitez trudged into Tampico several days later it was thought all her crew had perished.

When a mountainous wave turned the boat over, the crew jumped into the water, only Benitez having managed to grab a life preserver. Another sailor armed with a dagger, attempted to kill him and the two struggled desperately until a wave swept the assailant away.

Benitez swam from 9 p. m. until 2 in the morning, when he reached shore. After freeing himself of his attacker, he was joined by the ship's mascot, a dog, which accompanied him on the swim to land with Benitez' occasional help.

Four sailors of the fishing schooner Jose Luis, wrecked at the same time and in the same vicinity, either were drowned or eaten by sharks while attempting to swim ashore. When the Jose Luis was dashed on to a huge jagged rock the crew of 12 abandoned it and after clinging to the rock 24 hours four of the sailors decided to try for shore. They never reached land, but the other eight were rescued after being marooned on the rock two days and two nights.

GIRL TO BATTLE 'RED' LAW

WHEELING, W. Va., Jan. 30.—Miss Lil Andrews, one of three Communists freed from Ohio prisons on bond pending appeal from their conviction under the Ohio criminal syndicalism act in Belmont County court at St. Clairsville, will tour through Ohio and Northern West Virginia in a campaign to bring about the referendum on the syndicalism law, it was decided at a meeting of 30 delegates representing various Communist and labor groups in Wheeling. The Cleveland girl was sentenced to the Marysville reformatory and her two companions, Charles Guynn, of Lansing, Mich., and Thomas Johnson, of New York, were given five years in the penitentiary and $2,500 fine for attempting to distribute literature at a Communist street meeting in Martins Ferry August 1.

The Wheeling meeting decided to put on a campaign for funds with which to fight the Ohio law. The International Labor Defense furnished bond for release of the trio pending a test of constitutionality of the law.

SMOTHERED IN FAT

Many people allow themselves to grow heavier and heavier without realizing that excessive fat is a disease which often brings grave consequences. It is not only the muscles on the outside of the body which become flabby and useless as fat invades the system, but the vital internal organs—the heart, liver, lungs, and kidneys are usually all weakened in the same way. As the heart gradually becomes choked with fat it loses its power to pump blood through the system. Heart palpitations attack the fat person with the slightest exertion. Shortness of breath and dizziness make exercise impossible. Fatty kidneys and fatty liver work very sluggishly. Poisons pile up in the system and presently the wretched sufferer becomes a pitiable wreck.

"No well person knows," writes Mrs. B. Fritz, of Greensburg, Pa., "the terrible sufferings which come with excessive fat. For several years I was smothered in fat. All fleshy women know how embarrassing it is to them to be in this condition. I was so afflicted with fat that I wished sometimes I were dead. I could not exercise without bringing on fluttering in my heart, and diet was no good. Gas would form after eating, and I had to take physics every night in order to get my bowels to move. I tried lots of different medicines but none of them helped me much, until a friend of mine told me about World's Tonic. This famous new medicine, made from plants gathered from different parts of the world at the right seasons, benefited me from the very first dose. As I continued taking it I lost weight gradually and steadily, flabby tissues changed into firm, strong muscles. My heart, no longer choked with fat, grew strong again and I could move around and do any work without getting fluttering and dizzy. Where I formerly weighed 208 pounds I now weigh 160 pounds, and it's all good, sound, healthy flesh. I know World's Tonic saved me from filling an untimely grave."

World's Tonic is on sale at Dow's, May's & Liggett's, Mayflower, and all other modern drug stores. (A-74)

HAITIANS URGE POPULAR VOTE

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti, Jan. 30.—(AP.)—An appeal for a popular election of the legislative assembly of Haiti under American supervision is contained in a 7,000-word message which the National League of Constitutional Action has forwarded to President Hoover.

In the document, the league outlines the opposition side of the Haitian problem.

The league protests against martial law in Haiti and alleges that the present regime constitutes a dictatorship which has been a social, economic and political failure.

The league predicts that should President Borno be re-elected by the Council of State in April or should anyone "publicly or secretly designated" by him be elected, disorders will result that "only the Americans will be able to check."

The document also declares that the disorders at Aux Caves recently during which American Marine forces fired on Haitian peasants, killing five, was due to the belief by the peasants that new laws meant deprivation of their lands. The league further asserts that present unrest in Haiti is due in large part to President Borno's refusal to allow a popular vote.

As soon as the small amount of stone is cleared out of the entries, the mine will begin operations and entries pushed so that development may be made for 1,000 tons a day by April 1. The company will have sale for the coal on April 1 so that the mine will run at capacity during the coming Lake season.

BEWARE THE COUGH FROM COLDS THAT HANG ON

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist.

DEAN TO RETIRE AT W. VA. U.

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., Jan. 30.—(AP.)—Dr. Jasper N. Deahl, dean of the College of Education and a member of the faculty of West Virginia University since 1901, announced that he would retire next September. At the same time it was made known that Dr. Earl Hudelson of the University of Minnesota had been chosen as the new dean on the recommendation of Dr. Deahl.

Dr. Deahl, who will be 71 years old next spring, said he hoped to continue teaching for a few years after leaving the post of dean. He is recognized as one of the outstanding educators in the state.

Dr. Hudelson formerly served under Dr. Deahl as professor of secondary education in the university here from 1920 to 1923. During the last year in that position, Dr. Hudelson lived in Bluefield and was in charge of university extension courses offered at Bluefield, Athens, Matoaka, Bramwell and Welch. He is 42.

SWINDLE 'DEAN' HELD IN FAKE

PEORIA, Ill., Jan. 30.—(AP.)—Charles (Chappie) Moran, described by police as the "dean" of American confidence men, again has run afoul of the law.

The dapper white-haired racketeer is to be given a hearing here tomorrow on a charge of defrauding Chancey Barber, of Lansing, Mich., of $50,000. Moran is being held in default of bail along with James Keeney, of Peoria, an alleged accomplice. The pair also are accused of having cheated Henry Mueller, Chester, Ill., hotel proprietor, of $25,000.

Moran, police say, has a criminal record dating back more than 25 years. He had been convicted of complicity in a number of the major swindles uncovered in this country over that period. He is said by police to have been the originator of the wire-tapping fraud.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—(AP.)—Hezekiah N. Duff, of Lansing, Mich., commander-in-chief of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, advised President Hoover that his organization was ready to make further search for the bodies of American soldiers remaining in Russia.

Duff said he also indorsed Mr. Hoover's view that all veterans' agencies should be consolidated and offered the co-operation of his organization in the coming pilgrimate to Europe of gold star mothers and war widows.

DETECTIVE SEARCHED DURING HOLDUP

SIDE WALKS of PITTSBURGH

by WILLIAM PFARR

HONUS WAGNER is to attend the baseball writers' dinner next Thursday, which is good news for the diners. Honus daily gains in age and popularity. A shambling, rather untidy, gray-haired Dutchman, he wins everybody with his awkward naturalness. Honus is the world's worst actor, consequently a good speaker, for he has none of the oratorical pretensions which seem but aren't necessary. His sincerity is undoubted.

Honus' big-league days are over, but he remains a part of baseball by associating with sandlot clubs. He enjoys the company of youngsters who have heard their fathers telling of the bowlegged star. A half-dozen times Barney Dreyfuss, the owner of the Pirates, has tried to entice Honus back to the fold as a coach for the ball club. But Honus, having had his fill of trouping, would stay at home.

There are many stories of his years in baseball. One concerns Hugo Bezdek, who had just been appointed manager of the Pirates.

Bezdek was none too familiar with the abilities of the various Pirates, and he leaned on the wisdom of Wagner. On this particular day the Pirate pitcher was being roughly treated by the opposition. Honus and Bezdek were on the bench.

An enemy batter singled. Bezdek asked Honus if this was the time to jerk the pitcher.

"Well, now, I'd let him in there for a while," Honus advised.

The following batter singled. Bezdek repeated the question.

"Well, let's give him another chance," Honus held out.

The third batter hit safely and the bases were loaded.

"Doncha think we ought to change pitchers now, Honus?" Bezdek appealed.

"Well, Bez, use your own judgment."

WE HASTEN to disagree with Mr. Lawrence N. Heppner, vice president of the National Association of Merchant Tailors, who estimates that the well-dressed man can dress well on $5,000 to $10,000 a year. We have never found it so. Last year we tried it and failed. A motorist splashed mud on our Inverness caps and then where were we? At a meeting of the glee club a spinster sat on our folding silk hat and thereafter the folding silk hat refused to unfold. We took off 12 pounds in four days of the 18-day diet and had to toss 18 suits, including the three with the striped trousers, to Jeeves. We are confident that Mr. Heppner does not consider such possibilities as these in his estimate.

Pitt Heads State List for Teachers

The University of Pittsburgh has issued more provisional teachers' certificates to graduates in the last nine years than any other Pennsylvania accredited college or university, according to the Department of Public Instruction at Harrisburg. Carnegie Institute of Technology is listed with 448 as against Pitt's 1,530. Two other Pittsburgh institutions, Duquesne and Pennsylvania College for Women, respectively, have granted 70 and 277. In the state, the University of Pennsylvania and Pennsylvania State College are second and third in the number given out, with 1,530 and 1,261, respectively.

Will Rogers Says:

LONDON, Jan. 30.

Heard the great debate in the House of Commons on free trade versus tariff. We don't hear so much of Lloyd George as we used to, but brother, they heard him yesterday. What a speech. Laughs, logic and slow death for the opposition, then Lady Astor took me around to his office and we had tea for three. Tea wasn't so tasty, but that grand old fellow's conversation was.

You can easily see how he piloted a country when they needed piloting.

Say that Premo Rivera resigning without being assisted by artillery, was unprecedented in the entire history of dictators. I had an interview with him, too, about two years ago in Madrid and he struck me then as being a sensible man who loved life. Now he is the only living ex-dictator.

Oglebay Refuses to Take Lovejoy to Dinner

CHAPTER XX.

A FINE misty rain was coming down when Lovejoy turned into Bullard street that Saturday night.

The wet black sidewalks reflected the lighted windows of the neat, modest houses that lined the street. A smell of spring—sharp and sweet and fresh—mingled with the smell of the rain.

The night seemed very peaceful and quiet to Lovejoy as she stopped Tom's car in front of the tall apartment house that had been home to her for so many years.

She turned off the engine and leaned back against the leather cushions to wait for Steve Oglebay.

It was 15 minutes before 8. She would have time to smoke a cigaret, inhaling the smoke the way Aline did.

You don't get any kick out of a cigaret unless you draw the smoke into your lungs, Aline had told her, and she had shown her how to do it.

Aline . . . Could there really be women like Aline, Lovejoy suddenly asked herself.

Aline and cigaret-smoking and secret love affairs seemed as unreal as a dream all at once to Lovejoy as she sat there in common everyday Bullard street, looking up at Aunt Em's front windows with their curtains of much-mended lace.

There was something so decent and honest about Bullard street.

It knew nothing of baguette diamonds and silk-damask pajamas and perfumed cigarets like Aline's. And if there were any cheating wives there, Lovejoy never had heard of them.

Her Mistake

Realizes That She Is Doing Wrong

What on earth am I doing here, anyway? she asked herself.

It came over her, like a flash, that she was no better than Aline!

Here I sit—waiting for Steve Oglebay! she thought. Keeping a date with him—planning to spend the evening with him!

For a second she despised herself for what she was doing.

For a second she was seized with a strong impulse to turn Tom's car around and dash back home in it—back to the safety and decency of the little house in Stallings Lane.

But just then, before she had time to do any more straight thinking, a great closed car flashed past her and stopped at the curb just ahead of her. Steve's car.

And Steve was jumping out of it and coming through the rain towards her, the tip of his cigaret glowing in the darkness.

"Hell," he said as he opened the door of her car. "Move over and I'll sit down beside you. . . . What's worrying you?"

"Worrying me?" Lovejoy's eyes were wide open against the darkness. "Why, what do you mean?"

"You said you wanted to see me about something," Steve reminded her. "Your voice sounded as if you were worried—in trouble."

Lovejoy shook her head.

"No. I just wanted to see you, Steve," she answered quietly. "I just felt as if I had to see you."

If she had told him the truth she would have said:

Refuses Dinner

Will Not Help Her to Blacken Character

I was peeved because Tom left me alone and went to play poker. What I want is some excitement. I want to go places and see things! And almost any man would do as a companion for me tonight—only I happened to know you so I telephoned you!

But women seldom tell the truth to men who are in love with them. They are much more likely to flatter them—to "string them along."

And that is what Lovejoy did.

"It suddenly came over me that it would be fun to meet you somewhere and spend the evening with you," she said, "the way we used to."

"Remember the wonderful dinners we used to have, Steve?" she went on. "Nobody ever could order a dinner the way you can. I haven't had anything to eat yet tonight, have you?"

He shook his head. "No, and I'm not going to take you anywhere for dinner," he said flatly. "I'm not going to do anything that's going to blacken your reputation, Lovejoy. I'm not going to do any sneaking and I'm not going to let you do any."

She could hardly believe her ears.

"When you called me up tonight," he said, "I thought you were going to tell me that you were leaving your husband. I don't know why I thought that—unless it was because you asked me to meet you here where you used to live. But I came because I thought you must have left him. Otherwise I wouldn't have come here at all."

"But what made you think I'd leave Tom?" Lovejoy's voice was small and shaken.

"You told me you weren't happy with him," the man replied.

Lovejoy remembered then that she had told him that. She had told it to him the night of Aline's party, when she had all that Bacardi to drink. . . .

"Well, if I had left Tom would you be glad, Steve?" she asked with a long deep sigh.

She moved toward him on the broad seat of the car, and laid her hand on his shoulder.

"Tell me the truth, Steve," she murmured, "would you have me if you could—now? If I left Tom?"

She saw him nod his head with a sudden jerk.

"You know I would," he said, and she knew that he meant it. "But I'm not going to fool around like this with—with another man's wife. It's—it's not decent—"

He turned and took her in his arms, as if he couldn't help himself. He bent his head down to hers and kissed her.

At 10 o'clock Lovejoy drove back to Stallings Lane. There was a light burning on the little porch of the Bennetts' house next door. As she started up her own steps, Mrs. Bennett came out of her house and called to her.

Absence Discovered

Husband Unexpectedly Returns Home

"Mrs. Nicholson!—A special delivery letter came here for you. I sent the boy over to your house with it!" she called shrilly through the silvery whisper of the rain. "I didn't see him go in, but I guess your girl got it all right."

She always called Hilda the "girl."

"Thanks," Lovejoy called back as she unlocked the door.

Hilda was asleep in a big chair in the living room.

"I sets in here to listen to the baby—if he wake and cry," she told Lovejoy when she woke up. "It's nice by the fire, too."

"Where's my special delivery letter?" Lovejoy asked, taking off her wet coat and shaking it before the rosy dying embers. "Where did you put it, Hilda?"

"Letter? No letter came here tonight—for you or for anybody," the girl answered, shaking her flaxen head with emphasis. "Nothing happen—only

After the accident, according to police, the driver stopped his machine and took the victim to St. Joseph's Hospital. There he assisted the boy to the emergency room and disappeared.

The victim, hospital attaches said, suffered a fracture of the right wrist, crushed left arm, contusions of the body and probable internal injuries. He is a son of Patrolman Thomas J. Clark, of South Side Police Station, and was on his way to St. John's School when the accident occurred.

The case is the second of the kind occurring in that district within the past 72 hours.

CHECKING BANK FUNDS AFTER HOLD-UP

ELMER E. LYONS CHECKING CASH AT COMMUNITY SAVINGS AND LOAN COMPANY

Manager Lyons checking over cash at the Greensburg bank held up by two young bandits who laid out $1,500 to take. Frightened, they fled with only $150, Mr. Lyons said.

SEEK NERVOUS BANK ROBBERS

GREENSBURG, Pa., Jan. 30.—State police and Greensburg authorities today pressed their search for two men who yesterday held up the Community Savings and Loan Company office, 30 West Second street, and escaped with $150 after binding Mrs. Alice Baughman, cashier. They were frightened away after they had scooped up $1,500 and laid it on the counter to begin searching for more.

The men, described as being about 23 years old, entered the office shortly after noon and confronted Mrs. Baughman, one of them pointing a revolver through the bars of the cage and demanding that she open the door.

She pleaded that she did not have the keys, as Elmer E. Lyons, manager, had locked the door from the outside when he left for lunch. She told them they could enter through a rear door.

After forcing their way into the cage the two scooped up the $1,500 from the drawers of the safe, and laid the money on the counter.

"Come clean, and tell us where the rest of the money is hidden."

Before she could answer a man entered the place to inquire the location of a doctor's office, and the robbers, grabbing some of the money fled through the open door. After a checkup officials of the bank, said only $150 was missing.

Killer of Soldier Would Like to Attend Funeral

DETROIT, Jan. 30.—(INS.)—Declaring he didn't mean to shoot Stanley Prusnowski, of the One Hundred and Twenty-fifth Infantry of the Michigan National Guard, Sergt. Joseph Poggione today penitently expressed regret for the killing in county jail where he is being held in default of $10,000 bond on a manslaughter charge.

"I would like to show the family that I'm sorry by going to the boy's funeral," Poggione said. "But I guess it would be best for all concerned, if I didn't."

"I didn't mean to shoot him—it was a pure accident. I didn't even know him, so why should I shoot him," he continued.

FORT RESIGNS G. O. P. POST

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—(AP.)—Representative Franklin Fort, of New Jersey, has resigned as secretary of the Republican National Committee, in which capacity he has served since Herbert Hoover's nomination for the presidency.

In a letter to Chairman Claudius Huston, Fort gave the press of his duties as a member of Congress as the primary reason for his withdrawal, and added he felt free to "leave at this time since the affairs of the party are in such splendid shape."

Huston accepted the committee secretary's resignation with a letter saying it came as no surprise, but was a source of deep regret.

BANDITS ROB TWO DRUG STORES

Armed Pair Loots Cash Registers; Officer, Three Others Lined Up by One

Police today had found no trace of two armed bandits who held up two drug stores, one in which the manager, and three customers, including a precinct detective, were forced into a rear room last night.

The Mayflower drug store, at 4827 Penn avenue, was invaded by the pair shortly before 11 o'clock. J. H. Klingensmith, the manager, of 7209 Penn avenue; William Harris, a precinct detective attached to the Central Police Station; James Croy, of 221 South Millvale avenue, and Frank Palmer, of Brownsville avenue, customers, were ordered into the rear room of the store. While one covered them with a revolver, his companion rifled the cash register of $300.

MEN SEARCHED

After obtaining the cash the thug returned to the rear room and proceeded to search the men. In his apparent haste, the robber failed to discover any money or the revolver which Harris carried.

Warning their victims against an outcry, the bandits leaped into an automobile which they had parked in front of the store and headed for East Liberty. As the bandit car sped up Penn avenue, Detective Harris, who had run out of the pharmacy after the thugs left, fired two shots at it, police reported.

ROB REGISTER

The same pair, police believed, had visited Kirsch's drug store, at 4501 Penn avenue, two hours, before, held up F. M. Schalegel, the manager, and William Porr, the clerk. Herding the two into the rear room the bandits scooped up $75 from the register and fled in a machine.

Chamberlin Tests Pressure Mail Line

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—(INS.)—Airmail enthusiasts today studied the feasibility of using pneumatic tubes to speed up the delivery of mails from airport to postoffice, following a test here by Clarence D. Chamberlin.

Chamberlin received $340,000 in four minutes and 10 seconds, worth of merchandise from a tube while a taxicab was making the same trip in 25 minutes.

Chamberlin estimated, delivery of letters could be expedited from two to four hours by use of the tubes.

Accidents Reduced In Short Skirt Year

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—(AP.)—Without seeking in any way whatsoever to express his personal views on the merits of long and short skirts, Frederick Rex, city librarian and statistician, revealed today that in 1913, when skirts were long, 1,323 women were injured boarding street cars, and that in 1928, when skirts were short, only 328 were similarly hurt.

The Camera Question Box

The Sun-Telegraph's "Camera Question Box" each day will ask a question of public interest to Pittsburghers and will photograph those interviewed.

Today's Question—How many arrests do you average a year and what offense tops the list?

H. L. COX, Liberty and Sixth avenues, traffic policeman: "I will average about 10 arrests a year. Most of these cases are charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct. There are very few violations of traffic laws and most of these violations are caused by ignorance of the law. A warning to the motorist is sufficient.

H. L. Cox

FRANK CRUMMER, South Side, mounted patrolman: "I'm detailed to direct children going to and from school. Automobile and truck drivers seem to be always careful when driving past a school building, so I have had to make few arrests—maybe 12 a year. Disorderly conduct is the worst offense that I have to contend with. The traffic problem is not serious."

Frank Crummer

TOM MORRISON, Sixth avenue and Smithfield street, traffic policeman: "The citizens of Pittsburgh are generally law-abiding people. That is why I don't have to make many arrests. My average is around 20 and that's not so many when you consider the number of people that drive past my corner. By treating everybody politely you can win their respect and they will listen to your suggestions."

Tom Morrison

JOHN J. TITZ, Mt. Washington, patrolman: "Drunkenness is the worst offense that I have to deal with. Last year I had about 15 of those arrests. A police officer can keep order on his beat if he treats everybody alike and shows no favorites. Many offenses today are committed by people who have no regard for another's feelings, thinking only of themselves.

John J. Titz

FRANK J. GERGURICH, Penn avenue, mounted policeman: "The arrests for disorderly conduct and drunkenness head my list. They average all told about 20 a year. An officer can talk sense to a sober person and warn him not to give offense. With a drunk it's different. The only thing to do is arrest him. I try all times to be decent with everybody—that's the only way."

F. J. Gergurich

TOM CLANCY, Sixth avenue and Smithfield street, traffic policeman: "If we could arrest jaywalkers there's no telling how many arrests I would make in a year. As it is now, I don't suppose I make more than 20 a year. Traffic violations head my list. If a policeman keeps on the job and looks as though he means business he will not be bothered with many violations of the law."

Tom Clancy

Eddie Cantor Rises to Say:

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.

MERGERS are oft times very necessary. May I suggest the following? Primo De Rivera, dictator of Spain, having resigned (which is high-hat for being "canned") why not merge Italy and Spain so that Mussolini can be dictator for both?

Chicago is still in trouble. Its forty thousand city employes have not been paid since January 1. It is understood that Washington will have to spend three hundred million dollars to enforce prohibition for one year. Why not use part of that money to help Chicago out of her financial difficulty and use the Windy City's employes as prohibition agents during their summer vacation? Am I a business man or just a "ham?"

In New York City at the twenty-sixth annual convention of the National Boot and Shoe Manufacturers' Association, delegates agreed that Americans are not walking enough. You have no cause for worriment, boys, for since the "crash" thousands of men are back on their feet again—having had their cars taken away from them.

Notes on Paper Slip Sustained as Will

Probate of an after-discovered will penciled on a slip of paper by William A. Parker, purchasing agent of the Bessemer and Lake Erie Railroad Company at the time of his death, August 23, last, was sustained by Judge Edward C. Chalfant in an opinion handed down in Orphans Court.

The will, dated February 17, 1928, and found in Parker's clothing after his death, gave his estate, valued at $60,000, to his widow, Mrs. Martha E. Parker, in these words, "I will everything I own to my wife; I trust and charge her to pay all bills."

A formal will, made in September, 1927, giving the widow a life estate, with remainder to his brothers and sisters after her death, had been offered for probate previously. The relatives of Parker contested the penciled will, admitting the signature to be genuine, but claiming that the text had been altered.

MEETING ENDS WITH PLANS APPROVED

Unanimous Vote Asks Groups Co-Operate on Prospect For Presbyterian Union

Much progress has been made today by representatives of the Presbyterian and Reformed churches toward proposed unification of the church bodies. The two-day conference of leaders of the churches was brought to a close last night with a gathering in the First United Presbyterian Church, Fifth avenue, Oakland.

Approximately 3,200,000 communicants are represented by those who attended the conference here. Dr. H. W. Noble, of Jersey City, and Dr. Henry C. Swearingen, of the First Presbyterian Church, St. Paul, Minn., addressed the gathering last night. Each explained the action of the executive committee in approving the proposals for unification at the afternoon session yesterday.

PROPOSALS OFFERED

At the session yesterday afternoon, Dr. William J. Reid, pastor of the First United Presbyterian Church here, presided. Proposals setting forth the basis of unification were submitted by Dr. James I. Vance, of Nashville, Tenn., who represented the Presbyterian Church, South.

The proposals approved by the executive committee follow:

1. The committees of the conferring churches express themselves as approving the organic union of these churches at the earliest moment.

2. We recommend to the church courts appointing us:

(a) That we approve organic union with other Presbyterian and Reformed churches on the basis of their existing standards.

That our representatives be instructed to co-operate with committees of other Presbyterian and Reformed churches to prepare a complete plan to make this organic union effective to be submitted for adoption to the properly constituted authorities of these churches.

ACTION APPROVED

The action of the executive committee was approved by unanimous vote of the representatives from the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., Presbyterian Church, U. S., and the United Presbyterian Church of North America. The Reformed Church of America refrained from voting on the second proposal, item B.

Delegates of the Reformed Church in the United States attended all sessions of the conference, but were not represented in an official capacity.

LEADER URGES PRECINCT CUT

A plan for reducing by half the number of voting districts of the Twenty-second Ward, North Side, has been presented to the Redistricting Commission of Allegheny County. John P. O'Donnell, Republican ward chairman, presented the plan at a hearing conducted by Commissioners Joseph G. Armstrong, Jr., and Howard Neely in Allegheny High School last night.

The ward now has 18 districts. The plan would reduce it to nine when voting machines are installed. The members of redistricting commission are holding hearings in various wards of the city to hear plans for redistricting as advanced by residents of each ward. In addition to O'Donnell, ward leaders who attended last night's meeting included Chris McCormick, Arthur Rooney, Constable Daniel McGeary and Martin A. Flanagan.

TWO CAUGHT AS DRUG THIEVES

Someone telephoned the police early today that thieves had broken into C. J. Weiss' drug store, 4381 Murray avenue, and were ransacking the place. Lieut. Michael Murphy and Patrolmen W. R. Thompson and Raymond Lewis rushed to the store. They came back soon with two prisoners, who said they were Charles J. Fitzsimmons, 30, of 1516 Fifth avenue, and Thomas F. Hyland, 21, of 743 Haselwood avenue.

According to the police, they caught the suspects leaving the store with 15 pints of whisky and a quantity of morphine and cocaine.

Magistrate James O'Connor held the two for the grand jury on charges of entering a building and larceny.

BIG GAIN SHOWN FOR DEALERS IN CITY

Commerce Chamber Figures Revealed in Campaign to Attract More Conferences

Pittsburgh business men profited to the extent of $4,021,600 from 125,675 delegates to conventions here in the last two years, figures compiled by Mark W. Egan, manager of the conventions and visitors bureau of the Chamber of Commerce, show.

Of this amount $945,176 went to retail stores, $723,888 to restaurants, $924,968 to hotels, $321,728 to theaters and $402,000 to garages, filling stations and businesses affiliated with the automobile business.

LOGICAL CENTER

Miscellaneous expenditures of visitors to 165 conventions amounted to more than $402,160, or 10 per cent of what is usually spent.

"Three-fourths of the population of the United States, and one-half the population of the Dominion of Canada, can reach Pittsburgh by an overnight train-ride," commented Egan, to illustrate the accessibility of this city to potential visitors and delegates.

The figures were given out in connection with an exhibit which opened in the Chamber yesterday, demonstrating that Pittsburgh is the logical convention center of the east.

SEEK CO-OPERATION

The exhibit, which consists of an outdoor billboard, showing Pittsburgh's central location in the Eastern section of America, and cardboard models of Pittsburgh hotels illuminated by floodlamps, has been set up in the lobby of the Chamber. Each day for a week, a red-uniformed bell-boy will distribute to visitors at the Chamber and members, a letter from Egan explaining how they may aid in co-operating with the Chamber of Commerce to secure conventions for this city.

Their first victim, Walter Rolewski, of 2940 Leander street, was robbed of $7 at the point of a revolver at Brereton avenue and the Twenty-eighth Street Bridge, from the second, Ludwig Marshallick, of Dobson street and Brereton avenue, they obtained nothing because Marshallick battled and routed them.

Four dollars were taken from Adam Swindell, of 3013 Brereton avenue, after the men had confronted him with a revolver. All the holdups occurred at the same location.

The brothers were captured less than 15 minutes after the last robbery had been reported. The police, armed with riot guns, came upon the pair as they were heading for their home.

Ralph Johnston, 29, of 106 West North avenue, was taken to St. John's Hospital last night after he had been found unconscious in the rear of his home. At the hospital Johnston told police, they said, that he had been felled with a brick as he was about to enter his yard and robbed of $80. He was unable to describe his assailants.

The patio and garden were beautifully lighted and cut flowers were arranged in baskets throughout the house.

Mrs. Lyons' brother, Eben P. Byers, is spending the winter as usual at Palm Beach, where he has an apartment in the Phipps Plaza.

Another prominent Pittsburgh woman at Palm Beach is Mrs. W. Harry Brown, who is seen at many of the entertainments at the famous resort. And I hear that Mrs. Robert Carson will join her again this winter.

AND now news has reached me of the marriage plans of another Pittsburgh son. James Elwyn Brown, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Brown, of Beaver street, Sewickley, who will marry Caroline Johnson, daughter of Capt. Alfred W. Johnson of the United States Navy and Mrs. Johnson, of Washington, on March 1. Bellboy 'Sales' May Padlock Hotel

PUEBLO, Col., Jan. 30.—(INS.)—Padlock proceedings will be instituted against the Congress Hotel, the largest hotel in Pueblo, according to Federal officials here, following demand by Federal Judge J. Foster Eymes for action against the hostelry as the result of the arrest of two bellboys for liquor sales. When the bellboys pleaded guilty to selling liquor in the hotel, Judge Symes said he would not pronounce sentence until nuisance charges were filed against the hotel.

"The sale of liquor must have been carried on with the hotel management's permission," the jurist declared.

ENGLISH KING KIND TO HELP

He and his family are looked after by the king's physician at a fixed rate of two pence a week.

He can look forward to an old-age pension and, if he dies, his widow gets a rent-free cottage.

He gets milk from the king's prize cows, wood from the king's forests and an occasional brace of rabbits or fowl from the royal barnyard.

He has the use of a club house with library, billiards and games rooms and a concert hall where concerts cost him one penny; half price for children.

Australia Bans Export of Rams

CANBERRA.—(AP.)—The Australian federal government has decreed that export of rams to South Africa and South America must stop, holding that it is suicidal to build up the flocks of countries competing for Australia's wool market.

Italian Schools Use Home-Made Supplies

ROME.—(AP.)—The ministry of education has ruled that so far as possible the kingdom's schools must use only Italian inks, drawing tools, erasers and the like. Foreign products can be adopted only in exceptional cases.

World's Quietest Spot In Holland

NEW YORK.—A silence nearer absolute than that of the uninhabited mountain peaks has been obtained in a room at Holland. It was designed to test the behavior of human ears in experiments that would be ruined by the slightest noise.

RARE OPPORTUNITY to rent a

Magnificent Apartment!

There will be available for rental as of May 1st a residential suite in Schenley Apartments which may be declared, with due modesty, to be the ultimate acme of splendor in householding, in keeping with refined, smart taste.

This is an eleven-room, studio, duplex suite. That is to say, it is especially constructed, employing sections of two floors of the building.

Consider the picture—the reception hall opens on a living room 25½ by 18 feet, with 18-foot ceiling. This spacious room is beautifully finished, the walls being of Swedish putty plaster, delicately tinted, with sculptured decorations in bas relief.

There is a massive sculptured stone fireplace, equipped for real log-burning, which provides that warm glow of comfort so much prized in this day of modernity.

Grouped about are other rooms—a dining room, library, kitchen and butler's pantry and two maids' rooms with bath. The fixture equipment in both kitchen and butler's pantry is of German silver, achieving an excellence seldom if ever attained elsewhere.

A word about the finish of the woodwork—the doors and wood finish of this apartment bear twenty-five coats of paint which were rubbed seventeen times.

The ceiling of the living room is of wood, with heavy beams projecting. In the reflected light from the tall windows, extending through two floors, an intriguing shadow effect is obtained.

There are numerous other features, among them the actual gold-leafing of the wall decoration in the entrance hall, but there is an absence of the bizarre. There is elegance—but likewise dignity; and good taste in everything.

From the living room rises the stairway and the studio effect is gained in the balcony outlook from the rooms on the duplex floor. In this group are two sets of master bedrooms, with bath rooms between. Description fails here, for these rooms must be seen to be appreciated. Their juxtaposition with the living room, their facilities for convenience, for comfort and absolute repose, impress themselves only on view.

The picture would not be complete without reference to the individualized service provided by Schenley Apartments. So prompt is this service, and so embracing, that to require is to have performance.

There are 125 employes in the Schenley Service corps—all specialized. They attend to every branch of householding, completely, or supplement the private service of individual families.

To this must be added the service of the excellent Hotel Schenley, adapted to apartment requirements, and the service of numerous fine Schenley shops.

Inspection of rental availibilities invited.

ASKS METAL BAN AS PEACE AID

LONDON, Jan. 30.—(AP.)—Peace enforcement by prohibition of exportation of minerals was the proposal last night by Sir Thomas Holland, distinguished metallurgist, in a speech to the Royal Society of Arts.

Modern warfare, he said, demands great quantities of minerals. He therefore proposed that all signatories of the Kellogg pact for renunciation of war adopt an additional clause empowering the government of each, if and when necessary, to prohibit export of mineral products to any nation violating the multilateral treaty.

The scheme could be initiated by agreement between the British Empire and the United States, which between them under his estimates own about two-thirds of the known workable deposits of minerals and commercially control about three-quarters of them. He argued that this plan would not interfere with the trade required for civil necessities of any nation and thus would reduce to a minimum the aftermath of reparation disputes.

Sir Thomas, a native of Canada, has been chairman of the Empire Council, mining and metallurgical institutions since 1927. Earlier he was president of the Institution of Mining Engineers, president of the Board of Munitions of India, and president of the Institution of Mining and Metallurgy.

He has long been a professor at Manchester University.

ACCUSE MAN IN OLD KILLING

ALLIANCE, O., Jan. 30.—Armed with warrants charging first degree murder, Police Chief Harry L. Stark and Lieut. Earl R. Schultz, left yesterday for Texarkana, Ark., to bring back Hargh Reisling, 35, wanted here as an accomplice in the murder of Kronius Shinikos, confectionery proprietor, in 1926.

In a telephone conversation with Stark County prosecutor, James M. Aungst, of Canton, Sheriff F. S. Magee, of Texarkana, said his prisoner would waive extradition and accompany the Alliance officers.

Reisling was implicated in the four-year-old murder by the confession of Charles Hamilton, now serving a life sentence in the Ohio penitentiary for the crime.

He is owner of the Wyoming State Tribune-Leader and was a member of the Wyoming legislature and president of the board of trustees of the University of Wyoming when he came to Washington.

"Some [illegible] has been made of me in the papers and the press of Wyoming as a candidate for the United States Senate.

"While I have reached no decision [illegible] as to be difficult in my present position to make a survey of the situation without violating the spirit of the civil service law.

"Therefore, I hereby tender my resignation as a member of the United States Civil Service Commission, to be effective at your pleasure."

DISPUTE APPOINTMENT

There is [illegible] over the right of Gov. Emerson to fill Senator Warren's vacancy and the Senate Elections Committee directed that a sub-committee study the question. The dispute has arisen because of the Wyoming statute which provided the Governor could fill a vacancy in Congress only when it occurs during a session.

Senator Warren died during the week's recess between the special and regular sessions. Gov. Emerson appointed Sullivan, who is Republican National Committeeman for Wyoming, to the Senate after Congress was again in session.

An early report by the Elections Committee is expected. Sullivan is serving meanwhile, and friends believe his right to the seat will be approved.

RUSSIA TO HOLD JUNK CONCERT

MOSCOW, Jan. 30.—(AP)—A bundle of junk will be the admittance price to a special concert tonight by Anna Luboshitz, A well-known cellist, who has played before American audiences.

The newspaper Vachernia Moska informed the public that "six pounds of rags or paper, old bottles, tin cans, bones or a single pair of old rubbers will be accepted as the admission fee."

This announcement was not intended to be humorous. The government has just launched a nation-wide campaign to collect this sort of waste material so that it may be converted into useful articles for export, thus helping to fill the coffers of the Soviet union with foreign currency.

CANAL VICTIM IDENTIFIED

YUMA, Ariz., Jan. 30.—(AP)—Permission was granted by Lower California authorities for the return here of a body believed to be that of Paul Loveland, Pasadena, Cal., architect, found on the banks of an irrigation canal near Cuervos, Lower California. It had been buried by Mexicans who said they found it in the ditch.

An effort will be made to determine the cause of death after the body is brought here. Loveland had been missing since the Christmas holidays after departing on a fishing trip near here. He was last seen leaving an automobile camp here, with two companions whose identities are not known and who have not been located.

Sheriff J. C. Hunter said he was investigating a theory that Loveland had fallen into Laguna dam near here and drowned, his body being carried into Mexico through an irrigation canal which is fed by the dam.

Identification of the body was made the sheriff said, in a telephone conversation with Mrs. Loveland. She confirmed descriptions of two pairs of spectacles found in the clothing and dental work as that of her husband.

DRY SPIES COST $797 IN YEAR

GREENSBURG, Pa., Jan. 30.—The administration of District Attorney John R. Keister in Westmoreland County, paid $797 last year to "under cover" men to obtain evidence against liquor law violators, the annual controller's report shows.

Interest on the money borrowed to pay the under cover men was $37.20 last year.

Westmoreland County realized $53.23 for the sale of old paper and $88.50 in copper sold from seized and destroyed stills. Sale of cars confiscated in liquor raids netted the county $384.50.

Liquor analysis cost $5.050, the report states.

BRANCH BANKS TO BE SCANNED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—(AP)—A study of branch banking seemed assured to Chairman McFadden, of the House Banking Committee, after conference with President Hoover and other officials.

Announcing he expected favorable action by the rules committee on his resolution authorizing the study, McFadden outlined his purpose as fact-finding rather than investigatory. He said the conclusions would be used as "the basis of subsequent legislative action if deemed advisable."

There are now pending before the banking committee bills both to extend and to forbid branch, chain, group and holding company banking, along with others of a regulatory nature.

McFadden conferred during the day with the chief executive, Secretary Mellon and Under Secretary Mills of the Treasury, Gov. Mills of the Federal Reserve Board, and J. W. Pole, Comptroller of the Currency.

Thousands With Poor, Weak Stomachs Now Taking Pepsin In New Liquid Form

PHARMACISTS PRAISE IT

Stops Acute Kind in Few Minutes—What a Blessing.

Here's a delightful elixir with plenty of real pepsin, some Menthol and just enough of several other [illegible] that makes it capable of [illegible] digestive troubles, down [illegible] and it tastes like the most palatable nectar.

The men who created this supremely good formula know their business, they don't believe in nasty tasting medicine and the people are with them for Dare's Mentha Pepsin. That's the name, is having a tremendous sale all over the country. They have passed along the word to every druggist in the country that if Dare's Mentha Pepsin doesn't bring extreme comfort to any sufferer, ruined with sickly, gassy stomach, that the owner of that most important internal organ can have his or her money back.

Stubborn indigestion of years standing is hard to get rid of, but Dare's Mentha Pepsin will do it, the enthusiastic druggist asserts—it's a real pepsin in liquid form—the right way to take pepsin. Any druggist almost has a big supply on hand.

If you were baking your own bread, you would use the best flour you could buy, the best milk, best yeast, and so on.

For the Woman Who Suffers—

MANY women suffer needlessly — periodically — their back aches so much of the time, they feel dragged down, blue and discouraged. This is the time they should write to Dr. Pierce's Clinic in Buffalo, N. Y., for free, confidential medical advice. Dr. Pierce, who founded the Invalids Hotel and Surgical Institute in Buffalo, wrote a prescription back in 1870, for women who were dragged down by womanly complaints and it made him famous—this he called Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, the most successful tonic and nervine. Now sold in every drug store in the land—in liquid or tablet form. Send 10c to Dr. Pierce's Clinic if you wish a trial package of the tablets.

Marooned—with a man who hated all women!

ALINE realized that her adventure had been a ghastly mistake. It had been easy to hide in David's plane before he set out for South America. But now, alone with him in the desert—and with a disabled plane—she realized her helplessness.

David Morton looked at her scornfully. "So my charming stowaway is the cigarette-girl from the Pantheon," he said sarcastically.

"I—I overheard two men say you might wreck your plane," Aline said. "I wanted to stop you . . . Oh, I was mad!"

"You thought I'd kill myself because a girl jilted me? You flatter your sex."

How dare she tell David that she loved him? Why, they hardly knew each other, although she had seen him many times at the Pantheon Club—with the girl who was to be his bride.

But David Morton had vowed vengeance on all women—for the wrong one woman had done to him. Here, unexpectedly, was his chance for revenge! They were alone in the silent desert. He drew Aline into his arms, and felt her lips yield to his.

But suddenly Aline struggled to be free. "Let me alone," she cried. "I hate you . . . "

What was the outcome of this amazing human conflict? Can any man who has lost respect for all women—ever find true love? Read "The Unknown," by Hermina Black, a complete novelette of a strange, romantic adventure in this week's Love Story Magazine.

DELIGHTFUL COSTUMES FOR WEAR AT WINTER RESORTS

Paris Bureau, Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph.

PARIS, Jan. 30—Cutting a figure on the ice, means to many women delightful skating suits, rather than the execution of a difficult gyration. And so, it is not difficult to discover just what has caused the enormous and general revival of indoor ice-skating. It may be the desire to enjoy the sport, but it is also the wish to wear the attractive sports suits presented this season by the leading houses. For there are many whose affairs keep them in town during the winter, and so they will don their smart suits and hie them to the Palaise de Grace, and have at least, some of the joys of winter sport. Any way it may tend to make us a trifle less envious of the lucky ones who are on their way to St. Moritz to try their luck on the Crestas run, or making their hotel reservations at some of the less pretentious but just as enjoyable spots in the Bernese Oberland. With the general revival of winter sports, the French resort of Chamonix anticipates a successful season. In these spots nature and creative comforts cleverly combine to lure visitors who prefer the more vigorous pastimes to the languerous delights of the Riviera. And then, after all, the toboggan isn't half so dangerous as the smooth blaize-covered tables of a casino.

BEING aware of the trend to winter sports, the leading dressmakers here recently staged a most delightful mannequin parade of winter sports models. We are sending you some sketches of the most novel creations shown, in the hope that they may be of assistance to you in planning your wardrobe for the Adirondacks or Canada. The first is from Jane Regny who has been extraordinarily successful with sport clothes. The suit has a jumper of dark blue jersey with white and blue spots, and a snugly fitting vest of dark blue flannel. The wide trousers, cuffed in at the ankle beneath heavy, dark, blue gabardine with a diagonal ribbing.

SCHIAPARELLI contributes the other suit. It is of light weight and very simple suede leather in a soft shade. The set-in pieces of jersey at the shoulders designed to give ease and freedom of movement, are inspired by the chain-mail found in old suits of armor.

DENY PANTAGES BAIL LIBERTY

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 30.—(INS.)—Alexander Pantages today lost his second fight for freedom under bail.

The showman's motion to be admitted to bail on account of failing health in the county jail hospital was denied by his trial judge, Charles W. Fricke, after hearing testimony of doctors as to Pantages' condition.

SLEUTH FREED, SEEKS JOB

George P. Andrews, former private detective, who was convicted of conspiracy with former Alderman George S. Wilson and Charles W. Collins last year, appeared before Judge Harry H. Rowand today as an applicant for a deputy constable position in the First Ward, Wilkinsburg.

Constable R. F. Thomson, attached to the office of Justice of the Peace George B. Shields, appeared in Andrews' behalf and presented a petition with 1,100 signatures asking his appointment. Thomson said that the conspiracy case was the only time Andrews was in trouble. He was paroled on that conviction.

Judge Rowand said he would investigate and make a decision later.

When Your Cough Hangs On, Mix This at Home

The best cough remedy that money could buy, can easily be mixed at home. It saves money and gives you the most reliable, quick acting medicine you ever used. The way it takes hold of stubborn coughs and chest colds, giving immediate relief, is astonishing.

Any druggist can supply you with 2½ ounces of Pinex. Pour this into a pint bottle, and fill up with plain granulated sugar syrup or strained honey. It's no trouble at all to mix, and when you once use it, you will never be without it. Keeps perfectly and tastes good—children really like it.

It is surprising how quickly this loosens the germ-laden phlegm, and soothes and heals the inflamed membranes. At the same time, part of the medicine is absorbed into the blood, where it acts directly on the bronchial tubes, and helps the system throw off the whole trouble. Even those severe coughs which follow cold epidemics, are promptly ended.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway Pine, containing the active agent of creosote, in a refined, palatable form. Nothing known in medicine is more helpful in cases of severe coughs, chest colds and bronchial troubles.

Doctors Warn Against Bladder Weakness

REOPEN FIGHT ON M'CORMICK

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—(AP.)—The fight for control of the $50,000,000 estate and of the person of Stanley McCormick, wealthy incompetent, was reported here after being disposed of temporarily, at least, in California.

Newton D. Baker, counsel for Mrs. Katherine Dexter McCormick, the wealthy Stanley's wife appealed to the Appellate Court for a reversal of Circuit Judge Feinberg's decision denying Mrs. McCormick's plea that she be appointed the sole conservator of the person of her husband.

Judge Feinberg denied this part of her petition a year ago, but approved another, filed simultaneously by Mrs. McCormick and Harold F. McCormick, which asked that a board of conservators be named for Stanley's estate. On that board the court named Mrs. Katherine McCormick, Harold F. McCormick and a local trust company.

Previous to the Illinois action, California courts had named a board of three conservators for Stanley's person, naming his wife, Mrs. Anita McCormick Blaine, and Harold F. McCormick, sister and brother of Stanley.

Suit to increase the board of conservators in California was recently decided, the court ruling two more members should be named to the board, and a change be made in the methods of treating the mentally-ill man.

In his arguement before the higher court, Baker claimed Stanley's residence was in Illinois, although he had been living in California for the past 22 years. Baker argued that only Illinois courts have the power to name a conservator and that the power of California courts to do so for a non-resident is merely to make a temporary appointment.

Bucketshop Men Repay $3,000,000

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—(AP.)—Assistant State's Attorney L. P. Holt, in charge of investment security complaints in Cook County today announced $3,000,000 had been returned to purchasers of risky investments by bucket shop proprietors who were threatened with prosecution. In addition to the amount forced from the sellers, his office barred from the Chicago area more than $20,000,000 in dubious securities.

Widow of Dahlman Spurns Mayoralty

OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 30.—(AP.)—Mrs. Harriet Dahlman, widow of the late James C. Dahlman, "cowboy" mayor of Omaha, has rejected the offer of city commissioners to appoint her mayor. The commissioners called upon Mrs. Dahlman at her home to present the offer. She declined with thanks, saying that she lacked the health for such work.

BOY HERE WINS SCOUT AWARD

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—(AP.)—The National Court of Honor of the Boy Scouts of America, last night announced award of the Harmon scout scholarships for 1929 to 52 scouts. The winners were selected because of unusual services to their home communities, for outstanding attainments and for high achievements as eagle scouts.

Harry Mayeda, 18, of Sacramento, Cal., who is of Japanese parentage, won the highest rating of the 52. The announcement pointed out that Mayeda, though a member of poor family, worked his way through school. Through his activities in training Japanese-American boys in citizenship he won the friendship of Gov. Young of California. The governor personally endorsed him to receive the Harmon scholarship, after Mayeda had helped his troop, composed of poor Japanese boys, to earn enough money to finance a trip to Japan in the interest of international good will.

Gordon Gilbert Power, 17, of Baltimore, Md., overcame the handicap of loss of an arm six years ago and became not only an exceptional high school and Duke University student, but also an able athlete. Another handicapped student who won distinction was Joseph Agee, 17, of Fort Smith, Ark. Agee made a good record despite infantile paralysis.

Eugene Lloyd Mitchell, 20, Negro, of Findlay, Ohio, was another winner. He received high praise for scholastic attainment and personality.

Among the winners was Richard D. Darragh, of 306 North Negley avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa.

THE STAR IS DEAD, LONG LIVE THE STAR---BUT MAYBE STEPIN CAN'T HEAR

By DOROTHY HERZOG

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 30.

THE strongest item in this department's ken ever to two-cent stamp from a studio arrives in today's mail. I quote the story verbatim:

Stepin Fetchit is out over at Columbia. He had been cast in an important role in "Lover Come back," which Erle C. Kenton is directing, but after two days his temperament got the best of him. Harry Cohn, rather than put up with him, let him out, and scrapped the film that had been shot up to the time Fetchit went "Haywire." Clarence Muse, well-known colored actor, steps into the role. Buster Collier, Jr., and Pauline Starke head the cast which also includes Walter P. Lewis. Bette Boyd, Elliott Haupt and Ann Brody.

Stepin Fetchit should listen to the tom-toms that beat nightly in Hollywood and the chant that drones on: "The star is dead; long live the star."

Pauline Starke

Has Clara Bow spent ready cash listening to a fortune teller? Over the wires click her statement: "I am not going to marry Harry Richman. Am expecting a nervous breakdown and he is no sedative." There's witchery in such frankness. 'Tis a smart woman mayhap who nervous breakdowns on headline schedule. 'Tis a wise fiance who waits for the swoon. Hie ho, the silly old movies . . .

Mary Astor Goes To RKO Pictures

SCREENALITIES: Mary Astor has signed to trapeze in a RKO flick which I believe is titled "She Couldn't Help Goss." Since Mary's auspicious stage bow as Edward Everett Horton's leading fem she has more screen offers than she can handle even if she were twins . . . Universal sent out an S O S for 300 rats. Wanted 'em for trench atmosphere in "All Quiet on the Western Front." You'd be surprised what happened as a result of that ambiguous request . . . Grant Clark W. K. song composer, is showing his mother and father the country . . . And now Loretta Young and Grant Withers are just where they started from prior to their aeronautic elopement flight to Yuma, Ariz. Loretta's mother won't have a 17-year-old bride in her family. So the young couple have a whole year to cogitate over love. Which makes Loretta's new flick

New Contract For Mr. Chaney

LON CHANEY has signed a new M G M contract. The new contract has been hanging signatures for umpty-ump days. 'Tis said Chaney did a Babe Ruth in his own right. Held out for more do-re-me. With the paper sealed and filed 'tis safe to reckon the boy got what he wanted.

There's a chap hereabouts who has the astounding record for delivering 79 dogs—79!—to the Famous Players lot as per order. The canines were wanted for the final scene in "Two Black Crows in the A. E. F."

As Ida Lupe sang: "When it's Spring time in Hollywood I'll be singing in the rain." Charlie Ruggles is cooing and "I'll be to I'm and you get the theme for this department. . . . You don't hear so many of these theme song gags any more. But heavens, the way folks sing. Even when it isn't called for. Probably figure a snoopervisor might be snooping for a vocal discovery . . . Well, it goes on like that indefinitely and then it gets worse . . . and that's all.

Tech Announces Two Scholarships

Two scholarships at the Carnegie Institute of Technology for award to sons and daughters of professors at other collegiate institutions have been established by the trustees of the Institute, according to an announcement by Dean A. W. Tarbell. These scholarships, each worth $150 a year, will be continued for four years if the student's scholastic standing is satisfactory during that period. The scholarships will be effective in September of this year.

ELIZABETHAN RACINESS COMING

Fritz Leiber's "Twelfth Night," to be presented by him and the Chicago Civic Shakespeare Society's players in the Alvin at next Wednesday's matinee, was heralded from Chicago as "the best laugh of this theatrical season, bar none with lines of Elizabethan raciness that astonishingly hold their own with 1930 repartee."

The box office of the Nixon opens today for the sale of seats for the engagement next week of Otis Skinner in his new play, "Papa Juan." The Quintero brothers, Spanish playwrights, are the authors and their writings have attracted much attention in European capitals and in London.

"Jonesy," a collaboration by Anne Morrison and John Peter Toohey, founded on short stories by Mr. Toohey, will be the offering of the George Sharp Players in the Pitt next week. Anne Morrison married a Pittsburgh man, Newton Chapin, and until recently lived in the Hotel Schenley this city.

WELL KNOWN FACES

Both the stage and screen presentations in the Stanley, beginning tomorrow, will present faces known to many Pittsburghers. The screen will offer "Street of Chance" starring William Powell and Regis Toomey, two native sons. Dick Powell's Warner-Publix unit "Now and Then" will feature the Ward twins, two local girls who gained fame as a sister team.

Charles King's little son was handed a $7.50 pay check after appearing in a scene with his father for "Chasing Rainbows," new all-talking picture which comes to the Penn Monday. "Gee," thrilled the youngster, "we're both making money for mamma, ain't we?"

The World War gave Marjorie White a principal in "Sunny Side Up," Fox musical comedy, which will begin the fourth week of its run in the Aldine Monday, her first chance for a theatrical career. A resident of Winnipeg, Canada, Miss White then just a child, became a member of the "Winnipeg Kiddies," an organization formed to entertain the Canadian soldiers.

"HIT THE DECK" COMES

"Hit the Deck," Radio Picture, grand armada of glorious entertainment, sails into R-K-O Sheridan Square Saturday on the waves of melody bearing a whole fleet-load of beautiful girls. Jack Oakie and Polly Walker are co-featured in this talking moving picture.

Billie Dove comes to the Enright tomorrow in her latest all-talking film, "The Other Tomorrow." On the stage Jay Mills will present "Shuffle Yo' Feet."

"Peacock Alley," starring Mae Murray, will open an engagement in the Olympic Monday. It is a Tiffany production and an all-talkie.

Victor Graff will present "Winter Carnival" on the Harris stage beginning Saturday. The all-talking screen presentation will be "Hell's Heroes," with Charles Bickford, Raymond Hatton and Fred Kohler.

Zoological park attendants said today that Mombasso, female hippopotamus, was in a critical condition, but was making the proverbial valiant fight for life. "THE U. S. ARMY BUILDS MEN"

. . . and Sugar helps

The American soldier thrives on plenty of good food and consumes 50% more sugar daily than the average civilian

Seventeen million, six hundred and forty-five thousand pounds of sugar.

That's what the U. S. Standing Army consumed last year. The individual consumption, estimated at about six ounces per man per day, is based on the 134,505 officers and men in regular service in 1926. This individual figure does not include the sugar content of candy, jams and scores of other items in the regular peace-time ration.

This high average consumption of sugar by the United States Army, whose diet and health are safeguarded by a carefully selected staff of trained medical officers, is more evidence that our adult population is not taking too much sugar in its diet. As a matter of fact, the average man and woman in civilian life consumes a little over four ounces daily.

When food theorists "sound off" about sugar in any form, consider the army—its physical condition—its consumption of good wholesome food and sugar. Then you will realize that a sensible sugar ration belongs in a properly balanced diet. Good food promotes health, and sugar makes eating more pleasant. The Sugar Institute.

MANY DIAMOND CONTRACTS REJECTED

EVIDENTLY there are some days of anxiety in store for several of the major league baseball magnates before they succeed in getting all of their players lined up for the 1930 pennant races. The stage at which an unsigned athlete may be termed an actual holdout has not yet arrived, it is true, for a man isn't really a holdout until he fails to report at his training camp at the time appointed. But, judging from the rate at which contracts without signatures affixed are being sent back to club owners, a few of the moguls are likely to experience considerable trouble in completing the annual enrollments.

Rabbit Maranville

Indications are that as a result of a lean season in 1929, some of the club heads have attempted to cut the salaries of certain players for this year and have been less generous than usual in handing out increases to other pastimers. At least that is the conclusion to be drawn from the present situation, as the number of cases reported in which players declined to sign at the terms first offered is the largest known in a long time.

ONE of the latest big leaguers to reject the salary figures proposed by his club is Rabbit Maranville. The former Pirate shortstop announced in Rochester, N. Y., that he had returned his contract unsigned to President Emil Fuchs, of the Boston Braves. Another is Tony Lazzeri, Yankee second baseman, and still another is Bill Walker, Giant pitcher.

These are only a few of the latest players to follow the lead of Babe Ruth and Waite Hoyt, of the Yankees, in balking at the terms tendered by their employers. Of course, they'll all be in line when the bell rings in April, for terms are invariably reached eventually, either by compromise or through the capitulation of one side or the other, but in the meantime there is certain to be more haggling over pay figures than has marked any off-season in years.

IN many cases the unwillingness of the players to pen their names on the proffered parchment is known to be due to the fact that they're sliced. On the Washington club alone, four of the leading players have been asked to accept reductions. One of the few increases handed out went to Joe Cronin, former Buccaneer.

Clark Griffith

"There will be no compromise," declares President Clark Griffith. "My motto is ordinary salaries for ordinary ball players. If they come back satisfactorily this year they will be well paid in 1931. Otherwise, nothing doing. I think the club can get along without those players who refuse to come to terms."

PITTSBURGH football fans are wondering where George McLaren, former star fullback of the Panthers, is going to land in the wholesale shifting of gridiron coaches. McLaren's contract at the University of Wyoming has expired and he will be found elsewhere next fall. Previously he coached at University of Cincinnati and University of Arkansas. He would fit in well as a backfield coach at Pitt, but wants a year-round post as athletic director and no berth of that sort is open here. George was a three-letter man for the Panthers, starring in football, basketball and track. He was captain of the football team in 1918, playing fullback, and was rated by many experts as the best line plunger in the country.

IN his all-America selections that year Walter Camp gave the first fullback award to Steketee, of Michigan, placing McLaren at halfback on his second team, with Frankie Frisch, of Fordham, now a Cardinal baseball star, at the other half, and Flowers, of Georgia Tech at second fullback.

That was the only season, by the way, in which Camp ever named two Pitt players for his first all-America eleven. He gave a halfback position to Tom Davies and a tackle award to Leonard Hilty. Davies thus won the distinction of being one of the few players ever to make the all-America in his freshman year, something that can no longer be done, owing to modern eligibility restrictions in major college athletics. Camp put Davies on his second team in 1920 and 1921, passing him up in 1919.

OF course it was not with any thought of using Ken Williams as a regular outfielder that the Yankees took the veteran from the Red Sox yesterday via the waiver route. Williams will be 37 years old next June and his best playing days, therefore are behind him.

Emil Yde

However, Ken still can drive the ball for long distances, and the right-field bleachers at the Yankee Stadium will make him serviceable to Bob Shawkey as a pinch-hitter. Williams got his start in the majors with the Cincinnati Reds in 1915 and 1916. He spent the latter part of 1916 and all of 1917 in the Coast League, joined the Browns in 1919 and was sold to the Red Sox after the 1927 season.

EMIL YDE is at last to take a step that was considered advisable in his case by many baseball fans of the Pittsburgh district when his falling-off as a Pirate began to indicate that he would not be able to continue in the majors successfully as a pitcher. He is going to give up pitching and play in the outfield regularly for the Hollywood club, of the Pacific Coast League, to which he was released some time ago by the Detroit Tigers. The shift is the idea of Oscar Vitt, the Hollywood manager, who says he will put it into effect as soon as spring training starts.

VITT points out that Yde has been floundering around and getting nowhere as a hurler, and expresses the opinion that the Dane will be more valuable to Hollywood as an outfielder, inasmuch as the change will give the club the full benefit of the player's hitting ability.

No good reason is apparent why Yde should not make good in his new role, at least as far as minor league service is concerned. He is a strong hitter and fast runner, and these qualities, combined with the power of his throwing arm ought to enable him to convert himself into a very acceptable outfielder.

FEELING sure that it is going to be a great success, Karl E. Davis, formerly graduate manager of athletics at the University of Pittsburgh, and now making impressive progress in a similar capacity at Western Reserve University in Cleveland, regrets his inability to attend the second annual sports dinner of Pittsburgh Chapter, Baseball Writers' Association of America, in Pirate Hall at the William Penn Hotel one week from tonight.

In sending his regrets, Davis incidentally peers into the future and sees the dawning of a day when Pitt, Carnegie Tech and Western Re-

TECH PRESSES TITANS IN LAST HALF

By JESS CARVER

While the boys from Pitt were making more or less merry at the Schenley Hotel, celebrating the appointment of Eddie Baker as football captain for 1930 and the completion of the regular 1929 season without defeat, Carnegie Tech was dropping its ninth consecutive basketball game, but not without as gallant a second half fight as Tech has put up this year.

Westminster took the Tartans over the bumps to the tune of 29-20, but when it is chronicled that the Titans led at half time by 21-4 having held the Skibos without a field goal for the first 20 minutes of play, it will be seen that Tech must have done something during the second half besides look on.

After the intermission, however, the Skibos braced, and with Schumacher skipping down the floor in right spirited form, and sinking 'em from under the hoop and under the very noses of various Tartan defensemen, cut down the ridiculous lead of the Westminster quintet. No team should lead Tech by 17 points, at any time.

CROWELL LEADS SCORERS

Big Red Crowell, who will never be a great floorman, but who, because of his extreme height, is always a scoring threat, led in the point-getting, for both ball clubs with 15 points, which is a Hyatt figure. Red sank seven field goals and dropped in a free toss during the second half to bring his total to the eventual figure. Schumacher, with three goals, which looks all the more impressive because they came in the second half, led the scoring for the Tartans.

Babe O'Donovan, the fair-haired boy from Homestead, one of the best forwards in the district, played his usual pestiferous floor game, although he did little or nothing when it came to getting points. He was messing in all scrimmages, and making himself generally unpopular with the Tartan team. The lineup:

Westminster—29.		Tech—20.
Kocheran	F	Leonard
O'Donovan (C)	F	Webster
Crowell	C	Fox
Fisher	G	(C) Nease
Rice	G	Rosenzweig

Score by halves:

Westminster	21	8	—29
Carnegie Tech	4	16	—20

Field goals — Westminster, Kocheran, O'Donovan 2, Crowell 7, Fisher, Carnegie, Webster 2, Nease, Merlen, Schumacher 2.

SMALL CARD TONIGHT

Tonight's cage card is not greatly overladen. West Virginia Wesleyan begins a two day invasion of this section by playing Waynesburg's Yellow Jackets on Frank Wolf's own floor. The Jackets are right up there with the best of 'em now, having taken West Virginia for a ride Saturday night. Buckhannon is still running around in circles following that game.

Marshall College invades the sacred precints of Concord for a game with the Concord College team. This is a game that will excite no one but the principals.

CONFERENCE MEETS

Yesterday afternoon, at the Fort Pitt, the Tri- State Conference held a regular meeting, at which little or nothing of importance was done. The b-s tried to arrange a few basketball dates for next year, but John Holohan, graduate manager at Duquesne, raised so much fuss over the minutes of the last meeting, that little was accomplished toward making the 1930-31 cage card bigger and better.

A. C. Edgecomb, of Geneva; Furman Nuss and John Latto, of Bethany; Andrew Jasper ("Jacker") McDonald, of Westminster; Jim Miller, of Waynesburg, Holohan, of Duquesne and Jack Stoeber, of Thiel, were on hand.

Filipinos Barred By California Fight Comish

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Jan. 30.—(INS.)—Filipinos were barred indefinitely from boxing in California by the State Athletic Commission yesterday because of anti-Filipino rioting in several cities.

The order was issue to all boxing club promoters by J. M. Genshela, secretary, acting on instruction from W. H. Hanlon, of Sacramento, chairman.

The following telegram was sent to the promoters:

"To prevent further ill feeling and possibly serious trouble, please do not book any Filipino boxers until further notice. If any are now booked, take them off cards and get substitutes."

YESTERDAY'S EXPLANATION—ABU HAD 1,420 GRANDCHILDREN—Abu, Croesus of Abosso, a colony on the Gold Coast of Africa, boasted the largest number of descendants among his countrymen. The social structure of that country is polygamist and patriarchal. A respectable number of wives and a large number of descendants are a source of revenue themselves, as the women, children and grandchildren do the work. This is from the official French records of paternity.

PIRATES, BACK HOME, DRILL FOR DETROIT

By CARL W. SHATTO.

Back home after a 10-day road trip, during which they met four different foes in as many different cities in two countries, Manager Frank Frederickson and his ice Pirates today made ready to welcome the Detroit Tigers to Duquesne Garden, Saturday night.

The fray with the Michiganders will be one of unusual importance and appeal in that it will be the first to be played here in two weeks and if the Bucs are able to hold up their end it probably will be crowded with action.

FINE RECORD

The Detroiters have swamped the New York Rangers, 7-3, beaten the Toronto Leafs and held the Montreal Maroons to a 2-2 tie in their last three starts, and they are making fine progress in their efforts to overtake the Chicago Hawks and get into the Stanley Cup playoffs. The locals trimmed the Cougars, 3-1, the last time they appeared here, but they are certain to experience plenty of difficulty in attempting to convince the invaders that it is their duty to accept another dose of the same bitter medicine.

Ren Manners, former local amateur star who was farmed to the London (Ontario) Club a few weeks ago, was back in the Pirate fold and Archie Briden, obtained from the Philadelphia Arrows at the start of the present campaign, was in London when the Bucs returned to the home port. Briden was sold to the London club yesterday, and Manners was recalled to Pittsburgh at the same time. Both are forwards who can perform at either center or wing.

ELDER SPRINT SERIES VICTOR

NEWARK, N. J., Jan. 30.—(AP.)—Jack Elder, hero of many exploits in football and track for Notre Dame, has tasted defeat for the first time this season, but he did not allow the taste to linger.

Making his second appearance of the Eastern indoor season at the St. Joseph's Catholic Club games here last night, Elder lost the first race of the Rupert F. Mills memorial sprint series to Jimmy Pappas, former Princeton star, now wearing the colors of the Newark A. C. Pappas won the 50-yard event, but Elder came back to win at 60 and 70 yards and capture the series prize.

FANS BOO DECISION

CINCINNATI, Jan. 30.—(AP.)—A chorus of boos greeted the judges' decision last night when they declared the 10-round match between Bushy Graham, N. Y. featherweight, and Freddie Miller, Cincinnati, a draw. Graham knocked Miller down three times in the tenth round and had him in a bad way.

E. V. BABCOCK TO ATTEND DINNER

By CHARLES J. DOYLE

County Commissioner E. V. Babcock, former Mayor of Pittsburgh, today accepted an invitation to be one of the speakers at the second annual dinner of the local chapter, Baseball Writers of America. The event will take place Thursday night of next week in the William Penn Hotel.

A keen lover of sports, Commissioner Babcoock has been very active in the furtherance of additional golf links for the people of Allegheny County. He is one of the prime movers in the agitation to build courses in the new North and South parks.

NOTABLES TO ATTEND

The dais for the coming event will flash almost a score of men of varied prominence. Leaders of sports will mingle with men who are high in politics. Men like Babcock and Judge Landis, commissioner of baseball, will respond to toasts, as will John A. Heydler, president of the National League; Honus Wagner, who needs not to be classified, and many others.

Another late acceptance is Chick Meehan, head football coach at New York University. Meehan will come on from New York and it is certain that his presence here will be of unusual interest to the football followers of the city.

GOLFERS REPRESENTED

John Jay Burke, Ken Witherow and Al McBride, members of the general committee and three men who have the interests of golf close to them, report keen interest among the public links golfers. From present indications these links lovers will have a fine representation at the banquet hall.

Johnny Freund, one of the leaders of basketball in the city, states soon will be filled. Freund is that his table of oldtime passers anxious to get in touch with those who are desirous of attending.

JOCK GLOOMY OVER OUTLOOK NEXT SEASON

By HARRY KECK
Sports Editor

The 1930 football season at the University of Pittsburgh—take it from the good Dr. John Bain (Jock) Sutherland, head coach—will be a case of the Panthers unexpectedly winning the tough games and losing the ones they are conceded to have a good chance of winning.

Not any more pessimistic than usual, but at least as much so, Dr. Jock orated forcefully on the rigors of the schedule that faces his charges next fall as he addressed the assembled alumni, students, players and other guests at the annual banquet for the football squad, held last evening in the Schenley Hotel.

Little, if any, allusion was made by any of the speakers to the Tournament of Roses debacle, in which Pitt, after going through the regular schedule undefeated last fall, went down to a 47-15 defeat at the hands of the University of Southern California Trojans on New Year's Day. Neither was there any extraordinary tooting of horns over the really great season enjoyed by the team.

DI MEOLO PRAISED

Coach Sutherland lauded the players of the 1929 squad and said it would be hard to replace those who are leaving. He paid a fine tribute to Capt. Albert (Luby) Di Meolo, who, he said, played the game hard to live up to his office and generally under a handicap of weight and strength against bigger opponents on the line; he said he hoped his appointment of Eddie Baker, quarterback, as captain for next season, replacing the system of electing the captain, would be both understood and appreciated; that the Pitt team's spirit had more to do with winning games last fall than any coaching, and admitted that he had done less coaching last fall than in several years past, due to the fact that he had so many veteran players of experience on the squad. He also stressed the point that there was harmony in the ranks, adding that when the time came, if ever, when he could not have harmony on a team he would quit coaching. He said he was sorry to lose Charley Bowser as an assistant coach, but congratulated Bowser on taking advantage of an opportunity to better himself by going to Bowdoin College, in Maine, as coach.

Dr. Sutherland laid emphasis on the difficulty of next fall's schedule, embracing four games away and six in a row with Class A teams of national reputation, and it was at this point that he let it be known that he did not expect another defeatless schedule. "I think we'll win unexpectedly in some of our games and lose the same way in others," was, in effect, the way he put it.

COACH ENJOYED SEASON

The coach said he enjoyed the 1929 season and wished he could go through it again. He pointed out that the players who finished up their careers on this team saw only one game lost in three season schedules and had earned two Eastern championships in that time.

Other speakers included W. C. Arther, '17, president of the Alumni Association, who presided and introduced Dr. C. Wallace Petty, an able and eloquent toastmaster if ever there was one; John B. Nicklas, Jr., '20, chairman of the alumni council, who thanked the coach and players on behalf of the alumni for their fine

I just lost the ball and looked in the cup and there it was." . . . . . Voice: "To settle a bet between A and B, tell me if Jack Johnson's sister was married to Sam Langford's brother" . . . . Red Mason (to yours truly): "Those cockeyed judges gave me the works again. Now, you know Dominick Profio ain't that kind of a fighter. When he wins 'em he wins 'em" . . . . . Fight fan: "A says Harry Greb's right name was Berg and he spelled it backwards. B says it was Smith. Which is right and was he any relation to Jack Berg, the English fighter?" . . . . Johnny Freund again (to anybody who will listen): "Here's a great story for you. I got the Rosies booked. What? No, not hooked. I said booked!"

DISPLAY OUT TO SHATTER ZEV'S RECORD

'IRON HORSE' IN '30 DEBUT SATURDAY

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 30.—(AP.)—Display, the iron horse of American turf sets for a Saturday in a renewed attempt to shatter the all-time money-winning record held by the great Zev. The 17-year old W. S. Kilmer thoroughbred is slated to make his 1930 debut in the Miami Beach Handicap at Hialeah Park.

Should a victory end the Florida future, Display will be shipped West for the richest prize of them all—the $100,000 Agua Caliente handicap late in March. Pitted against the best of the winter racers, the son of Fair Play will have a golden opportunity to become the greatest money-winning horse of American turf history.

More than $90,000 awaits the winner of the rich Mexican stake. Display closed the 1929 campaign with earnings in excess of $250,000 to move into second place. Zev piled up $313,639 for Harry Sinclair's Rancocas stable before going into retirement. A simple problem of arithmetic shows at a glance where Display will end up—if he wins.

To pass such great money winners as Man O' War, Exterminator, Sarazen and Crusader, the grand old horse of the turf faced the barrier 89 times. He was first to the finish line on 25 occasions, second 25 times and third 26. In six other races he would up fourth and got paid for it, for only 19 times out of the money or 25 times unplaced. His last victory was in the Baltimore handicap at Pimlico in which he beat such topnotchers as Misstep, Dr. Freeland and Sun Edwin.

Display will be burdened with the heavy impost of 126 pounds for Saturday's $2,500 feature at Hialeah. This is three more pounds than allotted to A. W. Wentzel's flashy Low Gear and five more than assigned to Tutti Frutti, the South American champion, which was the sensation of the track last winter. The Iron Horse is said to be in excellent condition for his inaugural working out a mile yesterday in 1:44 under wraps.

SWIM STARS HERE TONIGHT

Four stars of the Women's Swimming Association of New York will be contestants in the aquatic gala to be held tonight in the pool of the Keystone Athletic Club.

Lisa Lindstrom

Eleanor Holm, all-around women's swimming champion; Lisa Lindstrom, of Olympic fame; Agnes Geraghty and Constance Hamp, 12-year-old champion, will appear in the local meet.

Miss Holm will make an attempt to better the record of 2:59 1-5 in the 200-meter swim. This mark is held by Marie Braun, of Holland.

In Miss Geraghty local swimming fans will see the ranking women's breast-stroke champion of the world. Miss Hamp is rated as one of the youngest champions in water sports.

TWO RECORDS FALL

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—(INS.)—Two new world records gleamed in the swimming world today.

At a sanctioned meet here last night Eleanor Holm, Lisa Lindstrom, Adelaide Lambert and Erna Kompa hung up new marks in the 600-yard back-stroke relay swimming events and the 150-yard event.

In the 600-yard team event, each swimming 150 yards, Miss Holm dashed it off in 1:36 1-5, smashing the international record of 1:37 1-5 held by Ellen King, of Scotland, as well as the American record of 1:38 1-5 made in 1924 by Sybil Bauer, of Chicago.

The time of the team event was 8:19 1-5.

FAIRS MEETING CLOSES TODAY

The Pittsburgh meeting of the Pennsylvania State Association of County Fairs will be brought to a close today, the Keystone Short Ship and Coal Oil and Iron harness racing circuits holding their annual confabs at the Fort Pitt Hotel. The convention opened yesterday with a morning and afternoon meeting of the Fair Association and a banquet in the evening.

Chief among yesterday's accomplishments were the recommendations of the nominating committee composed of Joe McGraw Washington, Pa., D. J. Pike, Meyersdale, Pa., and M. I. Gardner, Clearfield. This committee nominated the present officers for re-election and named W. Bruce, Jr., of Bedford and J. T. Anderson, of Beaver, to succeed N. L. Armstrong and M. J. Patterson, respectively, on the executive committee.

The men nominated yesterday will be voted on at the Philadelphia convention of the association scheduled for February 12 and 13. Harry White, of Indiana, Pa., president; William Beuchley, Pottsville, Abner S. Deysher, Reading; S. B. Russell, Lewistown, and John J. Koebert, Waynesburg, vice presidents, and J. F. Seldomridge, Lancaster, secretary, are on the ticket.

Yesterday's morning session was called to order by President White and featured a general discussion of county fair business. In the afternoon L. F. Entrikin, assistant general passenger agent of the Pennsylvania Railroad, A. V. Snell, manager of the Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce, A. R. Engle, Greene County farm agent, Mrs. Hal E. Scroggs, Beaver, Pa., and A. P. Sandles, of Ottawa, O., gave addresses.

Joseph M. McGraw served in the capacity of master of ceremonies at the banquet in the evening.

Manager McGraw's young men will begin active preliminary work on February 17, instead of February 15, as previously announced.

High winds hampered the players and Beavis won with a score of 38-43—91, nine over par for the reconstructed Belmont Manor course. Poor putting cost Raynor M. Lieb Asks $10,000 To Coach Purdue

MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 30.—(AP.)—A three-year contract at $10,000 a year are the terms on which Tom Lieb, former assistant coach at Notre Dame, will accept the post as head football coach at the University of Minnesota, it was learned yesterday.

Lieb, it was learned unofficially, submitted these terms to a special committee, which is making a survey of candidates for the position left vacant by the resignation of Dr. Clarence Spears to become head coach at the University of Oregon.

Minnesota's counter proposal to Lieb was $7,500 a year with an annual increase of $500 up to $10,000 a year, which is the highest salary paid any member of the faculty. Lieb insisted he would not consider the post for less than $10,000.

Lieb said he had a contract in his pocket calling for $12,000 a year from another school, which he declined to name. It is known, however, that he is wanted as assistant coach at the University of California and as head coach at Auburn College in Alabama.

Waynesburg Passers Battle Wesleyan

WAYNESBURG, Pa., Jan. 30.—Smarting under the string of six straight losses, the Waynesburg College basketball team will make a determined effort to regain a winning stride here tonight, when they play the West Virginia Wesleyan cage team in the Armory court. The Bobcats are rated one of the strongest fives in West Virginia this year, however, and the assignment which Coach Wolf has given the Waynesburg men will be a difficult one to fill. An ancient rivalry existing between Waynesburg and Wesleyan will add to the interest in Thursday's contest.

The Goldensons, of the Allegheny County League, who finished in a deadlock for second-place honors during the first half of the race, present one of their greatest attractions of the season at Duquesne University tonight when they meet the crack Fort Wayne Guards, of the American Professional League.

The pro leaguers invade Pittsburgh with a lineup composed of some of the leading performers in the circuit and will present a powerful front against the popular South Siders. Included in their lineup are Davey Banks, former star of the South Philadelphia Hebrew Association and the New York Celtics; Johnny Beckman, another former Celtic and Cleveland Rosenblum star; Shang Chadwick, Russ Saunders and Ralph Miller. Miller is a former major league star, having played short and third base for the Phillies several years ago.

Sammy Goldenson, manager of the South Side team, has made arrangements to accommodate a large crowd at the Bluff court tonight, as interest in the contest has been unusually high.

In the preliminary contest the Lou Gordon Juniors of the Hill district, and the Red McMahans, of the South Side, the two outstanding junior teams in Western Pennsylvania, will begin a three-game series for the championship. The battle marks the renewal of a feud started last season when the Red McMahans defeated the Gordons for the title. The first contest gets under way at 8 o'clock.

The Goldensons set down Elizabeth, 40 to 36, in an extra-period County League battle at the South Side Market House last night. The first half ended 17-17, and the regular minutes of play closed with the teams deadlocked at 36-all. Angelo scored first in the extra period, with Jesko following up with two more points.

The Goldenson Vanities tripped the Fairmont Pirate Girls, 50 to 23, in a preliminary contest. The lineup:

Angelo	F	Lauber
Jesko	F	Leonard
Kotchall	C	Feder
Leisenring	G	Cline
Siegel	G	Furno

Field goals—Angelo 4, Jesko 3, Kotchall 4, Leisenring 3, Siegel, Lauber 3, Leonard 2, Feder, Cline 2, Furno 2. Fouls—Goldensons, 12 out of 20; Elizabeth, 12 out of 21. Referee—Lou Markey.

Dilello	G	F. Straight

Substitutes—Pearson, L. Castwell, Zakrzewski, Golden. Field goals—Good 4, E. Castwell 3, L. Castwell 10, Meier 7, Zakrzewski 3, Straight 8, Campbell 3. Fouls—Goldenson fouls out of 4, Fairmont 1 out of 9. Referee—Clement.

Dribbles

The J. J. Veronas make their bow in the County League tonight when they invade Elizabeth to meet the Independents in the only league battle on the card. Ski Twyman, Artie Hoffman, Johnny Serbin and Bill Miller will appear with the Veronas.

The Ray Schneiders, first-half champions of the West Penn League, meet the Young Men's Hebrew Association quintet in the only West Penn League game carded tonight. The game will be played on the Y. M. H. A. floor.

Equitable Gas and Rates and Service clash at Fifth Avenue High School tonight in the only game carded in the Philadelphia Company League.

In the Greater Pittsburgh Institutional League tonight, Hill top Y. M. C. A. is the attraction of the Young Men's Hebrew Association passers.

New Brighton High To Dedicate Gym

NEW BRIGHTON, Pa., Jan. 30.—The New Brighton High School will dedicate its new gymnasium tonight with appropriate ceremonies. The structure is the gift of E. O. Dawes, former New Brighton industrial leader.

The new building was erected at a cost of $85,000. Geneva College has made arrangements to use the floor for three of its big games this winter.

CHICAGO MATMEN OFF

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—(AP.)—The University of Chicago wrestling squad left today for a three-meet campaign in Pennsylvania. The Maroon grapplers will meet Penn State tomorrow night; Franklin and Marshall Saturday afternoon, and Lehigh University Saturday night.

CATHOLIC HIGHS TO MEET

The Pittsburgh Catholic High School basketball team will act as host to the Johnstown Catholic High passers on the local floor next Saturday night. The game marks the first meeting between the two schools.

N. Y. BODY MAY RECONSIDER DECISION

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—(AP.)—There will be fights at Madison Square Garden February 7, regardless of the heavyweight finally chosen in place of Johnny Risko as a "fit opponent" for Victorio Campolo, lanky Argentine in the feature bout.

The semi-final was fixed with Charley Belanger, Canadian light-heavyweight, meeting Joe Sekyra, of Dayton, in a 10-round match. Joe Banovic, of Binghamton, N. Y., will box Henry Lamar, of Washington, D. C., in another 10-rounder.

Despite the ruling of the boxing commission that Risko, who has whipped a host of big men, was not capable of handling Campolo, officials of the Garden will ask the solons Friday to reconsider their decision.

SCOTT STARTS WORK FOR SHARKEY FIGHT

CARPENTIER, CHARLES ALSO AT MIAMI

The Englishman was accompanied by Charley Rose, London boxing writer, and Ned Johnston, trainer. Johnston is a brother of Jimmy Johnston, Scott's American representative.

Georges Carpentier, former heavyweight championship aspirant, and Pierre Charles, who will meet Tommy Loughran in the semi-final bout of the February 27 program, came in yesterday afternoon.

Frank J. Bruen, general manager of Madison Square Garden Corporation, announced he had been informed that Max Schmeling, who will fight the winner of the February bout for the heavyweight championship, will be a ringside spectator.

Scott started training today.

STRIBLING SOUGHT

MACON, Ga., Jan. 30.—(INS.)—Pa Stribling, father-manager of W. L., the heavyweight contender, announced today he had declined an offer of $15,000 to his son to fight Jimmy Maloney, of Boston, in a semi-windup on the Scott-Sharkey bout at Miami Beach.

In a long-distance conversation that lasted a quarter of an hour, Pa demanded a flat guarantee of $25,000 for W. L.'s appearance at Miami, and Frank Bruen, Madison Square Garden official in charge of promoting the second battle of the palms, informed him that those terms could not be met.

KELLY TO SUB FOR SOLMEN TONIGHT

A sore throat has upset the fight card at McKeesport tonight, Mickey Solmen, of New Castle, having withdrawn from the main bout because of this ailment. However, the show will go on with K. O. Kelly, Negro welterweight, of Akron, meeting Gene Moretti, of Atlantic City, in the 10-round main bout.

Kelly is a rugged fighter and has met some of the good ones, and, while he is not the popular attraction that Solmen has become in these parts, he should serve very well as an eleventh-hour substitute.

Moretti arrived in town yesterday morning, with his manager, Frank Taylor, brother of Herman (Muggsy) Taylor, famous Philadelphia promoter of open-air shows, and worked out here. Gene is exceptionally rangy for a 150-pounder, extending into the air some 5 feet 11 inches. He has a fine record and the fans were looking forward to a keen battle between him and Solmen.

Jackie Herman, of Wheeling, and Thad Yarosz, of Monaca, will box the semi-final, Joey Angelo, of Braddock, and Sammy Paris, of the Hill, the second bout, and Abe Dempsey, of New Kensington, and Johnny Chido, of the West End, the opener.

Between Rounds

This Tiger Indian West, the Cherokee Indian, who boxes Young Saylor, of Charleroi, tonight for Young Otolski, of Sharon, in the windup of Promoter Francis Flynn's show at the Moose Temple tomorrow night, certainly boasts an imposing record. It includes victories over such boxers as Joe Anderson, Billy Jordan, Billy Burton, Billy Ryan, Bat Wallace, Johnny Mason, Pedlar Palmer, Harry Johnson and Harry Fuller, a knockout triumph in five rounds over Harry Williams, a draw with Roy Williams and defeats only by Jimmy Moore and Sleepy Firpo in his recent start. He likely will be rematched at an early date with Firpo, who won a decision over him at the New Castle Jolly Bowl last Monday night, getting the judge on him with a knockdown for a count of nine in the first round.

The bout between Dominick Frollo, of Corli, and Eddie Polo, of the North Side, the opening event at Moose Temple Pittsburgh next Monday night, should prove a slugfest. Polo is a lusty swinger and Frollo can't stand away all the time he is in there. In the other preliminaries, Battling Gizzy meets Bobby Young for eight rounds and Georges Perlach battles Tommy Ward for a six-rounder. Joe Trippe, of Rochester, N. Y., and Sergt. Sammy Baker, of New York, clash in the windup, a widely heralded return battle.

BANOVIC BOXES LAMAR

Joe Banovic and Jimmy Lamar have been matched to box the semi-final to Victorio Campolo's bout in Madison Square Garden Friday night of next week. Vincent Street meets Sixty McInerney in the 10-rounder on the Maxie Rosenbloom-Abe Feldman card February 14, and Black Bill will box Midget Wolgast in the semi-final to the Kid Chocolate-Al Ridgway bout in the same arena, February 21.

The card has been completed for the Indian Tiger-West Young Saylor show at the Moose Temple tomorrow night with the signing of Frankie Ellis, of Charleroi, a protege of Willie Davies, the flyweight star, who will help to second him, to box Jim Thomas, Negro bantamweight, of the Hill, in the six-round opening bout. In the semi-final, Cowboy DeLuca meets Hans Roberts, and, in the second bout, Frank Novak and Ray Braun, North Side heavies, oppose each other.

Louis Severo, of Meadville, and Russell Bradford, of Cleveland, have been signed to engage in an eight-rounder at Meadville next Monday night. Nick Severo and Steve Greb appear in a six-round battle on the same card.

SCHWARTZ TO BOX RODGERS

Benny Schwartz, formerly of Baltimore, and now of Pittsburgh, has been signed as Jackie Rodgers' opponent in the main bout at Madison Square Garden one week from next Monday night.

E. O. Yutzy, of Meyersdale, Pa., now is under the management of Joe Dubranski, of McKeesport.

George Engel, veteran boxing manager, who handled both Frank Klaus and Harry Greb when they were middleweight champions, is seriously ill in a hospital in New York. It is said he is suffering from Bright's disease. He is a former Pittsburgher.

Jack Zivic, accompanied by Mrs. Zivic and their baby daughter and Mrs. Messner, mother of Mrs. Zivic, left by automobile today for Pelham Manor, N. Y., where the Zivics will make their home in the future.

A card of amateur boxing bouts will be staged at the Moose Temple tonight under the auspices of the Equitable Gas Company Employes' Association.

Pete Zivic received word today that his bout with Earl Mastro at Chicago, February 7, has been called off because Mastro is suffering from an infected tooth. Pete is training and ready for other battles. The injuries to his side, suffered in his recent bout with Jackie Rodgers here, have mended.

Ganzy Benedict Lost to Dukes' Floor Squad

George (Ganzy) Benedict, captain and star forward of the Duquesne University basketball team, will not be able to appear in the lineup against the Bethany Bisons on Saturday night, as was expected, because of an injury to his elbow suffered in a practice session held Monday.

Benedict, who had been out of the lineup for several weeks as a result of injuries suffered in an automobile mishap following the return of the Dukes from a tour of the Middle West, was expected to be in shape for the clash with the West Virginians.

N. Y.-PA. LEAGUE TO LOSE CLUB

HARRISBURG, Jan. 29.—(INS.)—Solution of Harrisburg's muddled baseball situation today seemed about as far away as the poles. The future of the Senators—only club of the New York-Pennsylvania League needed to complete the roster for the 1930 campaign—is balanced on the slenderest of threads.

Unable to post the necessary $2,000 to insure the destiny of the team for another season, M. (Mickey) Dull, former business manager of the Senators, announced yesterday that his proposition to take over the franchise had fallen through. At a meeting, called by directors to establish the city's status in the problem, no one would agree to guide the team for the coming season and assume the debts that have been incurred since the Senators entered the circuit.

Baseball enthusiasts will assemble for a final consultation on February 4, when the team will be declared definitely "in" or "out" of the Farrell circuit. As matters now stand, there is little likelihood of a settlement being reached. Indications are that unless enough funds are forthcoming in the near future, the club has about reached its end as a NY-Pa. representative.

FIGHT RESULT

At Cincinnati — Bushy Graham and Freddie Miller drew, 10 rounds.

DEATH OF DALY RECALLS BOUT

OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 30.—(AP.)—The death of Dan Daly, 60, featherweight fighter of four decades ago, in St. Louis yesterday, recalled to the fathers and grandfathers of present day Omaha fight fans his memorable 91-round draw with Tommy White in 1890.

The fight, held here December 7, 1890, is in the record books as the second longest in history.

In those days it was considered more or less of a disgrace if the battle did not end in a knockout victory. Accordingly when, at the end of the ninety-first round the referee decided that the two gladiators were too weak to continue, he called the fight a draw and each fighter was fined $50 because it had not gone to a knockout.

During the fight the hands of both men were broken and each was so badly bruised that weeks were required for recuperation.

Sandy Griswold, veteran sports writer who died here within the last year, wrote of one of the rounds:

"In the seventy-first round White rallied all his strength for a final effort to finish the man from Maine. He went after him hammer and tongs style and succeeded in staggering Daly for a moment. But Daly never lost his head, and smiled serenely as White hit him several stinging blows in the face and neck. It looked as though White would win, but when the next round was called Daly was as chipper as ever, while White was plainly winded by his violent efforts. From this time on it was evident that neither of the men could finish the other except by accident and it was only a question of endurance."

Each battler received $200 as his share of the $500 purse after the $100 in fines had been deducted—which, to drag out the rapid calculator, netted each approximately $2.19 per round.

Jim Marks, advisory coach at Kiski, has just completed an agreement with the athletic authorities of the University of Pennsylvania, for a game at Kiski. It will be played on Saturday, November 1.

This first invasion of the west by a Penn freshman team is looked upon as a noteworthy event in prep school athletics and the game is expected to be the big football attraction of the year at Kiski.

RAY BARBUTI REINSTATED

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—(AP.)—Ray Barbuti, former Syracuse track and Olympic 440-meter champion, last night was reinstated by the National Amateur Athletic Union. Nearly a year ago Barbuti was barred from further competition in meets sanctioned by the A. A. U. He had aroused the ire of that organization by stating certain amateur athletics were paid.

Barbuti appeared before the registration committee at St. Joseph's Catholic Club indoor track meet, Newark, N. J., last night and handed in a written apology for his statements. The apology was addressed to John J. Deignan, chairman of the A. A. U. registration committee.

The Olympic champion immediately was reinstated and given a registration card.

ECONOMY BOARD SELECTED

LONDON, Jan. 30.—(AP.)—The economic advisory council upon which Prime Minister MacDonald counts greatly for the successful solution of Great Britain's economic ills will consist of five members of the cabinet and such other persons chosen by the prime minister because of their special knowledge and experience in industry and economics.

The chief duty of the council will be to advise the government on economic matters, to study developments in trade and industry and the effect on them of legislation, to examine the fiscal policy at home and abroad and to observe all aspects of national, imperial and international economy with reference to their bearing on the prosperity of the country.

The chairman of the council will be the Prime Minister. The other cabinet members will be the chancellor of the exchequer, the Lord privy seal who now is engaged in the unemployment problem, the president of the Board of Trade and the minister of agriculture. Other ministers as may be summoned from time to time by the prime minister also will work on the council.

WEATHER POOL CHIEF HELD

DETROIT, Jan. 30.—(INS.)—A "weather pool" racket which police say catered to many socially prominent Detroiters was discovered here following a raid on an office in a downtown building.

Jack Wolfe, said to be the owner and operator of the pool in which bets were placed on daily temperatures, is being held on a charge of larceny by trick.

A copy of the social directory was found in the office, many of the names appearing in it being underscored.

In addition to the social directory, 10,000 lottery tickets were discovered.

A man who won the pool claims Wolfe had refused to pay him the $100 prize. He notified police and the raid followed.

Slippery Walks, No Mail, Says Postmaster

Within a week two mail men have been injured in falls, and one is under the care of a physician.

Charles H. Yaw had a bruised shoulder when he slipped on ice and Robert H. Mulac fell and is still confined to his bed.

U. S. TELEPHONE RULE URGED

ALBANY, Jan. 30.—(INS.)—Another blow at the $14,000,000 increase in telephone rates which the New York Telephone Company is planning to put in effect Saturday, was delivered in the legislature with the introduction of a resolution calling on Congress to place all telephone companies in the country under the complete control of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The proposal was sponsored by Assemblyman Louis A. Cuvillier, New York City Democrat.

The state legislature already has adopted a Democratic resolution urging Congress to curb the power of the Federal courts to grant rate increases before the utility companies have carried their case through the state courts.

DU PONT TO ASK DRY POLL

WILMINGTON, Del., Jan. 30.—(AP.)—With a view to obtaining the sentiment of Delawareans on the present state law for the enforcement of prohibition, Pierre S. du Pont, millionaire of this city, is sponsoring a movement to poll the adult population of the state.

At a meeting held last night, Mr. du Pont said there would be placed in the mails next Tuesday 112,000 questionnaires addressed to all of the known adults in the state asking each to vote yes or no on the following question:

"Do you favor the repeal of the Klair law?"

The Klair law is the Delaware state prohibition enforcement act. It is regarded as more stringent than the Volstead act.

Mr. du Pont's questionnaire will ask every person receiving one, whether he is willing to have his name attached to a petition to the next Legislature for or against the repeal of the Klair act. If the signer is willing, his name will be used. Mr. du Pont's intention being to send two petitions, one favoring repeal and the other in opposition.

Here's The Surest Way Known To Get Your Daily Vitamins

Better Health and Greater Strength, Energy and Activity for Weak, Rundown, Underweight Folks.

TAKE YOUR VITAMINS STRAIGHT

Now any thin, worn out, sickly, nervous man or woman can swallow two easy-to-take sugar coated tablets and get the equal in precious Vitamins of one teaspoonful of Vitamin tested cod liver oil.

This is an undisputed fact—and any broad minded physician or pharmacist will tell you so.

Real Norwegian cod liver oil is richer in Vitamins A and D than any other substance and the able chemist in McCoy's modern laboratory extracts these precious health producing Vitamins from this Vitamin tested oil and puts them in dainty sugar coated tablets.

These tablets are known as McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Extract Tablets.

If you take 8 tablets a day—two before meals and 2 at bedtime, it will be just the same as taking 4 teaspoons of pure cod liver oil—this will probably give you all the magic Vitamins you need.

Taking disagreeable cod liver oil to get the splendid results from Vitamins A and D is like building a wood fire to brew a cup of tea—you are hopelessly behind the times when you do it.

When you take McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Extract Tablets you are sure of getting the priceless Vitamins you need—no scientist will contradict that statement.

So why not forget about the greasy, repulsive oil and when you need Cod Liver Oil take McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Extract Tablets instead—just ask any druggist in America—precious but inexpensive, 60 tablets 60 cents.

NOTE TO PHYSICIANS.

For every ailment, malady or rundown condition for which you prescribe Cod Liver Oil, McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Extract Tablets are equally as good. Bear in mind, Doctor, that we would not be allowed to make this statement if it were not true.

'DOPE' SHIPPING CURB ASKED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—(INS.)—Narcotics have been peddled again in Washington, Senator Blease (Dem.), of South Carolina, charged in the Senate today during a demand for more stringent penalties for ship owners whose vessels are used in smuggling.

He urged the Finance Committee to insist upon a provision in the pending tariff bill for the confiscation of any ship on which smuggled narcotics are found, unless the master can prove his innocence. The present bill permits seizure of any ship only if the government proved the master or owner knew of the smuggling.

Blease said several million dollars' worth of dope had been delivered here recently, an amount that could not have been smuggled without the connivance of ship owners or masters.

"The FATAL WOMAN" of the London Studios

Many and varied have been the experiences of Dolores, the most famous artists' model of all time. She has touched the extremes of riches and poverty—danced before the Kaiser and won the favor of other crowned heads of Europe. She has bathed in a perfumed bath, strewn with flowers, and she has starved just as happily in a comfortless studio. Tragedy followed those who crossed her path—several noted men believed that life without her was not worth while. Read the secrets of her extraordinary career, next Sunday in The American Weekly.

How long will this energy last under the strain of a COUGH?

Rhythmic exercise like swimming, builds up vitality... Violent, spasmodic exertion like coughing, breaks it down

Fifteen minutes of coughing is as tiring as a three mile walk—or a mile swim. Coughing consumes your energy more quickly than almost any other bodily exertion. No wonder, then, that doctors advise us to check coughs at the start. Pertussin quickly relieves the cough by getting at the immediate cause. It helps Nature to loosen the phlegm, soothes the irritated throat tissues and quiets the cough spasm.

It is a purely herbal remedy entirely free from harmful drugs. Pertussin is pleasant to take and will not upset your stomach.

REMEMBER: Take a spoonful of Pertussin the moment you feel a tickling in your throat. Always keep a bottle handy. Doctors have prescribed Pertussin more often than any other advertised cough remedy. It is safe for every cough and for every member of the family. At all druggists.

Lily Damita, Mischa Elman On Radio Tonight

By DARRELL V. MARTIN, Sun-Telegraph Radio Editor.

LILY DAMITA, the cute French actress, and Mischa Elman, world renowned violinist, will take the spotlight in radio programs tonight. Lily will be featured with Rudy Vallee and Phil Cook on the Sunshine Hour, WCAE, at 8. Elman will be the Victor star, WCAE at 10 o'clock.

Plumbers' voices will trill operatic arias to the accompaniment of clanking pipes and running water in the Philco Hour, WJAS at 10. "The Plumber's Opera" mimics the melodrama and mannerisms of legitimate opera in grand style.

WJAS at 8:15 will bring from London the radio report of Frederic William Wile on the Five Power Naval Conference.

We Now Present

"The Ghost Train," a rip-roaring stage play that lends itself admirably to sound broadcasting, will be a treat over KDKA on Monday night, February 10.

From backstage of the Pitt Theater, Westinghouse engineers will pick up the rustling wind, the creepy thunder, the shrill whistle and screams as the "Ghost Train" tears madly on its way to destruction.

* * *

While on the subject of sound effects let us call your attention to a real novelty over WJZ at 7:30 tonight. One studio will be used for sound effects alone, another for actors and the third for music in the production of Cecil Lewis' "The Night Fighters," a drama of the World War. You will hear airplanes, machine guns, men in conflict.

POW WOW ENDS

Dick Powell ended his radio Pow Wow meetings over WCAE today. Starting next week WCAE will have a network feature in his place.

Amos and Andy have become temperamental, now want the Stanley to pay a $5,000 line charge to Chicago for their broadcast when they are here late in May. The broadcast was originally scheduled for the William Penn studio of KDKA. This would involve very little expense, possibly less than $75.

TODAY'S TID BIT

"Shoot!" in radio parlance means "Go ahead!" As in newspaper work program directors "kill" programs and artists instead of cancelling them. Movies, the newspaper and radio have many expressions in common.

Needless Suffering

The next time a headache makes you stay at home—

Or some other ache or pain prevents your keeping an engagement—

Remember Bayer Aspirin! For there is scarcely any pain it cannot relieve, and relieve promptly.

These tablets give real relief, or millions would not continue to take them. They are quite harmless, or the medical profession would not constantly prescribe them.

Don't be a martyr to unnecessary pain. To colds that might so easily be checked; to neuritis, neuralgia; to those pains peculiar to women; or any suffering for which Bayer Aspirin is such an effective antidote.

For your own protection, buy the genuine. Bayer is safe. It's always the same. It never depresses the heart, so use it as often as needed; but the cause of any pain can be treated only by a doctor.

BAYER ASPIRIN

BOULDER DAM PLAN OPPOSED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—(AP.)—A vigorous protest against the interpretation placed on the Boulder canyon dam and federal water power acts by the Interior Department was submitted by Representative Swing, (Rep.), of California, co-author of the Swing-Johnson act.

Contracts for sale of power from the Colorado River project are before Secretary Wilbur for action.

Swing said the views expressed by E. C. Finney, solicitor of the Interior Department, on the question of preference rights of municipalities as granted by the Boulder dam act were so far reaching and at variance with his interpretation that he filed the protest.

If the Secretary follows the opinion of the solicitor, Swing said, his action would violate both the "spirit and letter of the law," and would constitute an attempt to "graft into a law by interpretation a policy Congress had deliberately declared should be no part of that law."

DAILY TRUE STORY

Two Women With Similar Names Confuse Ernest Young Man

"SOMEONE for you, Mr. Woodward."

The switchboard girl in the office of Woodward & Lane, attorneys, called out to John Woodward just as he was leaving for the day.

"Let Bob attend to it," Woodward said.

"He has just left—and this man says it is urgent, Mr. Woodward."

He went back to his private office and sat on the edge of his desk as he picked up the telephone.

"Who is it?" he asked.

"Where are you, Tom, and how much?"

"I'm home—in Norfolk and I don't want any money—it's Lulu I want—understand—Lulu—stop her for me."

"What sort of stuff are you drinking down there, Tom?"

"Don't be funny—you know I'm not permitted to cuss over the telephone. Lulu is trying to run away and I want you to stop her."

"Oh," said Woodward, suddenly remembering the red-headed Lulu Savage that his old friend Tom Page had married. "I'm sorry, didn't understand," and Woodward moved over into his chair. "Now I'll do whatever you want, of course, but take my advice—if you can't hold 'em they aren't worth holding. There are too many lonesome ladies to worry—"

"I want Lulu. I want you to stop her. She's had her head turned by some theatrical guy named Jenkins and she's gone to meet him. You stop her and hold her until I can get there."

Woodward chuckled.

"Steady there, Tom," he said. "Do you expect me to go strolling around New York looking for a red-headed lady named Lulu Page?"

Death Threat

"Don't be funny. It's tragedy with me, Jack—besides Lulu isn't red-headed any more, she's had it bleached—and she's going to the Hotel Thraxton to meet this guy. I'll kill him when I get there. I'm going to fly up now. I'm telephoning from the flying field. I might be too late and thought of you—you just hold Lulu until I get there."

"Hotel Thraxton, eh? The'—a break. I live there, but look here, Tom—nothing doing while you are in that frame of mind about killing someone."

"Just stop Lulu, that's all, and warn Jenkins to keep away."

"But Tom, if she told you all this why didn't you stop her then?"

"She didn't tell me—I found a telegram he sent her. She knew him a long time—he was here to dinner once. What she can see in that fat, bald-headed homely fish I don't know. Of course, he's a great theatrical man and rich, but—but—"

"What did the telegram say?" Woodward asked, wishing he had left the office just three minutes earlier so as to have dodged this unpleasantness.

"It said, 'Met me at Hotel Thraxton. Love Nest O. K.' and it was signed 'Jay Jenkins.' Imagine his nerve to put in a wire that love-nest stuff and it going through a telegraph office. You head 'em off, hold Lulu some way—the old plane is ready now—goodbye—"

"But Tom, what I want to know—"

Woodward was talking into a dead telephone. Tom Page was at that moment running for the plane that was to fly him to the Newark airport, whence he could taxi to the Hotel Thraxton and stop his silly wife from making a mess of things.

John Woodward was scowling as he rode uptown to his rooms in the Hotel Thraxton.

He wanted to know when Tom's wife had left Norfolk, and when she might be expected to meet this Jay Jenkins. He wanted to know a lot of things.

He wondered what the devil a woman looked like whose red hair had been bleached. He had seen Tom's wife only once, and that was years ago, before Tom had married her. He couldn't remember whether she was plump or thin and it wouldn't do much good if he did, because she might have dieted into thinness or grown into plumpness in the six years that had elapsed.

Telephones Jenkins

Of course he could page her.

He telephoned to Jenkins' office after dinner but that brought nothing more than a report that he was out and not expected back.

Finally Woodward settled back in an easy chair in the main foyer, lighted a cigar and beckoned to Mickey, one of the page boys at the Thraxton.

"Aw, you're kiddin', Mr. Woodward."

"The lady's name is Page, she is a blonde; you go page her. I'll saunter around behind you because I want to get a look at her first."

"You never seen her?"

He went down the long corridor, back through the foyer, into the large writing room, calling for Mrs. Page.

Woodward was back of him, pretending not to notice him, but watching sharply. No one responded.

"Try it again," Woodward ordered.

This time coming from the orchid room, which corresponded to the men's grill, was a very beautiful blonde lady. She went to Mickey.

"I am Mrs. Page," she said. "Who wants me?"

Woodward never imagined that Tom's wife was so beautiful. It was one swell job of bleaching, he thought.

Woodward put on his best smile and manners, and when he did that he was a man any woman would admire.

"You are Mrs. Page?" he asked.

"Why, yes, but—I—I don't know how anyone knew I would be here."

Woodward handed her his card, saying "You don't remember me, of course."

"Oh, but I do, you are Jack Woodward, and to think that you remembered me."

"Suppose we go over in a corner of the writing room and talk a little while," said Woodward.

They did so.

"I suppose you saw me and then had me paged as being more diplomatic than coming up and asking if I were Mrs. Page," she said.

"No—the fact is, Tom telephoned me."

She Is Startled

"Tom!"

Mrs. Page seemed startled. This didn't surprise Woodward, under the circumstances.

"Yes, you see he found out all about it—he doesn't want any scandal, and of course it will be better for you two to discuss this thing sanely at first—then if you can't agree, to get a divorce in a nice quiet way. Surely you wouldn't really want anything so common as that love-nest arrangement."

Mrs. Page was staring at Woodward with big eyes.

"Did I understand you to say that my husband talked with you today?"

"He did—I assure you."

"Who do you think I am, Jack?"

Woodward was thinking that she was sure a fast worker.

"You are Mrs. Thomas Page—"

"That is right."

"You were Lulu Savage; you married Tom about six years ago and live in Norfolk. You lost your head over some worthless theatrical chap named Jay Jenkins and have come across here to let him put you in a love nest, but it won't do—I shall not permit it—not until I have first turned you over to your husband."

"If that isn't like you, Jack Woodward! So sure of yourself all the time—only it happens that my husband has been dead nearly five years and my name was Lulu Savage and I was never in Norfolk in my life—my home is in Chattanooga."

"It won't do, Mrs. Page. Now be sensible. You see I know all about Jenkins' telegram to you—and the love-nest arrangement."

"You haven't changed a bit—I'm sorry for your wife, Jack," she said, and instead of being flustered and ashamed she laughed at him.

"I never have married—and—will, let it rest there."

"Excuse me," said Woodward; and then, "don't leave this spot, I'll be right back."

He darted out to the big hall where he had seen Jenkins looking about.

"Listen, Jenkins, her husband is on his way here and if you want to keep whole and healthy get out," said Woodward.

"Which one's husband?" Jenkins asked, evidently worried.

Mrs. Page was coming out. Woodward wheeled and turned to her. "Come back, I insist—no scene now—I've just sent Jenkins away," he said.

Mrs. Page laughed at him.

But she went back to the corner and sat down.

And then Tom Page appeared in a wrinkled business suit which he had worn under flying togs.

"It's all right, Tom, I found her," Woodward said, shaking his hand. "She's in here," and he led Tom in.

"But that's not Lulu where—"

"That is Mrs. Page," said Woodward, firmly.

"She's not Lulu, I tell you—look!"

Woodward looked. Jenkins was talking with a fuzzy-haired woman.

She saw him and rushed to them.

"Oh Tom, Mr. Jenkins is going to produce my play the 'Love Nest'—isn't that swell? I wanted to surprise you!"

John Woodward turned back to the waiting room.

"Who are you?" he asked.

"Who are you?" he asked.

"Mrs. Page, widow. I used to be Jeanette Hadley, of Wakefield," she said.

"Jeannette? Why—Why I would never know you—you used to be so different."

"My good gosh," said Pa Weintraub, from Scranton, to his wife, "did you see the man kiss that swell dame in the writing room?"

THE FOUR GRACES

Drawn by Nell Brinkley

"These, as they change, Almighty Father, these, are but the varied God. The rolling year IS FULL OF THEE."

"THE rolling year," graced by Spring, in gauze and furs and flowers, Summer, browned by sun and sea, Autumn in wool of gold and red with a scarf of smoke from fall-fires, and Winter, embroidered in holly-berry and snowy with furs, is made for everyone. You have four Graces to choose from, and no matter whether you are the yearner who prays for blue and gold, or he who asks for sun and wind, who passions for rain and dark skies, who loves the snow and petitions for the sunlit glitter of its icy fields, all of you and any of you have what you love best, one day or another.

The year is "but a varied God," and packed with beauty for every taste. It turns, showing a new and marvelous arrangement of the colors of the great kaleidoscope of nature each hour, each moment. And you and I watch with an awed eye and a grateful heart. Snow for the white bear! Rain for the thirsty corn! Sun for the walnuts of California, and your little child and mine! Wind for the flying clouds that play their part.

The Marry-Go-Round

By HELEN ROWLAND

Mrs. Solomon's Sayings

BEHOLD, my Daughter, upon New Year's Day, a man of Babylon vowed a vow and took oath solemnly, saying: "Never again shall liquor touch my lips! For all the stuff is BAD, and I am through with it!"

* * *

Yet, a fortnight had not passed, when I met him upon the highway. And he was on his way to a Speakeasy.

And I questioned him, saying, "Alas, for what reason dost thou DO this thing?"

And he answered me, sadly, saying, "Madam, what reason wouldst thou prefer? For I can give thee fifty-seven varieties of reasons, and each one good!

"Verily, verily, the reasons for which a man taketh a drink are as the leaves of the trees, and the daisies of the field, innumerable!

"Lo, he taketh a drink, when he is sorrowful and cast down, in order that he may forget his sorrow and drown his troubles.

"And he taketh a drink when his heart is glad and he is full of rejoicing in order to 'celebrate' his joy.

"And when he hath won much moneys in the stock market, he taketh another to commemorate his success.

"When he is down upon his luck and without funds, he taketh a drink to forget his poverty and to give him the courage to face the world.

"And when he is fortunate and his coffers are full, he taketh a drink because he 'can afford the best stuff—and why not?'

"Behold, he taketh a drink in order to avoid a cold—and in order to CURE a cold. Because a woman hath refused to marry him—and because a woman hath promised to marry him. Because he is young and full of spirits—and because he is old and needeth a stimulant. Because it is hard to GET—and because it is EASY to get. And, likewise, 'just BECAUSE!'

"Yea, verily, Madam, a man that is thirsty and desireth a drink, and cannot find a REASON for drinking is indeed lacking in wit and resourcefulness! For a woman lacketh 'reason;' but a man can always find a hundred reasons for whatsoever he wisheth to do! SKLAH.

Tomorrow's Horoscope

Friday, January 31

THE astral forces for this day seem to give a degree of liveliness and initiative in old channels of effort rather than in the direction of new projects, which seem to be under a fairly hostile influence. This may carry a subtle force of underhand antagonism, of sinister stratagem or intrigue, making precaution and general wariness obligatory if these new ventures are to succeed.

Those whose birthday it is may have a fairly lively and eventful year, but their new ventures have some hazards of duplicity, fraud or misrepresentation.

A child born on this day should be lively, resourceful and enterprising.

Correct Manners

By Mrs. Cornelius Beeckman

DEAR MRS. BEECKMAN:

In finding a seat in a theater or church, if it is necessary to pass in front of others to reach one's chair or place in the pew, should one pass by facing the others? I notice that almost every one passes with his back towards those he must pass, but this doesn't seem right to me. PUZZLED.

IT is best, because easier and more convenient in this case, to face the back of the seat in front of one as one passes to one's seat.

The Return Address

DEAR MRS. BEECKMAN:

My mother insists that when writing a return address I should not use the "Miss." Should I? I have no older unmarried sister. A. H.

THERE is difference of opinion on this question. But, in my judgment, it is the better form to use the title—Miss—before the name, since this makes absolutely definite the form of the name for the return, if any is necessary.

Powdering One's Nose in Public

DEAR MRS. BEECKMAN:

While out with a young man, is it proper to powder your nose in public? That is, during intermission or at the end of the show, or at the table in a restaurant, or in a dance hall, or should one excuse oneself each time and go to the ladies' room?

S. R. K.

THEORETICALLY it is not good manners to do any of the details of "make-up" in public. But now the etiquette bars are somewhat let down on the question of powdering one's nose, and so, if one doesn't do it too often or in too obtrusive a way or in an unattractive way (such as the ridiculous way that some girls have of vigorously and determinedly patting the powder puff on the nose), it is more or less taken for granted.

LOVEJOY :: By BEATRICE BURTON

Mister called up to ask you to send over his check book."

"Mr. Nicholson?" Lovejoy gasped. "Did you tell him I wasn't here?" Her voice was sharp and high like a wire that is worn to the breaking point.

"What would I do if Tom found out where I was tonight?" The thought flashed through her mind, leaving gloom and a kind of fear behind it.

"Sure, I tell him you went out," Hilda answered slowly. "Then he come home for his check book. He look in the garage and see you have gone with his car. Then he telephone Aunty to ask if you are there."

"You mean my aunt, Mrs. Pomfret, Hilda? . . . You mustn't call her 'Aunty'."

"Well, anyway, he telephone her and she tells him you are not there," Hilda's slow, thick voice ran on like a stream of molasses in the winter time, "She say she have looked out of the window, but you are not in sight."

She had looked out of the window! Aunt Em had looked out of the window!

"And of course she saw my car and Steve's car standing out in front!" thought Lovejoy with a feeling of walls closing in around her.

"There must be a letter here for me. Mrs. Bennett sent a boy here tonight with a special-delivery letter for me," she said nervously. "Look in the mail-box on the porch, Hilda."

But there was no letter in the box.

"No letter," said Hilda.

Lovejoy remembered afterward that she yawned when she said it—as if she had no earthly interest in that letter or in any other letter.

"I go sleep," she drawled. "Big day tomorrow. I go Scandinavian Club tomorrow and have one big time. Good night."

At 12 o'clock Tom came in.

She was wearing her brightest and most alluring smile when he came walking into the bedroom.

"Did you win?" she asked before he had a chance to say a word.

He looked at her soberly. "Where have you been?" he asked.

Love's Awakening

A Continuation of Love's Embers

By ADELE GARRISON

Madge Takes Over a Precarious Assignment

"COME away from here, pronto," Harry Underwood said in a low voice as the elderly woman in the roof bungalow slammed her door. "I've got all I need here, and I want to spill the rest of the stuff to you and Lil and the Dicky-bird. I don't mind telling you I'm nine branches up the tree and still climbing. I'll be out on a leaf if this keeps up much longer."

I followed him down the stairs, my own head in a whirl. For if my calculations were not wrong the bungalow was the only place from which the warning arrow had come. Yet I had understood that the woman was an old and respected resident of the hotel.

"It all clicks," Mr. Underwood announced as we rejoined Lillian and Dicky. "And then we come smack up against a monkey wrench in the machinery."

"There's one thing sure," he said. "That arrow came from somewhere on the hotel roof. But the manager and I have gone over the list of people tenanting those bungalows. Everyone of them is a tenant of long standing, of the very highest reputation. One of them is away, and the manager took me into his apartment and we searched it thoroughly for a possible invader. The others, with one exception, accepted the manager's explanation of a clever thief at large and offered us every facility of inspection."

He stopped and looked at Lillian.

"The one exception," she prompted, while I caught my breath, for I already guessed the answer.

"Is the old woman in the one bungalow from which the arrow undoubtedly came," he replied slowly.

"Is there anything suspicious about her?" Dicky asked.

"Not a thing. She is a bit eccentric, but perfectly sane. She is the widow of an artist and has lived in the same bungalow for over twenty years."

"Not much chance for your theory there," Dicky commented. "What excuse did she give for refusing permission for you to look over her apartment."

"Said she would have no men coming into her place. I understand she will have no service from men. The management has to hire one of the scrub-women to do her windows and her vacuum cleaning. She will permit no male employe to cross the threshold."

"Pleasant old party," commented Lillian. Then as her eyes fell on me, she added quizzically:—

"Speak up old dear. You'll choke if you don't."

"I have seen her several times," I said. "She spoke to me once or twice. Perhaps she would let me in to talk to her."

"Nothing do—" began Dicky, then he choked his objection off with a laugh. "I'm getting nerves over this, I guess. That's a good idea, Madge, and I suppose you ought to do it, but I can't pretend to like it."

"We'll both be right outside the door," Mr. Underwood promised. "And you're one good scout, Lady Fair. Come on back to the roof. Dicky you can trail along if you wish. How about it, Lil? Don't you think you'd better stay down here and keep an eye out?"

"I think that would be a bright idea," his wife returned, smiling at him, while I noted with a quickly hidden smile that Harry Underwood issued no direct commands to his wife as he did to the rest of us, but that she acquiesced in his requests as quickly as if she were Griselda herself.

Dicky, Harry and I hurried back to the roof, and leaving them a bit to the rear, I went to the jutting door of the roof bungalow and knocked, lightly, at first, then imperatively. After several seconds, the door swung open suddenly and the old woman I had seen several times confronted me.

"What do you want?" she demanded with the slightly guttural foreign accent which I had noticed in her speech before.

"I am afraid you do not remember me," I said in as gracious a manner as I could muster, for I was anxious to conciliate her. "I am Mrs. Graham, and we have chatted together about the view from here, when we have been on the roof together."

"Oh, yes, I remember you now. We were calling down curses upon that tall building which cuts off half our view. You must excuse me for not remembering you. My eyes are not very good. Won't you come in?"

She held open the door, and nodding casually to Harry and Dicky, I followed her into the studio. There seemed no possible reason for apprehension, yet I confess I felt the top of my mouth go dry, as she drew forward a seat for me in the big room which evidently took up almost the whole space of the bungalow.

"You are a friend of the big man, are you not, Mrs. Graham," she asked after a stereotyped comment upon the weather.

"He is my husband's best friend," I said. "They both came up with me this morning."

"Yes, I saw." She looked fixedly at me. "Well! do you want to know what he did? He and the manager seemed to think I was harboring a thief in here."

How to Keep Well

By DR. COPELAND

Bad Habits—and Nerves

IT is well to form good habits. To acquire bad ones, hard to get rid of, is most undesirable. Most of us have a lot of miserable habits. We admit the truth in our modest moments.

DR. COPELAND

Nervous people give expression to their feelings in a number of ways. For instance, a man may tap on the floor with his foot. He keeps pattering away, hour after hour.

Your next neighbor may pound on the table with his fist to give emphasis to his thought. Another crosses one leg over the other and swings his foot up and down, keeping time with invisible music.

Perhaps you have the habit of making marvelous geometric figures as you telephone. You may make pictures on a pad as the President does. As you talk business over the telephone you may gesticulate with one arm.

Sometimes we are driven nearly distracted by somebody who clicks his tongue, or cracks his joints, or keeps doing some other foolish thing. Everyone has some bad habit of this sort.

Among such wrong performance is the biting of the nails. It is one of the things that no one should do. It is a nervous habit. Girls have this habit more than boys. It may last into adult life.

Not only is this habit offensive in taste, but it is a violation of the rules of hygiene. The fingers should never be put to the mouth except after they have been made absolutely clean by thorough washing.

Germs of diseases and dirt are carried to the mouth in biting the nails. Goodness knows enough of these miserable germs get into the system anyway. Fortunately, the body is capable of taking care of most bacteria and germs, but if we can make sure of keeping them out we should do so.

Think of the people who wet their fingers to turn a page, and to count filthy money! The hands cannot possibly stay clean all the while. You should not place these soiled finger tips to your lips.

Break this habit if you have it. Teach every child to shun the bad practice of biting the nails. The finger nails, as well as the nails of the toes, should be given attention.

You are judged a great deal by the appearance you make. Well cared for finger nails, good habits of all kinds, all tell the tale of cleanliness and good health. They help your social standing.

You cannot quickly overcome nervous practices of long standing, but watch yourself and see what bad habits you can eliminate.

"What a difference," says PENN. mother

"MY little daughter, Edith, suffered from constipation until she was very weak and pale," says Mrs. M. Brown, 215 Maple Avenue, Philadelphia. "She got so we had to force her to eat, and nothing agreed with her.

"What a difference there is since we've been giving her California Fig Syrup. She began to pick up with the first dose. Now she's well, strong and happy, with a splendid appetite and wonderful color."

When bad breath, coated tongue or fretfulness warn of constipation, don't wait. Give your child a little California Fig Syrup. A child loves it. What Justifies Huge Mergers Now So Common?

By B. C. FORBES

THIS is proving another merger year. Since January 1 almost every days has brought merger news of some kind. And one hears whispers and sees signs that many combinations of magnitude loom ahead in industry, in transportation, in utilities, in banking, in merchandising and in other fields, such as publishing, advertising agencies and other service organizations. Certain very influential interests believe that the science of distribution is only in its infancy, and that economies as yet unimagined will be effected through logical, well-planned combinations.

The objective of the most progressive leaders in many of our basic industries is to knit as many as possible of the smaller companies and firms into a few large corporations and to cultivate sufficient co-operation among these large entities to insure the maintenance of ethics and conditions, making it possible for them to earn satisfactory profits.

I ASKED a J. P. Morgan & Company representative the other day, "Why is your firm becoming such a tremendous factor in the public utility and industrial world, especially in the way of bringing about mergers?"

"There is only one justification," he replied without a moments' hesitation, "for effecting huge consolidations. Unless such consolidations result in economies and in benefits—savings—to the public, they cannot be defended. No merger which fails to do that is warranted.

"Without discussing deals in which our own firm has been interested, I should say that most of the larger combinations we have witnessed have been justified on economic grounds, although, of course, there have been some others which bore earmarks of being prompted mainly by the motive of making promotion profits."

THE head of one of America's largest and most progressive banking institutions said to me this week:

"There are several phases of banking, several banking services, which are only in their infancy. The small-loan business is one. The handling of investments for depositors is another. Still more important is handling estates for people of modest means, the very people who most need to have their estates expertly handled, because usually the beneficiaries have not had financial training to fit them to invest and take care of investments skillfully.

"Business of the types mentioned, however, cannot be done at low cost except on a mass basis. We mean to go to the people with this service and, through advertising and other methods of education, build up such volume that we will be able to render services of incalculable value at trifling cost to each client."

He emphasized the words "mass basis."

AT first it was thought that the terrific stock market crash would kill all merger plans and aspirations. That assumption was wrong. Consider the magnitude of some of the many merger developments during the current month:

What is described as a $1,200,000,000 utilities merger has resulted from the placing of the mammoth Commonwealth & Southern Corporation directly in control of the Allied Power & Light, Commonwealth Power, Penn Ohio Edison, Southeastern Power & Light and the Commonwealth & Southern's own operations.

A $350,000,000 combination of Middle-West independent steel manufacturers, the Republic Steel Corporation, has been effected through knitting together Republic Iron & Steel, Central Alloy Steel, Donner Steel and the Bourne-Fuller Company.

The two-and-a-half-billion-dollar United States Steel Corporation has absorbed the important Atlas Portland Cement Company. "An $800,000,000 Sinclair Oil Deal" reads one headline over a Texas dispatch, says that Sinclair Consolidated is considering a merger with Rio Grande Oil. The well-known Sherwin Williams Paint Company has taken over John Lucas & Company of Philadelphia. The B. F. Goodrich Company has merged with the Miller Rubber Company. The Par-flung H. M. Byllesby Company has joined forces with the United States Electric Power Corporation, resulting in another billion-dollar enterprise.

Several oil mergers of magnitude have been agreed upon. Cities Service has put eight southern utility companies into one combination. The United Gas Improvement Company has become interested in the Midland United Company. "Big Mergers Loom for Niagara Hudson," says a headline. Investment trusts are well represented this month in merger deals. So are financial institutions. The Aero Corporation of California is to merge with the Western Air Express Corporation.

NEW YORK BOND MARKET

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—Bond quotations were slightly less irregular today than in earlier sessions of the week. An improved undertone was reflected in a narrowing of price fluctuations which in the early trading were about evenly balanced on both sides.

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—(AP.)—Transactions in the most active bonds on the New York Stock Exchange today were as follows. (000 omitted in sales column.) (United States bonds in dollars and thirty-seconds of dollars):

EVENING SUN-TELEGRAPH MARKETS

Stocks Advance — Local Market Steady

STOCKS GAIN AS TRADING INCREASES

Pools Supply Much of Activity With Public Participation Growing

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—(AP.)—Stock prices made further recovery in today's market under the stimulus of favorable trade and earnings reports. While pools continued to supply much of the activity, the broadening demand for stocks indicated an increase in public participation, particularly in some of the seasoned dividend-paying issues. Trading showed a further expansion in volume, with the ticker frequently running 10 minutes or more behind the market.

Failure of the Bank of England to cut its discount rate today was construed as an indication that no change would be made in the New York Federal Reserve rate this afternoon, although the drop in the Bank of France rate today was regarded as paving the way for an early reduction in the London rate, which has been held up by the fear of further gold exports from England to France. Call money again dropped from 4½ to 4 per cent despite the preparation of banks to meet nearly half a billion dollars in interest and dividend payments around the first of the month.

OIL, COPPERS LAG

Oils and coppers were the only important groups that failed to participate extensively in the upswing, buying of the former being held in check by the uncertainties over the price situation, while the latter group was affected by reports of a further curtailment of operations which are now said to be only about 50 per cent of last year's peak activity.

Auburn Auto and Celotex preferred each soared 11 points, but the former lost nearly all its gain on a mid-day flurry of profit-taking. Otis Elevator was marked up 7 points. International Match preferred 6⅜ and May Department Stores, Spiegel-May-Stern, Sears Roebuck, Celotex common, Vulcan Detinning A and Snider Packing preferred sold 4 to 5 points higher.

Although current traffic and earnings reports have been making extremely unfavorable comparisons with a year ago, the railroad shares nevertheless attracted a good following. Atchison and New York and Harlem each advanced 3 points and New York Central, Union Pacific, New Haven and "Nickel Plate" climbed 2 points or more. New York Central "rights" expire tomorrow, and today was the last day on which they could be traded in the regular way, as tomorrow's transactions must be for cash.

STEELS ADVANCE

U. S. Steel crossed 183 to a new high on the current recovery, and then ran into some profit-taking. Crucible, Gulf States and Newton Steels advanced 2 points or more. American Telephone, American Can, General Motors and Johns Manville also moved up 2 points or more.

Renewed weakness developed in International Telephone, which sold down more than 3 points. Simmons and United Aircraft also were heavy, the last named touching a new low.

A further break of $1.50 a bale, or more, in cotton futures to new low levels for the season featured the commodity markets.

GRAIN MARKET

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—Influenced by a new curtailment of the official estimate of wheat production in Argentina, wheat values here tended upward early today. On the other hand, price advances here had to contend with reports that Russia is offering wheat abroad cheaper than is asked for wheat from North America. Opening unchanged to ⅛ higher, Chicago wheat afterward hesitatingly scored moderate gains all around. Corn and oats were easy, with corn starting ½ off to ⅛@¼ up, and subsequently keeping near to the initial range. Provisions showed firmness.

GERMAN AFTER U. S. CROWN

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—(AP)—Sixty-nine Americans and a solitary foreigner will compete for the national indoor tennis championship in the annual tournament beginning Saturday at the Seventh Regiment Armory.

The lone invader came to light when the official draw was made at the office of the United States Lawn Tennis Association. He turned out to be Udo Zaenglein of Wurzburg, Germany, about whom little is known except that he is a member of the Wurzburg Hallentennisverein.

In the absence of a true line on Zaenglein's ability, the committee did not include him among the eight players seeded in the draw with Jean Borotra of Paris the present champion, unable to leave his business affairs in France to defend the title, Francis T. Hunter, of New Rochelle, N. Y., runner-up last year, was placed at the top of the chosen eight.

The others in order were:

Among the 70 who will compete are Wilbur Coen, Chicago; Lawrence Baird, Harvard; Major Ingle, of Maryland and Ohio, N. C., former National indoor junior champion; Dudley Mitchell, Washington; Robert Cumming, Washington, National indoor champion; Douglas Chapman, and Kimberly Appel, South Orange, N. J., viceroyalist in the only Middle Western contestant.

Lazar, member of the faculty, a golfer who described humorously and at great length the ill-fated but well enjoyed trip to California on which he accompanied the squad. Retiring Capt. Don Harrison, athletic director, who awarded the letters and numerals to bring the affair to a close.

serve will be meeting annually in various branches of college athletics.

In a letter to John L. Hervan, general chairman, Davis writes: "Received the invitation to attend the second annual sports dinner at the William Penn Hotel on February 6, but will be tied up with my duties here at Western Reserve and regret that cannot be there. I shall never forget the party last year, when you honored John Gruber. It was one of the nicest affairs of its kind that I ever attended. It touched me to know that the boys didn't forget John, who is a fine character and an old pal of mine. I hope he is able to attend the banquet this year. I am sure that it will be a huge success. I am trying to build up interest in athletic relations between Pittsburgh and Cleveland, and have a picture of the future, not many years hence, when Pitt, Carnegie Tech and Western Reserve will be meeting in annual contests at football and other sports. We have a school of about 10,000 students and 18,000 alumni, and occupy the same position in Cleveland that Pitt and Carnegie Tech do in Pittsburgh."

Karl E. Davis

THAT all hope of getting back into the running for the third playoff berth in the National Hockey League has been abandoned by Manager Frank Frederickson, of the local ice outfit, is indicated by his action in releasing Archie Briden outright to London, Ont., in the International League, and recalling Ben Manners from the same club.

In view of the hopeless position of the Pirates in the cellar, Frederickson's move is a sensible one. The only course open to him now is to build for the future. Briden is done as a big leaguer and looked more valuable than Manners to the Bucs only because of his greater experience, which can no longer help the cause of the locals. Frederickson has nothing to lose now by experimenting, and the experience that young Manners can pick up during the remainder of this season will make him of greater value to the team next winter.

Dawson Sets Pace At San Antonio

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Jan. 30.—(AP)—Johnny Dawson, Chicago amateur, yesterday shot a 75 over the Willow Springs course here to lead a field of more than 100 simon pures in a qualifying round for today's amateur-professional 18-hole event, preliminary to the fifth annual Texas open tournament.

Close behind the Chicago star was Ted Meisefer, San Antonio, with 76 and Lewis Leishman, also of San Antonio, 77. Jack Dodd, Houston, winner of last year's event, required 80 strokes for the round.

While the boys who play for love of the sport were scrapping it out for places in today's event, more than 100 professionals from the band which recently has been battling with par and the elements on the Pacific Coast, were busy tuning up their game over the Brackenridge Park course, where the $7,500 Texas open will be played.

course the guy who hit Pat Scanlon in the face with a mixture of lettuce and 1001 island dressing was no gentleman, but otherwise, everything was quite calm.

The gathering of notables was conspicuous by its absence. There were a few of the former high and mighty there but there were a lot who were not.

Bill Goodrich, Pete Gumbley, Jay Irwin, Red Byers, Bug Irwin, Jim Patterson with a few of the old timers who were on hand.

Jim Marks the Poet Laureate of Elders Ridge, was one of the guests at the speakers' table, which is just where he should have been. He did not recite any of his poetry, however.

The critic didn't answer.

"I said" she repeated "that you've probably seen worse ones than this."

"I heard you the first time" he replied. "I was just trying to think."

THE TRAGEDY OF IT

Some players can find the most amusing things to say about the tragedy of failures. There is this overheard repartee between two actors near 47th street.

"Seven Years. Three with Pantages Gus Sun and the Orpheum Circuits and four in front of the Palace Theater."

REASON ENOUGH

TWO dialecticians met on Delancey street. Paul Sem Goldberg met mit heh hawful heccident last night and hiff in de husspital mourned the first so why dun't you sending heem a talegrum uff sympatee.

The following day they met again. "Deed you send nain a talegrem?" asked the one who did the suggesting the day before.

"Nope I deedn't" was the reply, "I wruit him a letter instead, because he'll get it just as soon as a talegrem."

"How can dis be"

KIDDING A KIDDER

Of course we don't believe he said it, or anything of the sort but according to an unreliable eye-witness to the Mysterious Person"-who punched Dorothy Knapp at the Beaux-Arts Ball incident, Rudy Vallee was asked why he didn't rush to her defense. Rudy is supposed to have replied "I got enough trouble as it is—but if anyone thinks I'm afraid then I'll fight any woman in the house who is my weight!"

IN REBUTTAL

ROBERT E SHERWOOD fed up with "people who wouldn't live in New York if you gave it to them," argues that New York is not interpreted to him in terms of vice, crime, chorus girls and lobster palaces. It is, he says, purely and simply a pleasant place in which to live. He cannot think of New York as a great forbidding mass of cold, grey granite or a city that "has no heart." O Henry found on Manhattan Island beauty and warmth and the frail tissue of which humanity is made. He alone of all the strangers who sought shelter in our midst managed to see us as we really are. He pried beneath the skin and discovered flesh and blood. And Mr. Sherwood says that he has a daughter who is destined to grow up in New York and he doesn't plan to get her away from the false gayety and hypocrisy as soon as she graduates from the kindergarten.

"I promise this" thunders Sherwood, "not because of callousness, but because I know my little girl will be as safe in New York City as she would be, in let us say—Herrin, Ill."

SCENE

HE ws considered A Man About Town (wise guy to you) when Rector's was one of the Broadway Museums. He isn't as spry as he was then, but he still has a lot of coin and often frequents the messier speakeasies where the Big Idea is to get a sucker drunk quick and then "clip" him for all his pockets contain. The other 8 o'clock in the yawning he was being yessed by four hostesses and the "wine" for which he was paying $25 per Quart was going to his knees.

Yesterday he boasted "You gotsh this's Walter shinnell. Why I've lots more on me than you'll ever know."

But I could see of them as she lifted his Waterman "you shouldn't have."

NEWSPAPERMAN STUFF

Speaking of Walter Hoban's father as we frequently do there was the time when Hoban, Sr. was doing politics for the Philadelphia Record (don't stop me if you've written it) and he drew $500 for expenses to cover a national convention. Making out his swindle sheet upon his return to town he accredited for all the money except $50. After much head-wagging he finally jotted down "For upholding the dignity of the Philadelphia Record $50."

The city editor blue-pencilled that item and shot it back to Hoban who then went to see the managing editor about it. The managing editor went to see William Singerly, the owner, and placed it on his desk.

Pay it" instructed the boss "it's damb cheap!"

AFTER ALL THESE MONTHS'

ACCORDING to a writer named Ride Dudley of the Indianapolis (Ind.) Star: "When St. John Ervine came to New York 15 months ago arguments were soon going on between St. John and Walter Winchell and between St. John and Heywood Broun. The reason was the Britisher had his own ideas and spoke right out with them. He became the butt of much ridicule but none of it was deserved."

Merrily we roll a log.

IT COULD HAPPEN

Then there's the one about the theatrical manager who was on his death bed. His grief-stricken frau at his bedside turned to the dramatic critic who was trying to register sorrow, and she spoke regretfully because there had been no mention in the newspapers of her husband's illness.

"You must be mistaken, my dear," comforted the old meanie "did you look under the head of 'Amusements'?"

UNSCRAMBLE THESE ANAGRAMBLES
DAILY ANAGRAM PUZZLES

TRY your hand at this fascinating game of Anagrambles—the game that is taking the town like the crossword puzzle craze took the whole nation for a ride through the dictionary.

The game is quite simple. Merely change the following words by the addition of the single letter indicated. Do not omit any letter of the original word. The letter may be inserted at the beginning of the word, anywhere within the word, or at the end. Thus, the word "pate," by the addition of the letter "l" becomes either "pleat" or "plate." The word "drag" may be changed to either "grade" or "raged" by the addition of the letter "e."

The original word must be changed in meaning by the commentary letter. To change "mine" by adding "d" to form "mined," would be incorrect. Rearrange the letters of your word to change its meaning, not its tense or number. Take a pencil now and write in your newly formed word in the spaces provided.

Civil Service Breaches Reveal Serious Trend

Friends of civil service, designed to prevent evils that were prevalent when all branches of city government were subject to the "spoils" system of engaging public servants, are alarmed at the trend toward a return of that situation. Some time ago, as we all remember, Mayor Kline, when he wanted to fire a man for political reasons, and could not do so when the man's job was under civil service rules, overcame that difficulty with a nod of his head. The servile Civil Service Commission, wholly under the control of the mayor, merely removed the job from civil service classification and the holder of it, victim of the mayor's displeasure, was promptly disassociated from the job.

Just a few days ago four other jobs were "exempted" from civil service classification.

Where is it going to end?

Before the days of civil service all jobs were in control of the mayor, and a great many terminated when one executive was succeeded by another. No person in an appointive position of any kind, police and firemen included, could feel assured of serving under two administrations, although, of course, some did. Training or experience made no difference if one was selected to walk the plank. All that counted was whether the boss wanted one to hold a job or not.

Is the hope of bringing back that power of czar to the mayor the motive behind the dents that are being made here and there in the civil service system? It has that appearance, though, goodness knows, Mayor Kline has terrific power as it is, with both administrative and legislative branches of the city government under his control.

It is a situation which should cause even "payrollers" to reflect. If the payroll is foolish enough to set up a machine, it has only itself to blame if it finds itself the victim of its own creation.

Example of Ancestors Will Be Followed by People

Q. I see there is considerable unemployment in the United States.

A. Yes, but that won't last long. Didn't you read the report of the President's Prohibition Enforcement Committee?

Q. I did, but what do you mean?

A. I mean that the government is soon going to be taking care of everybody.

Q. How?

A. A large part of the population will be in jail and the rest of us will be employed by the government chasing them into jail and guarding them while they're there.

Q. Yes I know. We are to have MORE prohibition police officers and a larger coast guard and a big new border patrol. Then they hope to arrest MORE people?

A. Of course. That will require MORE courts, MORE judges, MORE prosecutors—all of them recommended in the commission's report, indorsed by the President.

Q. And you think the new jobs will solve the unemployment problem?

A. Largely.

Q. And I suppose there will have to be more prisons?

A. Oh, yes. The President's fifth recommendation is "expansion of federal prisons."

A. Eighty thousand last year were arrested and several hundred murdered.

Q. Could the federal courts handle 80,000 cases a year?

A. No. In spite of "bargain days," when those who pleaded guilty were let off with light fines, there were 20,000 CASES AWAITING TRIAL ON NEW YEAR'S DAY.

Q. Heavens, were those 20,000 people in jail?

A. No. They were out on bail, running or patronizing speakeasies.

Q. Are there many speakeasies?

A. Thirty thousand in New York City alone, Police Commissioner Whalen says.

Q. Does that mean that a large section of our people are lawless?

A. Well, it means that a large section of our people are defying what they consider an unjust, undemocratic and un-American law.

Q. Is that good AMERICAN doctrine?

A. The President's commission says it is.

Q. What?

A. Sure. The commission opens its report on prohibition by saying that prohibition clashes with AGE-OLD AMERICAN CONCEPTIONS OF THE CITIZEN'S RIGHTS.

Q. What are the comission's words?

A. "It is impossible wholly to set off observance of the prohibition act from the large question of the views and habits of the American people with respect to private judgment as to statutes and regulations affecting their conduct."

Q. Anything else?

A. The President's commission says:

"We must bear in mind the Puritan's objection to administration, the Whig tradition of a 'right of revolution,' the conception of natural rights, classical in our policy, the democratic tradition of individual participation in sovereignty, the clash of organized interests and opinions in a diversified community, and the divergences of attitude in different sections of the country and as between different groups in the same locality."

Q. But does the commission say or imply that there is no harm in nullifying such a law by widespread disobedience of it?

A. What else does this mean? "We must not forget the many historical examples of large-scale public disregard of laws in our past."

Q. What laws have we nullified by "large-scale public disregard" of them?

A. Well, for example, the Sunday blue laws and the federal laws supposed to give the vote to the Negro in the South.

Q. Well, in face of what the commission says, will Congress go right ahead building up the prohibition enforcement machinery?

A. Yes; bills are being rushed to put all the commission's and the President's recommendations into effect.

Q. Can't the people do anything about it?

A. Yes, finally the people will take the hint from the President's enforcement commission.

Q. And—

A. And follow the example of their ancestors to rid themselves of oppression and of the oppressors.

"Bugs" Baer Says:

Army of the North

THE proposal to place 10,000 armed guards on the Canadian border is a good one if you think so.

"Bugs" Baer.

This army of amendment sharpshooters will preserve law and order on the most peaceful border in the world.

Each man will be armed with a machine gun and a rifle. Why not give him a pair of boxing gloves also?

An internal revenue dragoon armed only with an automatic arsenal is no match for an American tourist equipped with a pint flask of liquid flame.

Canada need not fear that our proposed expeditionary force of 10,000 trigger mechanics is a violation of international good will.

We have been friends with the Maple Leafs for centuries. Canada has got what we want and we want it. Why should we steam up a quarrel with a hospitable neighbor who owns an orchard of bottles in which every bloom is a red nose?

The charge of the gallant 10,000 will be directed against the itinerant American tourist who strays from the roped and narrow gangway of liberty and tries to join the thundering herd of monarchial slaves who can still do as they desire.

This Army is a flattering imitation of the Royal Northwest Mounted and will be called the Imperial Southeast Gendarmes with winter underwear.

The border will be a new picnic grounds for embalmers. Everybody knows that a staggering tourist is a difficult target. The machine gun will come in handy in case of a tie.

The good American who used to go to Paris to die can now save a lot of carfare.

Having voted for President Hoover we stand on our rights as a citizen of most states and demand an identification tag. We are hoping to motor to Canada this summer.

But it seems that the only safe way to leave this country is to be deported.

You can attain the rank of brigadier-general with one drink. That entitles you to review the new army.

The man who takes a drink is a traitor to an amendment. The man who snoops on him is a spy to personal liberty. We certainly are baiting the mouse-trap of history with a fine lot of cheese.

We have no real objection to that army of 10,000 on the border provided that they don't give 'em a bugler.

Wise Words

In truth there is no such thing in man's nature as a settled and full resolve either for good or evil, except at the very moment of execution.—Hawthorne.

ON THE ROAD TO UTOPIA

By Herbert Kaufman

INSTEAD of dealing with political agitators A LA COSSACK, the New York Police Department would be better advised to adopt the amused tolerance of the bobbies in Hyde Park.

Nothing fans the flames of radicalism so quickly as repressive measures. Gas only becomes an explosive when stoppered.

London has heard more soap-box oratory than any city in the world, and just because John Bull pays no official attention to these little hot air parties, the braying asses of Britain never have the chance to graduate into popular martyrs.

We have little to fear from dissentors, so long as they dissent in the open. If our institutions can be imperiled by criticism and minority protest, they are too wabbly to survive.

The oftener they're assailed, the more opportunity they have to vindicate their integrity. Every illogical and unjustified attack upon the principles of democracy strengthens confidence in its soundness, and weakens the cause of the protestant.

That is why radicalism always failed to find a sympathetic audience in the United States.

Evolution, which constructively accomplishes everything that revolution wantonly achieves, sees America effectuating programs even more liberal than yesterday found marching behind the banners of socialism.

If George Bernard Shaw were half as fond of verity as he is devoted to epigram, he'd admit that we're already practicing more Utopianism than Toynbee or the Fabians ever preached.

The eight-hour day, the five-day week and the minimum living wages are in course of general acceptances.

Essential industries are everywhere taking employes into partnership.

MILLIONS of dollars' worth of group insurance equally borne by the beneficiaries and corporation treasuries are in active force. The dependents of craftsmen, factory hands and even domestic servants are safeguarded against losses through injury or death, by compulsory compensation statutes.

We have adopted an income tax system that increasingly lays the burden of governing expense upon inheritances and large incomes.

The majority of the states require school attendance up to the age of sixteen, and many schools furnish free medical examination, free luncheons for poor pupils and free dental service.

Widows are receiving pensions under legislative grant, and child labor is nearly extinct. So are salary loan sharks and sweat shops.

RAILROADS and power and light companies are under commission control. These commissions may not be entirely satisfactory agents, but they are at least brakes upon sumptuary rates and predacious franchises.

Instead of throwing superannuated folk upon the charities, federal bureaus as well as private concerns are retiring veteran help upon partial pay.

The great fortunes, previously amassed solely for descendant benefit, now aspire to ameliorate poverty, check disease, encourage research and democratize culture.

Granted that our economic processes are still intrinsically capitalistic, the weight of evidence indicates our social trends are uniquely benevolent.

The foundations and endowments established by Rockefeller, Carnegie, Rosenwald, Frick, Stanford and Harkness, together with the aggregated benefactions of the Hershey, Candler and Hubert group, far exceed the total philanthropies of preceding centuries.

We've a long way to go before prevalent inequalities are entirely adjusted, but no OTHER people has came half so FAR.

∴ LISTEN, WORLD! ∴

By Elsie Robinson

LOVE . . . how glibly we use that Big Word!

"I love!" we say . . . as though love were the same great experience for all people. Nothing could be further from the truth. Love, like water, can rise no higher than its source. Your love is as big as you are. And most of this thing we call love has about the same relationship to the Grand Passion as a spit ball has to the pyramids.

Romance . . . that feverish fiesta, with its extravagant vows and expensive gestures . . . that isn't love, though. It's chemistry, or biology, or a seizure like fits . . . but it isn't love. Only when that fury can be "cut down" and transformed into practical power for the daily performance, does romance become love. And not once in a million times have we the sense or control to transform romance into practical power.

The love of parents, concerning which there is so much hifalutin' oratory . . . the devotion of children to parents . . . the affection of wives for husbands and husbands for wives . . . what is, all too frequently, the reality behind these fancy terms?

THAT ISN'T LOVE!

Children hanging on to parents . . . running home to parents whenever life becomes difficult . . . finding an escape from uncomfortable conflict in their parents' coddling and flattery.

THAT ISN'T LOVE!

Women battening on men . . . demanding homage from men merely because they are women . . . using men . . . nagging, suspecting, scheming against men. . .

THAT ISN'T LOVE!

THAT ISN'T LOVE!

What is it then? It's an escape for cowardice, a camouflage for cussedness, an alibi for selfishness, a cover-up for conceit. But, by mutual consent, we glorify it with a noble name because we can't bear to face the ugly truth about ourselves.

REAL LOVE . . . THAT'S DIFFERENT!

And the test of its difference, lies in this—

FALSE LOVE GRABS . . . REAL LOVE GIVES.

FALSE LOVE ASKS REWARDS FOR ITS SERVICE . . . REAL LOVE FINDS REWARD IN SERVICE.

FALSE LOVE COUNTS THE COST . . . REAL LOVE DISCOUNTS THE COST.

FALSE LOVE NARROWS LIFE . . . REAL LOVE BROADENS IT.

Measure your experience, your interests, your service since love happened to you. What's the answer?

Isn't It So?

Walking is said to be the best exercise for brain workers—and a lot of brain workers can't afford to do anything else.

Actions may speak louder than words, but you can't make a woman believe it.

Text for Today

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.—Revelation xxi:4.

THE SCIENCE OF LIFE

By H. G. WELLS

In Collaboration With

Prof. Julian Huxley and George P. Wells.

THE sea-gooseberry, Pleurobrachia, is a delicate transparent globe of jelly-like consistency that floats in the open sea. Running down the sides of its body there are eight comb-like structures each tooth of the combs being a gigantic cilium; the combs are in incessant motion, giving the animal a beautiful iridescent appearance, and thus it swims through the water.

Trailing downward (but capable of being drawn in) are two long tentacles set, not with stinging-capsules, but with special adhesive organs.

By means of these tentacles the creature catches its prey—small fishes, crustaceans and the like — and pulls them into its mouth, which is on the lower surface of the globe.

H. G. Wells

Most Ctenophores live, like the sea-gooseberry, at the surface of the sea; most are transparent, tinged with pink or yellow, and some are brilliantly phosphorescent.

The wonderful "Venus' Girdle" of the Mediterranean is a rippling, band-shaped animal, delicate violet in color, with a brilliant greenish fluorescence, and may attain a length of five feet. One or two exceptional members of the group do not float but creep over the sea-bottom.

Ctenophores develop directly from the egg without any intermediate polyp-stage.

4. Sponges

IT HAS propably never occurred to many of us that we get into our baths in company with a skeleton.

There is nothing very suggestive of a living thing about the domestic sponge; and yet when it is examined with care it reveals some degree of organization.

The caverns that riddle it are of various kinds; there are conspicuous round holes, often large enough to admit the finger, and leading into neatly-trimmed, more or less straight cylindrical shafts that sink deep into its substance, and there are smaller, less regular holes, leading into a labyrinth of passages some of which open into the main shafts.

Moreover, the subject of the sponge is itself a network of branching fibers, a network so fine that its meshes are only just visible to the naked eye. These fibers are the picked and whitened bones of a living thing.

At one time the sponge was covered with flesh, and it lived at the bottom of a warm shallow sea—round the shores of the Mediterranean, the West Indies, Australia.

It was a yellowish, brownish, or dark purplish object, smelling faintly of garlic, elastic and slightly slimy to the touch; living bath sponges have been compared, in color and consistency, to fresh liver.

Most of its holes were closed with a thin skin of tissue. Some of the larger ones—the oscula—were open, although most of these could be closed at will by means of films of tissue round them, and scattered freely over its surface there were microsopically fine pores.

The creature did not move from place to place, it remained rooted firmly to a rock, and, except for occasional slow changes in the diameter of its oscula and pores, it made no visible movements.

They grow, and therefore there must be life in them of some sort; but many biologists considered them to be plants, and a few even believed them to be the dead by-products of living things, secreted by the worms that are invariably found crawling about in their cavities, much as the gelatinous investment of a sea-squirt, is secreted, or the tubes and cups of a coral.

But just over a hundred years ago Robert Grant made an observation of fundamental importance. He noticed that there was always a slow, steady current of water through a sponge—passing in through the microscopic pores, out through the oscula.

That current is the essential vital activity of the sponge; its means of livelihood and almost its only means of self-expression.

Sponge-cake, spongy iron, spongy platinum—the name has come to mean anything riddled with holes, for a sponge consists in the main of a tangle of aqueducts guiding its precious stream.

Its cavities are of three kinds: There are the "flagellated chambers" where the current is both caused and exploited, there are inward passages guiding the current from the surface pores to the chambers, and there are outward passages guiding it away to the oscula.

NEW YORK DAY BY DAY

By O. O. McIntyre

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—With the passing of the swing-door saloon on the Bowery, the creep and panel joints have vanished. There used to be several in each block, and to appearances were mainly upstairs sleeping quarters over drinking dives.

The creep joint compared to the present day flop joint. When a customer drank himself into a half stupor he was piloted to the overhead bunk. When the "creeper" slipped in and went through his clothing and the unfortunate awakened with little but a headache.

The panel joint was a trifle tonier, at least in outfitting. It was a fair sized bedroom with an innocent looking clothes closet. But the back of the closet turned on hinges, so the clothes, hung on hooks, could be swung around and lifted.

Many Bowery adventurers have come out of a fog of sleep to find every article they possessed gone. Proprietors added to the rascality by suggesting that victims send out for money to buy a few cast-off garments—garments kept on hand and sold at fancy figures.

Twenty years ago the Bowery also had from a half to a dozen hospital cases nightly among those who had knockout drops slipped into their beer by chance ladies and were rolled for their wads in adjoining alleys. Knock-out drops were chloral hydrate and produced sound sleep in 15 minutes.

Still another innocent-looking drink diversion of that unregenerate day was the Mickey Finn. It is given to fractious customers today in tough speakeasies. The Mickey Finn, named for a Bowery bartender, is a tasteless but nauseating potion producing violent illness.

Today the Bowery flop houses have attained shabby respectability. They are carefully sanitized and a sleeper is protected from nocturnal mauraauders who flourished in the old days. Some refuse to accept patrons who are befuddled by alcohol.

White boys in Chinatown have revived a game known as "devil chasing," which is a terror to Chinese. They fill their mouths with kerosene and blow it over a lighted match at some nodding Celestial. It gives the appearance of a spurting flame from the mouth and a superstitious Chinese will often leap up and run from it until he drops from exhaustion.

* * *

In Chinatown, the natives who have white girls are called Mules. A Mule will never switch in his affections and an utterly cast off woman regards his protection as safest of all havens.

* * *

The most successful bootleggers are Italians born in Chinatown. They are what the police call "tough bambinos," and are fitted to take the desperate chances they have to take in r. running! Six Chinatown boys are now millionaires from illicit liquor selling.

* * *

A noticeable change along the Bowery is in the manner of dress. In other days the Bowery was distinguished for baggy caps, gay sweaters, plaid skirts and rakish hats with a single bobbing feather. Such habiliments are seen today in portrayals of the Bowery on the stage. The Bowery dresses no differently from Broadway.

In the few remaining opium dens in Chinatown catacombs, the smell of wintergreen is always a tipoff to the police who make raids at intervals. Oil of wintergreen, smeared on newspapers and burned to kill off the smell of hop.

"I am," writes Prof. T. T., "a psychologist, but feel you will take no offense at my criticism of your lapses in English. In a recent seven-line paragraph there were two glaring grammatical errors."

All right. But all I want from you from now on is psychology.

ONCE OVERS

By J. J. Mundy

Perhaps that is a logical conclusion.

The person whose expression bespeaks good nature and general satisfaction with life, the one who does not appear to be ready to snap and snarl at any one who displeases him is usually from the smaller place.

It is also true that the man or the woman who appears ready to do battle is not so likely to be imposed upon habitually.

But what an unsatisfactory state to be in—a fighting mood all the time.

In the larger place it becomes necessary to push and shove through crowded thoroughfares and in congested places of all kinds if one would get anywhere.

He would be an easy mark certainly.

But there is a great deal of difference between self-contained, direction in getting about a large city and good-natured yielding to the forcing crowd.

You don't have to be a boor nor need you be a smiler to get along in any place.
